FESTIVAL OFFICIALLY OPENED

Adjudicators To Mark Harder During Festival

By GEORGE CONDON

Gardian - Patriot Staff Writer

The annual Prince Edward Island Music Festival was officially opened last night by the minister of education, Hon. L. George Devar, M.D. at Prince of Wales College.

Speaking on music in general Dr. Devar said, "It has always been a very important part of life. Far back in history we hear of music precluding battle."

But it is very important today, too, there is such a breadth in the world of music. That is why this is a wonderful thing that these music festivals to teach appreciation to the students."

Three of the adjudicators were introduced to the fair sized audience. Dr. Denis Wright, Alec Redshaw, and Manlie Clark, all of Great Britain were in attendance to adjudicate the night's program.

The fourth adjudicator, Lloyd Queen, from Toronto was unable to come from Summerside due to a bad weather.

Premier Walter R. Shaw was also in attendance for the opening.

MARK HADWY
Mr. Redshaw commenting on the system of marking explained that "if the marks seem much lower than what you are used to, it is not for the reason that the quality is not as good as in the past, but that the marking is very much harder."

The new set of standards agreed upon last year makes it very difficult to reach a high mark numerically. However if the new values are examined quite closely, it is found that the quality is not as good as in the past, but that the marking is very much harder."

"Under the new system," he explained, "70 is average, a 75 is good, and 80 is very good. This method is being applied all across Canada and in addition to equalizing standards and making the job of marking easier, it is also more fair to the participants."

HIGH MARK 86
At the first day of the festival drew to a close, the highest mark awarded in Charlottetown was 86.

Helen Laird, North Milton, received the mark while singing in class 10 and 11 years—girls solo. Second place in the same class went to Janet Down of Charlottetown with a mark of 85.

PRAYERS POPE
SARNA (CP)—An Anglican bishop said here Saturday it is his impression that Pope John has been responsible for a profound change in the Roman Catholic Church. Rt. Rev. G. N. Laxton, bishop of Huron, said at the 13th annual conference of the Brotherhood of Anglican Churches that the Roman Catholic Church "now is departing from its former isolationism."

MISS LOUISE JONES, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Jones was introduced at Rotary yesterday by J.A. Caruthers, chairman of the youth committee as its choice to represent the club at the "Adventure in Citizenship" meeting in Ottawa, May 12-17.

Airlines' Competition Subject Of Address

Competition from government agencies, such as the department of transport and the RCAF, and endeavours to "keep up with the Joneses" are the main problems besetting the Canadian air transport industry, stated King Forde, Moncton, N.B., director of cargo for Maritime Central Airways.

He addressed the Charlottetown Rotary Club yesterday at the Charlottetown Hotel.

He said Trans-Canada Air Lines and Canadian Pacific Airlines, the two largest passenger carriers in the Dominion are trying to keep pace with American lines in provision of "fancy new equipment" which he emphasized is "tremendously expensive."

"For example 15 years ago TCA was quite satisfactorily operating on many routes with equipment costing roughly $150,000 each. They carried 21 passengers quite comfortably."

"Today these same persons practically demand the fancy jet equipment costing $5,000,000 apiece. They are now carrying 100 passengers each trip and shorten the distance a little."

Mr. Forde suggested that Canada could probably afford some of this type of equipment, smaller jets, better than the large, fancy jets. The larger type should be used on coast-to-coast runs and in trans-Atlantic operations, he conceded, but on local runs of 500 miles or less, such luxury is not necessary, he declared.

"TCA's biggest competitor in Canada where there is no Highway Safety Council," inspected the club as the members of the RCAF told him to look into the matter "in view of the possible problems facing the Island in respect to vehicular traffic."

W.R. Jenkins reported $2,500 projected to date from the Easter Fair. Mr. Forde said he had received a list of 21 applicants for Queens said here Monday.

He was commenting on the announcement of the formation of the Liberal cabinet in P.E.I. by Prime Minister Lester Pearson. J. Watson, M.P.-elect for Charlottetown, was named as solicitor-general and the P.E.I. cabinet minister.

Mr. Macquarrie said he was not surprised by any of the cabinet members.

"It followed the usual patterns with consideration given to the geographic situation and seniority among the Liberal members," Mr. Watson noted.

Mr. Watson said he only hope the Maritime representation will prove as capable of bringing to fruition the policies designed to aid the Maritimes as did the former administration.

Mr. Macquarrie, a political scientist, is the author of an article on the formation of Robert Borden's first cabinet. The article, printed in the Canadian Journal of Economics and Political Science, has been regarded ever since as a definite work on cabinet appointments.

Mr. Watson questioned as to the position of solicitor-general has not been filled for some months. The last incumbent was the post was J.W. Brown, who lost his Newfoundland seat last June.

K. Of C. Holds Communion Breakfast

Thomas MacMillan, grand knight of the Charlottetown Council, Knights of Columbus, president over the annual K. of C. communion breakfast held Sunday at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Some 75 members and their wives were in attendance. The guest speaker was Rev. Dr. R. G. Ellsworth of the biology department of St. Dunstan's University, who spoke on the "Academic freedom of biology" and was introduced by J. F. MacMillan.

In his address Dr. Ellsworth emphasized the objective nature of biology and stated that the personal views of a teacher, whether of a religious or non-religious nature do not enter into the presentation of the scientific truths of biological sciences.

The speaker was thanked by George Forde, Out of town guests were John J. MacDermott, Ottawa, who recently received the historical section of the Canadian Army; James B. MacMillan, Boston, and Dr. Kilmer MacMillan, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Simpsons-Sears To Re-locate In Former Baptist Church

William Hamblly, Charlottetown branch manager for Simpsons-Sears Limited, said last night that officials of the company have not yet come to any agreement with the Hon. George Forde regarding the burnt out former site of the Baptist Church.

The site of the former Baptist Church was destroyed in a six-hour, three-minute blaze which occurred Wednesday morning, and resulted in loss estimated at more than $300,000.

In order to maintain service to the public, Mr. Hamblly announced that temporary quarters have been set up in the building formerly occupied by the First Baptist Church, at the corner of Prince and Fitzroy streets.

At 9 a.m. today, the first two departments will open to the public. These are the credit and accounts department and the catalogue sales department which includes the mail order parcel delivery section.

In the meantime a crew of carpenters are busy preparing the main floor area, on which will be set up the general retail departments.

Mr. Hamblly said that it will be a week or more before this site will be ready for business, when it is the date and time of opening will be announced in the press.

Delay Asked In Opening Of Season

The P. E. I. Fisheries Federation asked a request to the federal fisheries department in Ottawa yesterday for a six-day postponement of the lobster fishing season.

In a wire to Dr. A. W. Neider, deputy minister of fisheries, the federation asked that the opening be postponed to May 7, with fishing days lost added to the end of the season.

The federation listed as reasons for the request, heavy ice conditions around the shores of frequently impassable routes leading to shores, and shortage of fuel.

Mr. Hamblly said that it will be a week or more before this site will be ready for business, when it is the date and time of opening will be announced in the press.

S'ide Area Gets 2 Inches

SUMMERSIDE — The Summerside area received two inches of snow that fell during the day and evening but little remained on the ground as much of it melted quickly.

However some slush remained to make streets and highways slippery in some parts but travelling was generally good.
