

Three Rivers W.I. Annual Convention

Annual district convention of the Three Rivers Women's Institute was held Monday afternoon and evening in Union Road School, and was conducted by district president Mrs. Emmett Power.

First speaker was Mrs. Walter Shaw, who gave an interesting address on the musical festival stressing the value of musical training in the community.

Mrs. Edwin Cooke spoke about her work which music teachers are doing in schools throughout the Island.

Mrs. Herring radio convenor delivered an instructive address on the Association of Country Women of the World and the constitution.

Mrs. MacLeod, convenor of the resolution committee, presented the following: 1. Resolve that we, the Three Rivers convention, express our loyalty to Elizabeth the Queen.

2. Resolve that sincere thanks of the convention be extended to Greenfield and Union Road for their hospitality to Mrs. Walter Shaw, and Mrs. Edwin Cooke for their addresses on the musical festival.

3. Resolve that this convention support the P. E. I. musical festival in securing the services of a musical supervisor for the province.

4. Resolve to heartily endorse the proposal to hold a community bazaar to raise funds for the King's County Memorial Hospital nurses' home at Montague.

An invitation to hold the convention at New Perth next year was unanimously accepted.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Congential CNR Agent Georgetown Retires

After completing 40 years service with the Canadian National Railways, Mr. W. T. Wood, Station Agent at Georgetown and a native of Kelly's Cross, on June 9, commenced a three weeks leave, prior to his retirement which becomes effective July 1, 1953.

Mr. Wood entered the service of the Canadian National Railways in December 1913 and served in the capacity of Relieving Agent at various Island stations until March 1918 when he received his first permanent position on being appointed to the position of Clerk and Operator at the Summerside Freight Office.

In May 1938 he was promoted to the position of Agent at the larger center and Eastern Terminal at Georgetown, a position he held until this, the year of his retirement.

During his 15 years of residency in Georgetown, Wilfred, as he has been familiarly become known, has made for himself a host of friends, who will regret his planned departure.

In the performance of his duties he was efficient, congenial and obliging and in a community where public officials are often called upon to serve the public during off-duty hours, his willingness to oblige far exceeded the requirements of duty.

Mr. Wood recently purchased a property in Charlottetown and plans on taking up residence there in the near future and the citizens of Georgetown and surrounding areas wish him and Mrs. Woods many years of well-earned and enjoyable retirement.

LONDON (CP)—Priceless treasures of Oxford's long history on exhibition at Goldsmith's Hall here until the end of August include a Bible and gloves belonging to Elizabeth I, Milton's writing case and paintings by da Vinci, Rubens, Turner and Tintoretto.

Vast areas of Ecuador are clad in virgin forest—rich in rubber, cinchona and valuable timber.

Westmoreland Singers Delight Montague Audience

A thrilled capacity audience at the A. D. MacKenzie Hall, Montague, last evening, listened with rapt attention and appreciation as the Westmoreland Singers of Moncton, N.B., delighted them with an evening of melodious close harmony in songs of today and of the long ago.

Following brief remarks by the chairman, Rev. J. M. Fraser, the program opened with the song "Is a Big Wide Wonderful World."

Mr. C. O. Steeves was the commentator for the group. The romantic story of Darby and Joan, their courtship, honeymoon, and family life was depicted in songs such as "The Girl That I Marry," "Some Sunday Morning," "The Light of the Silvery Moon," "Camp Town Races," "The West, a Nest Town Races," "The West, a Nest Town Races," and "Kentucky Babe" and "You", and "Kentucky Babe".

Girls and songs of the "Gay Nineties" was a very pleasing feature. Singers in costumes of that era sang "The Sweet Long Ago," "An Old Fashioned Garden," "When You and I Were Young Maggie," and "Old Grey Bonnet".

A group of popular songs included "Keep It A Secret," "I Believe" and "Anywhere I Wander". The singers paid tribute to the British Isles and brought memories of the coronation with "The Golden Coach", "Ye Banks and Braes of Bonny Doon" and "Is a Great Day For the Irish" as their concluding numbers the group sang "Swanest Little Peller" and "It Is No Secret."

Readings by Mrs. C. O. Steeves of Moncton, and Mrs. H. M. Davison, Charlottetown, proved to be very humorous to the appreciative audience.

The audience also showed their appreciation of an excellent exhibition of tap dancing by Peggy Dalziel and Electa Roberts of Charlottetown.

The piano accompaniment supplied throughout the program by Mrs. Hugh Buchanan was a delight to her listeners.

The Westmoreland Singers include the following: Mrs. Mildred Neal, Mrs. Martha Harris, Mrs. Evelyn Early, Mrs. Erna MacManus, Mrs. Helen Steeves, Miss Jean Elder, Mrs. Evelyn McManus, Mrs. Dorothy Hayes and Mrs. Ruth Buchanan.

Rev. J. M. Fraser voiced the thanks of the congregation to the talented ladies of Moncton and Charlottetown for the very delightful evening and fine program, also to the ladies of the church choir who made arrangements for this entertainment. Special thanks were given to Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Poole who entertained the Westmoreland Singers at their summer home.
