LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

CITY TAXES.—The defaulters list for city taxes is now ready for publication. Pay up and keep your name from being made public.

WORDSWORTH.—Tomorrow evening Rev. Mr. Moss will lecture on "Wordsworth, the Interpreter of Humanity" all lovers of Wordsworth should attend.

MORE COAL.—The schooners Chloris, Cymberline, Sabrina, Ceto, Howard L, and Warrior have all arrived from Dominion Coal Co's. Mines, C. B., with cargoes of coal for Peake Bros & Co.

THE TURF.—The St. John Sun says: The race at St. Martin's yesterday between Messenger Prince, and Deceiver was won by Messenger Prince, owned and driven by D. Atherton. The Prince won three straight heats; best time, 2.40.

BURNED THEIR CARDS.—It is said that at the close of a recent revival service in Millidgeville, Georgia, the converted marched to the market square, made a bonfire, and burned their cards and other gambling apparatus. One dealer destroyed 500 new packs.

FOR THE WEST INDIES.—Shipments of potatoes to West India ports have been very heavy this fall. Big prices are prevailing although falling slightly. One Shediac dealer claims to have shipped $30,000 worth of tubers. The Salamanca will take a cargo of several thousand barrels.—Halifax Herald.

THE BONAVISTA.—The Bonavista arrived Sunday morning with a large general cargo from Montreal. She sails this afternoon, via North Sydney for St. John's, Nfld., with cattle and sheep on deck and oats, hay, and vegetables under deck. This is the last sailing of the Bonavista from Charlottetown this year.

LAI'D TO REST.—The body of the late Mrs. James Barr was committed to the earth yesterday afternoon. The funeral procession from the house to the People's Cemetery was very large notwithstanding the inclement weather. The pall bearers were W. W. Stanley, Benj. Bremner, Henry Smith, J. T. Mellish, Benj. Sellers and J. Henry Gates. Rev. Mr. Campbell conducted the services at the house and at the grave.

The funeral of the late Stephen Macdonald also took place yesterday evening and the attendance was very large. The funeral service in St. Dunstan's Cathedral was conducted by Father Johnston. The body was interred in the Roman Catholic cemetery.

MONEY IN APPLES.—Mr James Stewart, of Lakeville, sent 15 bbls. of Gravenstein apples to the London market early in the fall, and they returned him $40. Later on he sent 5 bbls. of No. 1 and 5 barrels No. 2 Gravensteins; 2 bbls. No. 1 Emperors, and 6 No. 2; and for these 18 bbls, he received £10 13s., 4d, or $51.65. This is a good sale for the kinds mentioned, as nearly half were Emperors. The fruit was of good quality and well packed, hence the good returns.—Halifax Herald.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Frankie Carpenter company closed their season at the Opera House on Saturday evening, when the great western drama "The Ranch King" was played in an excellent manner. The company supporting Miss Carpenter is a most capable one, and it is very much to be regretted that they were not better patronized during their stay in the Island capital. During the week, Mr. Vinnicombe's excellent orchestra rendered choice music, giving every satisfaction to both actors and audience.

TO BE TAKEN TO TRACADIE.—The Summerside Pioneer says: Dr. Smith, of the Tracadie Lazaretto, was in Summerside a short time ago and did not particularly wish his mission to the Island made public, has returned home. It appears that he came to examine a case of supposed leprosy in the Western end of the Island. We understand that he has had the unfortunate patient isolated, and will return again shortly when it is probable that the victim will be privately removed to the Lazaretto.

THE GLOUCESTER LOSSES.—According to late advices the losses of both men and vessels in the Gloucester fisheries, for the year ending Nov 1, 1897, is less than in any year since 1881, except in 1885, when the number was the same as the present year. The total number of lives lost during the year is 59, the smallest in any year since 1892, when only 46 were lost, and greatly below the average of the past 25 years. The number of lives lost the previous year was 86. The 11 vessels lost the year were of a total tonnage of 846.09, representing a value of $75,750 and an insurance of $43,277, against 14 vessels for the year ending Nov. 1st, 1896, of an aggregate tonnage of 1091.43. Augustus G. Kench, a native of Prince Edward Island, was washed overboard from the schooner Annie G. Hall on George's Jan. 11.

MARRIED THIS MORNING.—At an early hour this morning the marriage of Mr. John Hughes, grocer, of Queen Street, and Miss Theresa G. Kelly, youngest daughter of Edward Kelly, Esq., Southport, was solemnized at St. Dunstan's Cathedral by Rev. Father Johnston. The bride was handsomely attired in steel gray velvet with silver trimmings and hat and gloves to match, while the bridesmaid, Miss Sarah McCarey, wore a charming costume of Nive green serge with fawn trimmings. Mr. J. Monaghan, of Lot 48, attended the groom. After breakfast, which was served at the residence of Mr. John Trainor, brother-in-law of the bride, the happy couple left on a short visit through the provinces. Many valuable and costly offerings testified to the popularity of the newly wedded pair. THE EXAMINER joins in the congratulations.

CATHOLIC LITERARY INSTITUTE.

"In conclusion let me express the wish that the shadow of this year's surplus may never grow less—a wish I feel sure which finds a responsive chord in the heart of each and every member of the Institute." Such were the closing words of the Secretary-Treasurer's report at the second annual meeting of the Catholic Literary Institute last evening; and we feel sure that the wish was reciprocated.

Despite the inclemency of the evening there was a good number of members present to receive the several reports, and to make arrangements for the transaction of the business of the Institute during the ensuing year. The reports presented showed the Institute to be in a prosperous condition and to be quietly and unostentatiously striving to achieve the end for which it was established. Financially the reports were most encouraging. To again quote from the Secretary-Treasurer's report, "it can with safety be said that success has left its impress upon the transactions of the Institute during the year." The financial report showed the splendid amount of $184.24 on hand at the close of the year, and of this amount more than two-thirds was at rest, and adding to the income of the Institute. The membership roll registered 109 names.

The Secretary-Treas. report referred to the intellectual advancement made during the year; and also to the pleasure, afforded the members by the several tournaments held in the recreation room during the winter months. Mr. James Eden and Mr. D.O'M Reddin, jr. who generously donated the handsome prizes in connection with these tournaments also received the thanks of the members, and their actions were highly commended. Then after referring to the pleasure, the knowledge of the year's success occasioned the report went on to say:

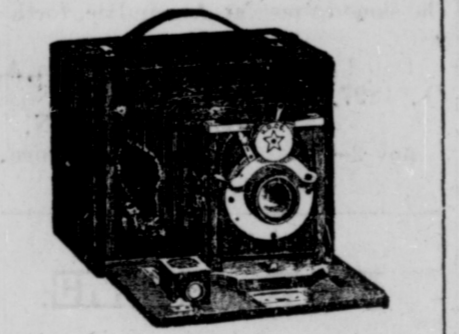

"Coupled also with this knowledge is the belief, that, with the weight of another year, have come, in a greater degree, those necessary attributes, strength and usefulness. That the latter feature has been a distinctive mark of our organization from the day of its birth to the present day those who frequent our quarters can readily attest. Knowing this then, and knowing too that where usefulness is found, either in individuals or institutions, that vigor is usually no less a potent adjunct, we can surely with pardonable pride offer a little self congratulation. Though we can now boast of a degree of stability far in advance of that of a year ago, it does not follow that our future is secure, our permanency assured. The attainment of this end depends altogether upon our people, those for whose benefit the Institute was established. They know the needs for such an institution, and they know too the good work it is destined to perform. Such then being the case, we have only to hope that they will continue to give their hearty encouragement and support, and thus render it all the more able to withstand the ravages of time."

The officers for the year are as follows:
Spiritual Director—Rev. I. R. A. MacDonna'd.
President—Judge Richard Reddin (re-elected).
First Vice President—Charles Hermans.
Second Vice President—James Eden.
Secy.-Treas.—J. M. Sullivan (re-elected).
Managing Committee.—J. M. Hughes, F. J. McMillan, Philip McQuaid, James Edmonds, Fred D Blake.

The members were very desirous of retaining Messrs. Thos. Handrahan, S. Blanchard, Alex. Macdonald and D. O'M. Reddin in their official positions but they declined nomination on the ground that they believed an infusion of new blood, especially from the ranks of the younger members, would tend more to the success of the Institute.

—The Laurier government have at length become ashamed of disregarding the tariff law they themselves caused to be made, remarks the Halifax Herald, and hence have admitted Japan and the Netherlands to the privilege of the "reciprocal clause." Thus the "British preference" of the Grit tariff more and more disappears.

Cigars.—Fresh stock now in; all prices from $1.00 a box upwards.—Geo E Hughes. 257 I wk.
