LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

FUR GOODS A SPECIALTY.—Beer Bros

FOR ST. JOHN'S.—The steamer Polino left yesterday for St. John's via Sydney with a general cargo.

THE RIFLE.—Several members of the Ottawa team left this morning, and the others will go to-morrow.

MR. J. B. LADE, of Halifax, N. S., will (D. V.) preach at Brookfield on Sabbath the 27th inst., at 11 a. m., and 6.30 p. m. Collection taken at each service.

SCOTT ACT.—Last evening a summons was served on Bridget Trainor, Queen Street, for an infraction of the Canada Temperance Act. The summons is returnable on Monday.

TO BE ENLARGED—It is stated that the new hotel at Sydney, Cape Breton, is to be enlarged, as it cannot accommodate all the guests. One hundred were registered there on Sunday week.

PREACHING.—Mr. Daniel MacLean will preach (D. V.) at Nine Mile Creek, on Sabbath, the 26th inst., at 10.30 a. m; West River at 6 p. m., Sept. 2nd; Lot 48 at 10 a. m.; North River, 2.30 p. m.; New Glasgow Road, 6.30 p. m.

OMINOUS.—It is rumored that Mr. Arthur Peters, M. P. P., is at present feeling his way in the St. Peter's district with the view of being a candidate for the Commons for King's the next election. It would be interesting to know what the other two Grit aspirants think of this.

MISSION AT ROLLO BAY.—The mission fathers conducted services in Rollo Bay Church during last week. On Sunday evening the mission was brought to a close. Almost everyone in the parish, as well as hundreds from outside attended the meetings, which were held morning and evening. Never in the history of the parish was such interest taken in spiritual matters.

OPEN AIR ENTERTAINMENT.—The Electric Belt Concert Company, under the management of Harry J. Daniels, gave an entertainment consisting of vocal and instrumental music and ventriloquism on the Market Square last evening. There was a large audience present, and during the evening several belts were disposed of. There will be another entertainment this evening.

AUCTION SALE.—The cottage and land on Sydney Street east, as advertised, was sold on the 20th inst., and realized $405 Mr. James Murphy, of the P. E. I. Railway Department, was the purchaser.

Four shares in the steamer Jacques Cartier, belonging to the same estate, will be sold to-morrow, (Friday) at 12 o'clock noon, at head of Steam Navigation Co's Wharf.—A. McNeill, auctioneer.

A HANDSOME CRAFT.—The steam yacht Unquawa, one of the handsomest crafts of the kind that has visited this port for some time, arrived here last afternoon, and was supplied with coal by Charles Lyons. The Unquawa is commanded by Captain Lookwood, and is from Montreal, en route to New York, via intermediate ports. She is owned by James Ross, of Montreal, who is on board, accompanied by his wife and son and two guests.

CHURCH NOTICE.—Rev. John Hawley will preach in the Presbyterian Church at Covehead on Sunday next, at 11 a. m., and at Brackley Point Road at 3 p. m.; Rev. P. A. McLeod will preach at Mount Stewart at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.; and at Lot 40 at 3 p. m. Rev. T. F. Fullerton will preach at West River at 11 a. m.; and at Clyde River at 3 p. m.; Rev. E. J. Sarkis, B. A., will preach at Victoria West at 10.30 a. m.; at Tyne Valley at 2.30 and at Lot 11 at 6.30 p. m.

MISS FINDLEY'S RECITAL.—We hear that Miss Findley has secured the Opera House for her recital. The date set down is September 20th. This talented young lady is a graduate of the California School of Elocution and Oratory, and was very highly complimented by the San Francisco press for her effort at the graduating exercises. Miss Findley has appeared before Charlottetown audiences on several occasions, and has given such evidence of remarkable ability that we are sure she will be greeted with a full house on her appearance in repertoire.

MR. ROGER'S ELEGANT GIFT.—We have been shown the elegant silver service presented to the new Cathedral Bazaar Committee by B. Rogers, Esq., M. L. A., to which we referred in yesterday's issue, and we pronounce it a perfect gem. It contains seven pieces and cost about $100. His Lordship the Bishop and the Building Committee desire to express their most sincere thanks to Mr. Rogers for this magnificent gift. As stated yesterday, it will be among the many beautiful articles disposed of at the bazaar which opens at the Skating Rink on the 24th September next.

MARRIAGE BELLS.—The marriage of Mr. Charles G. Wright, of the firm of Wright, Schurman & Co., and Miss Janie Seaman, was celebrated at Summerside early yesterday morning, Rev. E. C. Turner tying the nuptial knot. Miss Edith England was bridesmaid, and Mr. Percy Wright groomsman. After the ceremony the happy couple left on a wedding tour to Boston, New York and other cities of the neighboring Republic. THE EXAMINER wishes Mr. and Mrs. Wright every success in life.

At the First Methodist Church, this morning, the nuptials of Mr. T. J. Farquharson and Miss Katie Higgs were celebrated, the officiating clergymen being Revs. G. M. Campbell and G. C. P. Palmer. The bridesmaids were Misses Annie B. Higgs and Fannie Farquharson and the groomsmen Messrs. Albert Farquharson and E. T. Higgs. Mr. Farquharson is a son of James Farquharson, Esq., of Mermaid Farm, and for the last six years has been a resident of Dorchester, Mass., where he is well known as an architect and builder, and the bride is a daughter of B. Wilson Higgs, Esq., of Charlottetown. After the ceremony the happy couple left for their future home in Dorchester, amidst showers of rice and good wishes. THE EXAMINER joins in the felicitations.

We have to congratulate Mr. Geo. F. Owen upon the interesting event which took place at Trinity Church, Georgetown, on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Owen are now on a honeymoon trip through the Annapolis Valley.

TERRIBLE YACHTING DISASTER.

Eight Men Drowned in St. John Harbor on Tuesday.

The second race for the corporation cup was sailed in St. John harbor on Tuesday afternoon, and had a sad ending. The yacht Primrose, when near Mahogany Island, was struck by a squall and sank immediately. Of twelve men on board only four were saved. Those lost were S. Hutton, owner of the yacht; Fred Priest, W. Russell, Fred Akerley, James Hurley, George Frich, G. Bartlett and G. Heathfield.

The course over which the race was sailed was from a point in the harbor to Mahogany Island, 7 miles down the bay and return. Among the boats entered were the Maple Leaf and Primrose, the former owned and manned by Elijah Ross and the latter by Samuel Hutton, members of the old renowned St. John Paris crew. The wind on starting was pretty stiff, but when the Maple Leaf and Primrose were in the neighborhood of the turning buoy, the wind died away and for half an hour or more little headway was made. The Maple Leaf turned first, followed by the Primrose. Just then intense darkness set in and rain began to fall in heavy drops, accompanied by a high gusty wind, which in a few seconds afterwards blew with hurricane force. This sudden outburst of the heavens caused great anxiety to be manifested for the racing yachts by the large crowds present, and it was not until the boats hove in sight thas the feelings of the crowd were relieved. But this relief was of temporary duration, for soon afterwards a tugboat appeared in the channel near Partridge Island, having in tow the Sunol, another of the racers. She had lost her sails and came near being wrecked in the gale. The tugboat landed the Sunol and crew on the west side of the harbor and then came over to the city side. Then it was that the news of the dreadful calamity by which eight lives were lost became known. The story as told by the tugboat hands, who were in the neighborhood of Mahogany Island, is, briefly, that the yachts were becalmed. The Primrose, which was sailed by Hutton, was in the most dangerous position, and when she was struck by the wind she dipped forward and began to fill, and in less than three minutes disappeared beneath the waves. There were 12 persons on board and all were precipitated into the raging sea. The engineer of the tug boat, seeing the terrible plight the men were in, turned the course of his boat and within a few minutes was amongst the Primrose's crew, who were floundering in the water. The only article on board the Primrose (except the clothing of the men) was a wooden bucket. This was caught by Fred Haines, who placed it under his arm to better enable him to keep afloat. Subsequently he succeeded in getting the bucket under his body and was floating in this manner when rescued. Another of the crew was rescued in an almost exhausted state. The third, Howard Holder, who was a good swimmer, kept himself afloat and was taken on board the tug quite easily. He displayed very great courage in fighting the way until all the others who could be found could be safely gotten on board before allowing them to assist him. McKeever, the fourth and last man rescued, had a very narrow escape with his life. He sank twice, and was about disappearing again below the surf when Engineer Bluett, of the tug, who was now in a small rowboat, seized him by the collar, and with the assistance of others of the crew of the tug, pulled him out of his perilous position. Samuel Hutton displayed great presence of mind throughout the exciting experiences. Although only able to swim a little, he refused to accept assistance tendered him by the crew of the boat, merely remarking to the rescuers when they got to him, "Don't mind me: I am all right: help the others." The crew of the tug boat taking it for granted that Hutton was a good swimmer paid no more attention to him but exerted their energies to do what they could for the other unfortunates who saw nothing else before them but death. Hutton disappeared when nobody seemed to know, as he was never heard to speak after the first inteaview the tug boat men had with him. It is not likely that ever the remains of the drowned men will be recovered, as the tide where the accident occurred runs strongly out to sea.

LIFE

is a checker board, and the moves we make decide whether we shall be rich or poor. Buying and selling right are the big ends of business life. Prices talk in the same way that a good many people do. If you could trust all that you see in advertisements it would be easy enough to get a bargain anywhere. But human nature is frail, and it is well to get behind price and see quality. Our FURNITURE, in QUALITY, STYLE, NEWNESS and PRICE, will stand the closest inspection.

Exhibition of Fur Goods at Beer Bros.

During the past five years especially we have made it one of our great objects in business to procure for our customers everything new and desirable in Fur Goods. We have searched the markets in England and Canada to obtain the very best qualities and the very closest prices. The very largely increased amount of business done by us in this department, and the satisfaction we have given our customers, is full proof that our ambition in this respect has been largely gratified. Our sales already this season indicate that we shall surpass anything done by us heretofore. Ten Cases of our Fur Goods having already come to hand, we have decided to make our first Fur Exhibition at once. Our both windows will therefore be taken for that purpose for a few days. We intend making this the biggest Fur trade season on record by us. All correspondence regarding Style, Quality or Price of goods will be promptly attended to by us.
