Principal Gets Five-Year Term

BAIE COMEAU, Que. (CP)—Germain Boivin, principal of the high school at Ste Anne de Portneuf, has been sentenced to five years in prison after he pleaded guilty to three charges of committing gross indecencies against 13-year-old boys.

The sentence was handed down by Judge Gilles Gagnon in magistrate's court in this community 230 miles northeast of Quebec City.

In announcing the sentence, Judge Gagnon criticized certain school commissions for what he called hiring persons with criminal records.

He said in the last three years three school principals had appeared before him on gross indecency charges and a teacher a being sought on a similar charge.

Boivin already was found guilty of the same charge in cases at Montmagny, Que., in 1956 and Quebec City in 1961. Judge Gagnon mentioned the convictions.

World death rates range from 20 per 1,000 population in Africa and Asia to below 10 in Europe, the U.S. and Canada.
