S. O. E.—Dont forget the grand Excursion to New Glasgow on Monday next ample time to see the sights. Six hours ashore; refreshments supplied on board by committe.

S A. PICNIC.—The annual picnic of the Salvation Army Tuesday at Rocky Point was a grand success as usual. Capt McIntyre the popular War Cry Boomer made his cornet do good service on the grounds and on the good steamer Southport while Adjutant McGillvary kept up the sports and fun for the little ones. Altogether it was voted one of the best picnics of the season and everyone returned home sober, happy to meet, happy to part and happy to meet again. So may it be.

MADRID, Aug. 10.—A despatch from Lucera, Italy, says that Italian police have identified Colli, assassin of Senor Canovas, as Michael Angioliono. He is 22 years of age and was born at Foggia, capital of the province of that name, in the Aquilan plain. His military record was very bad. He proved an indifferent and disobedient soldier and was sent for three years' service in the disciplinary battalion. Subsequently became a compositor. In April, 1896, he he was senteuced to eighteen months' imprisoment for disseminating anarchist propaganda. After serving a part of the term he escaped to Spain. He comes from an honest family. His father, who is a tailor, is grief stricken by the crime of his son. The provincial and common councils of Foggia have sent telegrams of condolence to the Spanish Government, denouncing the assassin.

Montreal Gazette: Some Liberal papers are laboring hard to show that the outcome of the Government's tariff effort, which compels the giving to some score of countries a preferences which it was only intended to give to one or two, is another evidence of Laurier statesmanship. Some papers are saying nothing. Those who say least are the wisest.

ST. DUNSTAN'S CHOIR PICNIC.

The annual picnic of the choir of St. Dunstan's Cathedral took place yesterday on the beautifully-situated grounds of John Maceachern, Esq., at Red Point. The day was all that could be desired for an outing, and the members of the choir, who have few equals as entertainers, did all in their power to make it pleasant for the ladies and gentlemen privileged to be their guests on the happy occasion. The tables, which contained all that the most fastidious might desire, were placed in one of the many shaded nooks to be found on Mr. Maceachern's charming grounds, and the most ample justice was done to the delicious viands so temptingly arranged by skilled hands. That portion of the time not devoted to satisfying the demands of the inner man and woman was pleasantly occupied with vocal and instrumental music and the other means of enjoyment usual on such occasions.

The choir and their guests were conveyed to Red Point by the trim little steamer Nelson, commanded by Mr. Geo. Batt, and the sail to and from the city was a feature of the outing that was most enjoyable. The passages were enlivened by singing and speech-making, and everyone had a good time.

After luncheon the hearty thanks of the choir and their guests were tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Maceachern and Mrs. Crosskill for kindnesses extended, and they were treated to "three times three and a tiger." Mr. Maceachern made a fitting reply.

The choir picnics are always most enjoyable, and that of yesterday excelled all previous ones. Those who were privileged to be present will not soon forget the good time they had or the many kindnesses they received at the hands of Dr. Morrison and Mr. Blanchard and the ladies and gentlemen associated with him in the Cathedral choir.
