Do not forget that D. Banks McKenzie lectures in Market Hall this evening.

D. BANKS MCKENZIE will hold forth at Market Hall to-night.

The ladies are invited to call and see the new Coral and other Jewelry E. W. Taylor is now showing. [may 31 41]

The sitting of the City Court for recovery of debts was postponed until to-morrow. There are over ninety cases for trial.

The steam tug "Henry Aitken" sailed for Shediac this afternoon, where she will be employed by the numerous vessels now in and about that harbor.

THERE was no sitting of the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this morning. It will sit to-morrow morning, when a number of "drunks" will be tried.

"YOUNG BUDS sleep in the roots white core." A variety of Plants, very cheap, at the "Conservatory," Easton street, near the St. Peter's Road. [ju 5 41 w 1]

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—A French exchange informs us that McKenzie could barely obtain a hearing in Toronto, and Laurier broke down at Lindsay.

D. BANKS MCKENZIE will lecture in Market Hall this evening, on the life of Father Matthew. This lecture is highly spoken of by the Press of the neighboring Provinces, and will, no doubt, draw a crowded house.

The steamer Valetta, Anderson, master, arrived from Montreal this morning, with a cargo of 900 barrels of flour, 26 packages of hardware, 11 packages of stationery, 24 bundles of paper and sundry other merchandise.

"One of the men employed at the new Lunatic Asylum can 'lay' 300 bricks about in ten hours."—Patriot.

Why does the editor quote the word lay. Are we to believe that the man actually hatches 300 bricks in ten hours; or where are we to suppose he "lays them about"? The editor of the Patriot requires an interpreter to explain his paragraphs.

The steamer "Carroll" arrived from Boston this morning with a cargo of general merchandise, and the following passengers: Miss Mary S. Robertson, Emma Boyver, Sarah Bruce, Annie Bruce, C. C. Legget, Jennie Legget, Mrs. Kate Fennessy, Miss Kate Dwyer, Mrs. Eckstadt, Mrs. Murphy, Miss Annie Cartmill, Mr. D. Cavanagh, Mr. W. Murphy, Mr. Thomas Cavanagh.

YESTERDAY evening two full grown boys engaged in a violent pugilistic encounter on Rotchford Square. Several "rounds" were well contested with little damage to either pugilists. The appearance of the police, caused the seconds to exit without "throwing up the sponge," and the apparent victor who waited for the umpire's decision was arrested. He will, no doubt, receive a lawful result from the Magistrate to-morrow morning.

RIFLE PRACTISE is being carried on very largely at Kensington by the members of the different Volunteer Companies. The ranges of practice are generally from two hundred to six hundred yards—the highest possible score being one hundred and twenty-five points. On Monday morning last, Pt. A. McKinnon, of No. 2 Co., made 107 points out of a possible score of 125, and on the same day we are informed Pt. James Dover, of No. 6 Co., made 109 points out of the same possible score.

A WIDOW at the East End lost a favorite poodle very mysteriously yesterday morning. She searched the neighborhood diligently during the day, but no traces of the favorite could be found. Late in the evening she had occasion to draw water from a well in the vicinity. On hoisting her bucket to the top, she was surprised to find that it contained a small bag. She opened it, and to her astonishment was revealed the carcass of her favorite poodle. A woman who lives in close proximity to the well is suspected for committing the heartless deed.

LAST night, after eleven o'clock, a row occurred in a house of ill fame at the East End of the city, between the proprietress and an elderly man named Taylor. The shouts of the inmates attracted a large crowd to the place, and the police were sent for. Several times she ordered Taylor to leave the premises, and lastly said if he would not "she would die for him before morning." The Police then entered and arrested Taylor. The appearance of the police made quite a change in the temper of the enraged proprietress; and, throwing her arms around her Mr. T., she begged the police not to take him. It was too late. He was taken.

"The Daily Patriot of Charlottetown, P. E. I., dated Saturday, June 1st, was read in Shediac same evening to get the latest printed news about the McCarthy affair, happening in that very town,—and they found it."

The above we clip from this morning's Patriot. It is a paragraph "hard to understand" and extremely vague. It is not quite clear what the people of Shediac found—the solution of the McCarthy mystery, the Patriot, the town, or the news. The editor, however, wishes the public to believe a lie. The Patriot published on Saturday contains the report published in Friday's St. John papers, which was the proceedings of Thursday's Court. The people of Shediac on Saturday at noon received the Moncton Times of that day giving a full account of Friday's proceedings. It suits the Patriot at times to misrepresent facts if it can by any means gull the people and assist itself. For recklessness and untruthful statements it is fast becoming proverbial. Will the editor of the Patriot admit his error.

Quebec—A Conservative Elected Speaker on the Nomination of Joly.

The Eastern Question. State of Emperor William.

(Special Despatch to Examiner.)

MONTREAL, June 4.

Almost contrary to expectation, Mr. Joly succeeded in inducing Mr. Turcotte to act as Speaker, and had him elected. Indications of the result were so clear as to demoralize the ultra-Conservatives, who had not the courage to propose a candidate.

Mr. Chapleau bitterly denounced the press which supported the Government, as well as Mr. Turcotte. The latter said he was now, as ever, a Conservative; but ready to act an independent part, and was not a tame follower of any Government.

There were 33 votes for the Government and 32 against. The decision was received with great cheering.

LONDON, June 4.

There is some fear that the situation at Constantinople will necessitate collective action as proposed by the Berlin memorandum.

Constantinople advices indicate a better state of feeling. The successful conclusion of negotiations for a Congress has taken a great burden of anxiety off the public mind.

BERLIN, May 4.

An official bulletin, issued at ten o'clock to-night, says that the Emperor has been free from pain this evening. During the day he repeatedly slept calmly, and took nourishment with some appetite.

An Astonishing Fact.

A large proportion of the American people are to day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the Western Continent.

A queer case of somnambulism happened in Frankfort, Me., last week. John Reyden of Belfast, mate of a schooner loading at Frankfort, got up in the night and walked to Belfast, some eighteen miles, in a somnambulistic state.

The bill appropriating $5,500,000 to pay the award of the Halifax commission was taken up in the United States Senate on Friday afternoon, and briefly considered, a motion for an executive session precluding lengthy debate.
