

A ROLLING GOOD START

Calvin (Bud) Bartholomew sets from Spokane, Wash., out on a cross-country trip that he expects to take about six months on roller skates. The 41-year-old man's intent is to promote interest in skating. Bartholomew has been skating for 25 years.

much of it in Nebraska where he has worked as a bridge carpenter. His destination is Miami, Fla. His bride of five weeks is going along on the trip, driving a truck in which they'll spend nights and rainy days. (AP WIREPHOTO)

ECM Members Welcome News Britain May Join

BRUSSELS (AP) — All six European Common Market countries, including France, Tuesday welcomed a British statement that it wants to join the economic community.

France had vetoed Britain's only previous effort to join. Jean de Broglie, France's state secretary for foreign affairs, was quoted as having said: "France will study the problem — of British membership — with an open mind, in ship with an open mind, in positive spirit and with sympathy."
