GRAIN

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2 - (CP) - Prices moved narrowly but showed a fairly steady tone in dull trade today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

Commercial demand showed some improvement. Trade reports said there had been enquiry for Canadian barley for Japan, while small quantities had been worked overnight for export overseas through Antwerp. The reports were reflected in export demand in both oats and barley. American interests also picked up the deferred months of oats. October barley displayed a good tone on shipper buying and light offerings. Flax received support from industrialists and seaboard interests. Americans picked up rye. No information was available on export wheat loadings. Prices for class two wheat and
