HAPPENINGS

Queen Elizabeth and Princess Margaret were reported shaking off colds which have kept them indoors on vacation. The Royal Family is at Balmoral Castle for their annual holiday after a strenuous summer social season.

Princess Margaret celebrates her 27th birthday Wednesday, on August 21. She is expected to be well enough to enjoy the festivities at a private family party.

The weather has been blustery and wet in Scotland, and the Queen and Margaret were advised by their doctor to stay indoors for a few days until fully recovered.

Mr. M. J. Dunnigan, vice-president of Workingman's Bank, Boston, and Mrs. Dunnigan, have enjoyed a short visit to the Island, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McQuaid, Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunnigan live in Arlington, Mass. They are pleased with their first visit here and are high in their praise of the beaches and scenic beauty. They plan a more extended stay at their earliest possible convenience.

A distinguished visitor from England to Prince Edward Island is Mrs. Joyce Sherren. Mrs. Sherren is past president of the Felixstowe Business and Professional Women's Club, and divisional chairman of the B. and P. for a section of England. She will be in Charlottetown from August 21 to 24.

Mrs. Sherren is a sister-in-law of Mr. George Sherren of Charlottetown, and will be here primarily to see her relatives but she expressed a desire to meet her confederates in the Charlottetown B. and P. club while here. So a date has been made with Mrs. Sherren for people to meet her at a special "B. and P. Barbecue and Fun Carnival" which is to be held at Mrs. Elizabeth Davis' summer residence at Kephoch.

There will be a barbecued supper about 6.30 Mrs. Davis has said that any wishing to come in the afternoon may do so and no doubt those who can will take advantage of this kind invitation. The plans for the "Fun Fair" are not yet finalized but the executive are busily working on them.

Mrs. Sherren has been asked to tell about the activities of the B. and P. clubs in her section of England. She will be sure to have many ideas for the club here. Everyone is anticipating Mrs. Sherren's visit and members of the B. and P. are allowed to bring friends for this special gathering in honor of the guest from England.

Mrs. Melinda A. J. Gordon who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Cecil Jones and Mrs. Jones, at Crescent Road, Calgary, and her nephews, Mr. Emory Wood, and Mrs. Wood, and Mr. Elmer Jones and Mrs. Jones Edmonton, returned to Charlottetown Saturday evening.

During this her second trip to the West, Mrs. Gordon visited many points of interest which included a motor trip through western United States and a trip from Edmonton with Mr. and Mrs. Emory Wood to Rainy River, Ontario, via Chicago, where they stayed for a few days. In Rainy River Mrs. Gordon attended the wedding of her grandnephew, Mr. Ralph Wood to Miss Rebina Fawcett, a registered Pharmacist.

While Mrs. Gordon is in Charlottetown, she is the guest of her nephew, Mr. Heber Jones and Mrs. Jones, Greenfield Avenue.
