SPURGEON LEARD (right) president of the Charlottetown Branch of the Canadian Legion presents the 25th cheque for $250 to Pius Smith, chairman of the Board of Directors for the Prince Edward Island Day Training Classes.

$6,250 Contributed By City Legion To Retarded Children

The Charlottetown No. 1 Branch of the Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. has now presented 25 cheques for $250 to the Prince Edward Island Day Training Classes. This magnificant gesture by the Legion over the past two years has played a great part in ensuring the success of the classes for retarded children held daily at West Kent School in Charlottetown. Nearly all of the $6,250 has gone towards paying the salaries of teachers. The Provincial Government also pays part of the salaries.

When the day training classes opened two years ago, largely through the efforts of a group of interested citizens, six children attended the classes. Today there are twelve and all of them are trainable. The City School Board kindly provides one classroom at West Kent School in which the classes are held.

Retarded children for the most part are those with lower learning capacities than other children. It is estimated that 3 per cent of the population to a greater or lesser degree is in this category. Nearly all of them can be trained to do simple tasks but specialized teaching techniques and facilities must be utilized.

EXCELLENT WORK

At present there are two teachers, Miss Jacqueline Cummiskey and Miss Elizabeth Coyle, both of whom are doing excellent work with the children.

A child with an I.Q. of under 70 is considered retarded (100 is average). It should be noted that those children in the 60-70 group can usually be helped in their school work to a degree by special auxiliary classes in the public schools. Most of the children attending these day training classes held at West Kent School are more severely retarded being in the I.Q. range of 50 or less.

However, these children can all be trained to some degree and with patience and proper techniques, positive results are obtained.

Thus, the Canadian Legion, which recognized that these more unfortunate children could be helped, entertained the idea that such a class was necessary here. In contributing to such a worthy cause the Legion feels that the benefits to worried and concerned parents and to the children themselves are all part of their idea that service to humanity is the best work of life.
