MORE TAXATION.

THE PINEAU Government has given notice of a resolution to change the basis of taxation levied upon insurance companies, telegraph companies, express companies and other incorporated companies, associations and brewers. This, of course, means an increase of the rate. A deputation of insurance agents, etc., waited upon the Premier this morning, but received no satisfaction about the matter. It is rumored that the increased rate of taxation is to be 50 per cent. The burden of this increase will inevitably—in almost every instance—fall upon the shoulders of those who pay insurance premiums, and upon the public at large—particularly upon persons who have property in our towns. But the Government party have not performed their pre-election promises—and Pineau is in power now.

A SUGGESTION.

THE official despatches tell us that Pretoria has fallen and that the British are in possession of the Beer capital. So far as we can judge, this means, practically, the ending of the war. There is some talk of a guerilla warfare, but that cannot last long. The same talk was indulged in when the Southern Confederacy collapsed in 1865.

We Prince Edward Islanders have a special interest in this war as some of our best and bravest have given their lives in South Africa in defence of the Empire. In some form the memory of these men should be perpetuated. A fitting memorial would be a monument on Queen Square, the centre of the Island Capital. Let us put it there.

Let the monument be erected by the voluntary contribution of the people of all parts of the province, in memory of our dead heroes.

—The Patriot says that Pineau says that he didn't write the Ottawa letter to which his name was appended. This statement will be taken for what it is worth, viz., nothing.

—What business has a Government which has lost the confidence of the people, and only exists by the vote of a political traitor, to increase the rate of taxation?

LAST NIGHT'S PARADE.

The celebrating last night was on a comparatively quiet scale though the number of people who lined the march was very large. The procession was composed of Nos 1 and 2 Cos. Artillery, Engineers and 82nd Battalion. These left the drill shed shortly after 8 o'clock, and joined the Boy's Brigade on Queen Street, between Kent and Grafton streets. From here they marched through the principal streets. About 9 o'clock they lined up along market square on Grafton Street. Three cheers were given for the Queen and three for Lord Roberts, the bands playing "God Save the Queen" and "Soldiers of the Queen."

The Boys' Brigade then marched past the militia, the different companies going to their respective armories, while the militia marched to the drill shed.

Before dispersing Col. Moore addressed the militia and thanked them for the turnout. He stated that probably the next time the men would appear would be at the home-coming of the men in South Africa, when, he hoped and believed, an even larger number would do honor to the occasion.

Last evening, before the parade, the Highland Brigade was presented with a Scotch flag by Mr. James Paton, which will be the company's colors.

A coach and four, gaily decked with flags, was a prominent feature of the procession.

Georgetown celebrated the capture of Pretoria. The school children were given a half holiday. In the evening a display of fireworks took place.

HON. JAMES R. MCLEAN, VS. SIR LOUIS DAVIES.

SIR.—The Hon. James R. McLean will not admit that the Conservatives got the sum of $500,000 from the Dominion for this Island in 1887.

I presume the Island statesmen would be surprised to learn that Sir Louis Davies is of the opinion that they did get it, and he cannot be charged as likely to give any undue credit to the Tory party of the Island. The financier of the Public Works office may possess some occult knowledge bearing on the new patent process for producing a surplus, but I fear this is the limit of his powers in matters of finance.

Every one knows the $500,000, referred to below by Sir Louis, was not paid over, and if this sum is not to our credit, it is not likely the $20,000 increase in the annual subsidy would be paid.

Sir Louis made the statement in the House of Commons in the session of 1895 on the question of branch railway extension in P. E. Island, brought up by A. C. McDonald, Esq. The following is an extract from the speech of Sir Louis, reported in Hansard.

"The Dominion has expended on railways and canals beyond what it told the Island Government it would expend when it entered into the terms of Union, the sum of $123,500,000. What have our people, numbering 110,000, to do with that expenditure. Practically they pay one-fifth of the burden, which will amount to $3,000,000 odd. It may be asked his not the Dominion Government done anything to the Island? Certainly it has. Its claims, so reasonable and payable, could not be resisted, and as a matter of fact there has been an expenditure on the Island railway including that to carry the branch line down to Cape Traverse, of $635,000 since we came into confederation, and in 1887 $500,000 were allowed on account of the Island's claim; these amounts aggregate $1,135,000 which it has received out of $3,000,000 to which it is entitled."

This is in perfect accord with the statement made by members of the Opposition on the budget debate during the present session.

IN MEMORIAM—PINEAU.

A new use has been found for the band stand in Queen Square Gardens. It has been turned into a resting place for the (politically) dead. This morning people passing through the square observed that the seats on the stand had been arranged in the form of a grave, at the head of which was a large board bearing the following inscription:

A YOUNG CANADIAN HERO.—Among the many brave deeds which are told of our young Canadians at the front in South Africa, none will more redound to the soldier's credit than that for which Private Nelson Brace, of "G" Company, was responsible. He was wounded in the thigh on the morning of February 27, and concealing the fact got a comrade to dress the wound and actually hobbled along and got through, fulfilling his desire to be present at the entry to Bloemfontein. Private Nelson Talmage Brace is the only son of Mr. R. K. Brace, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., but was born in Summerside in April, 1882. He is a prominent young Orangeman.—Montreal Star.

WAS KNOWN HERE.—Mr. Thomas G. Breen, for several years assistant to Mr. M. J. Keating in the press department of Keith's Boston Theatre, died at his home in South Boston last week. The funeral took place on Friday morning, the remains being taken to St. Vincent's Church, where solemn High Mass was celebrated. There were numerous floral offerings on the casket, including two beautiful pieces from the employees of Keith's Theatre. Mr. Keith and Mr. Keating also sent handsome tributes. The interment was at St. Joseph's Cemetery, Roxbury. Mr. Breen, who was only twenty years of age, was a great favorite with all who knew him, and was deservedly popular with Mr. Keith, Mr. Keating and all connected with Keith's Theatre. Two years ago he spent his vacation in Prince Edward Island, and made many friends here by whom his early death will be greatly regretted.
