It is unnecessary to state that this is a very unusual yield.—Pioneer.

The bazaar in aid of St. Joseph's Convent, in the Market Hall last evening, was a grand success. The Hall was, from seven to ten o'clock, literally packed with visitors, and it needless to say that the saleswomen and lottery girls made the best of the large attendance. Over five hundred dollars were realized in door money and sales. This evening the bazaar will be continued, when the balance of the useful and fancy articles will be cleared out. Do not fail to attend.

This snow, however, will again disappear in the subsequent mild spell. England and Scotland will probably likewise share this wintry wave; also New York city."

IN DISTRESS.—The brigantine "Vesta," of Lockport, Captain Clague, from Vernon River, P. E. I., bound to Baltimore with a cargo of potatoes, arrived yesterday, in distress. She left port on the 18th inst., and passed the Strait of Canso, on the 15th, after which she encountered a heavy N. The Port Warden held a survey yesterday afternoon, and the vessel was ordered to discharge about one third of her cargo, and have her top-sides caulked.—Herald.
