RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT

THE CHURCH OF BEMINGTON in England OVERGROWN WITH IVY STILL HAS THE VINES CUT FROM ITS TOWER EVERY YEAR BECAUSE OF AN ANCIENT PROPHECY THAT IF IVY COMPLETELY COVERS THE EDIFICE 'THE WORLD WILL COME TO AN END'

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By R. JAY BECKER

North dealer. Both sides vulnerable. NORTH: A 4 3, K Q J, A K J 6 5, 10 8 5 4 2, 9 7 6 5. SOUTH: A 10 8 6 5 2, K Q, A K J.

The bidding: North 1♥, South 2♠, West 3♥, East 4NT, South 5♠.

Open lead — ace of diamonds. Necessity is the mother of invention. The ancient adage finds its application in bridge when declarer finds he cannot make his contract unless he devises an extraordinary play to fit a particular situation.

South found himself playing six spades. It was not a good contract. In addition to the sure diamond loser there was also, barring a miracle, a sure trump loser. The fault, if any, in reaching the slam rested with North. It was doubtful that he should have cooperated immediately with South's slam try. A delayed spade raise might have slowed South down.

But even so, the slam was hard to stay out of. It turned out that the K-Q-J of clubs were valueless, and the singleton club did no good. There was a maximum duplication of values.

West opened a diamond and shifted to a club, won in dummy. A trump loser had to be avoided if the slam was to be made. Declarer led the queen of spades from dummy and it did not matter what East did. If he ducked the queen the finesse would succeed, and with West's jack falling, the finesse would be repeated to trap East's king.

Or if East covered the queen with the king, the fall of the jack on the ace would give the show away. Declarer could enter dummy again and finesse against East's nine. So the slam was made.

It was a lucky shot, but it was also a skillful one. South's method of handling the trump situation was clearly correct.

There was only one chance to make the hand. Unless West had the singleton jack of spades the contract could not be made. If the spades were divided, 2-2, the contract was hopeless. If they were divided 3-1, dropping a singleton king in either opponent's hand by leading the ace would fall since the other defender would have an automatic trump trick. Only the singleton jack in West's hand offered declarer a legitimate play for the contract. Desperate situations require desperate remedies.

CPR Head Looks For Change In Freight Rates On Grain

TORONTO (CP) — CPR President N. R. Crump Saturday indicated he expects the federal study of railway freight rates to result in a change in Statutory grain rates. 'I am hopeful that this investigation will lead to the adoption of public policies in rate making which are consistent with today's competitive conditions,' he told the Toronto Railway Club. Mr. Crump said grain rates are 'the most onerous example' of 'outdated regulatory policies' which hamper the railways in meeting competition.

incompatible with competition in transportation will disappear.' 'When so large a segment of rail traffic is exempt from any and every adjustment in the freight rate structure, distortion is inevitable. Such distortion works to the detriment of the shipper, the public railways and the railway employees alike. 'I welcome the government's decision to appoint a special committee of the cabinet to study the freight rate structure.' Mr. Crump said the CPR plays an important role in stimulating Canada's export trade because its Common ownership gives Britain dollars to pay for purchases of wheat and other Canadian commodities.

Derailment Injures 10

OTTAWA (CP) — Ten persons were treated in hospital here for slight injuries offered when a diesel unit and six cars of a passenger train were derailed Saturday near Vars, a village 15 miles southeast of the capital. All except three of the injured were discharged by Sunday and traffic was resumed on the Canadian National Railway line less than 16 hours after the mishap. Those still in general hospital Sunday were Sister Praxedes of the Cross from the Rideau Street Convent here, with head cuts; Jean Louis Landry, 34, of Montreal, CNR parlor car steward, with head and rib injuries; and Miss Marcelle Turgeon of Outremont, Que., with facial cuts. The CNR's train 47 from Montreal to Ottawa left the rails about 11:17 a.m., but the six cars remained upright after tearing up 350 feet of track and damaging about 2,700 feet. Officials estimated track damage at $12,500. There were 107 passengers aboard and those who were only shaken up completed their journey to the capital by bus. Engineer A. Gingras, riding one of the two diesel units pulling the train, reported feeling a bump at about the spot where the derailment occurred. Railwaymen said it seemed likely a rail was damaged by a Montreal-bound train that used the line before No. 47.

Hicks Critical Of N.S. Gov't

SYDNEY (CP) — Liberal leader Hicks of Nova Scotia said Saturday that the Provincial Government's proposal to have municipalities contribute on a per capita basis to capital costs or hospitals is unwarranted interference in municipal affairs. Mr. Hicks told a party meeting here 'there is no earthly need' for the municipalities to contribute $1 per capita 'with the hospital sales tax.' The Nova Scotia Government proposes that the municipal contributions be given on a per diem basis to the province's hospitals for capital costs. The total would be about $700,000. Municipalities now pay about $2,500,000 toward hospital costs. The Liberal leader said the municipalities 'rejected' the idea and 'we will oppose it unless the government takes over the cost of treatment of the mentally ill.' Mr. Hicks said Premier Stanfield's Conservative Government is bringing experts into the province to solve problems that remain unsolved. The cost of operating Nova Scotia departments had increased more in two years under the Stanfield administration than under any government in Nova Scotia history.
