Not Quite a Century of Service .... But 91 Years .... and we're still progressing WITH Prince Edward Island

The people of Prince Edward Island can be proud of the traditions, the courage and leadership that have helped bring this Province to its present position of prestige in the Dominion of Canada. We, at Hyndman and Company Limited, salute those pioneers whose determination and foresight made possible the Island we know today. Our years of steadfast service demonstrate and justify our faith in the future of this Island. We look forward to many years of friendship and co-operation in the great and prosperous era that lies ahead.
