ACTOR DIES

MANILLA (Reuters) — Gustaf Gruendgens, 63, West German actor and stage director, died here Monday during a world tour. Gruendgens, described as one of the most colorful figures in West German theatre life, was found dead in his suite in a Manila hotel by Juergen Schleas, his assistant. Police here said he died from internal bleeding.

DIES FROM SHOCK

HAMILTON (CP) — Frank Sumilas, 73, felt so badly after his car killed a boy that he died from shock, his daughter said Wednesday. An inquest into the traffic death of Michael Ludford, 4, had been scheduled for Wednesday but was cancelled because of Mr. Sumilas' death Sunday. Mrs. Ted Koprowski said her father suffered a stroke two days after his car hit the Ludford boy.

Opening lead — ace of diamonds.

Here is a remarkable hand played in a pair game.

At table one, South became declarer at six hearts doubled on the bidding shown. West led the ace of diamonds. East playing the four. If West had now led a club, the slam would have gone down one, but he shifted to a spade instead.

Declarer took the ace and cashed the king of hearts, West showing out. He then ruffed a diamond, took the marked trump finesse, drew East's last trump, and won the rest of the tricks for a score of 1,210 points.

The shoe was on the other foot at the next table, where West became declarer at six spades doubled. North led the king of clubs. Declarer ruffed, forced out the ace of spades, trumped the heart return, played another spade, and then herd twelve tricks to show for his efforts — four trump tricks, two club ruffs in dummy, and six diamonds. He scored 1,210 points also — but this time with the EastWest cards.

The slam could have been defeated at this table if North had led a diamond originally and South had returned a diamond as soon as he took the ace of spades.

At another table, North (instead of South) became declarer at six hearts doubled, due to a peculiar bidding system, and made the contract when East led the king of diamonds and West failed to overtake and return a club.

The sorriest case of all occurred at a different table where South was in six hearts doubled and West's opening lead was a low spade. Declarer took the king with the ace and played the ace of hearts, West showing out.

Thirteen tricks now appeared to be a practical certainty, but when declarer led a club to the ace in order to take a trump finesse, East ruffed. East put his partner in with a diamond, got another ruff, and then cashed a spade. The unfortunate declarer at this table went down three for a loss of 500 points.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

VETERAN STAYS WITH ARMY

LONDON (AC)—Britain's war office is delighted that its oldest soldier—a 65-year-old man—has decided to remain in the army.

L. Cpl. Tom (Ginger) Hooper has been in the army 46 years.

"As long as he can do his job," said a war office spokesman, "the war office will always accept his application to re-enlist."

Said Hooper, who was 65 Sunday: "In the old days the army was rough. It's a gentleman's life now. You wouldn't see me getting out."
