Still Three Team League

The new Prince County hockey league is still a three-team circuit, consisting of the Summerside Junior Legionaires, the Summerside Combines, and the Borden Nationals. O'Leary representatives, Ian Strang and the Orville Willis, were present at the meeting Saturday evening. Willis was unable to attend a definite date and were given until Monday night to declare if they were "in" for the "out". The league promoters are most anxious to have O'Leary join and personally feel that the success of the league may depend to a considerable extent on O'Leary becoming a member. It seems fitting that the western section of the county should be represented in a Prince County League, and there was much enthusiasm for the league west of Summerside.

Balance Is Very Important

Balance is pretty important in a hockey league, and lack of it can be pretty disastrous, so any efforts to bring it about are commendable, but you can go only so far in this direction. Bringing in players from outside the county is not a bad idea. Accepting leftovers from the other teams does not help too much, and you can hardly expect team managements to transfer their players to a weaker club. It certainly pays to take some steps towards the insurance of balance. On the other hand, after all your efforts, you may be a bit lucky to achieve some balance. The Combines and Borden Nationals are looking into training each day like watered down versions of the old Crystals and Explodes. The Combines are said to have the H.A.R.S. brothers, Ron MacArthur, Urie Gallant, Ronnie Adams and maybe some others. The Nationals are reported to have Aliger, Cullifer, Walsh, and Charlie Clark. The Juniors are expected to have ex-Penguins Willie Gadsby, and some other players who have Ronnie Rice and Nick Filmore, and a semi-professional player, John H. Hill. The Summerside side is expected to have a number of players, at least a few of which we always felt could be in the I.S.H.L. ranks.

WHERE DID THE PUCK GO?

Denis DeJorjo, substitute goaltender for Chicago Blackhawks of the National Hockey League, glances over his shoulder for the puck during Saturday night's game at Montreal. Canadiens forward Dave Balon (20) cruises in on the net, watched by Chicago defencemen Al MacNeil (19) and Moose Vasko (4). The Hawks won 5-2.

Black Hawks Crashed Wings 5-2 To End Losing Streak

NEW YORK (AP) - New York's suddenly three-wheeling Rangers stopped Detroit a 5-2 lead then romped to a 5-2 National Hockey League victory over the lites Red Wings Sunday night. The victory snapped a seven-game New York losing string and extended the Red Wing's woeful road record. Detroit has yet to win in seven road games this year.

Habs Defeat Boston 3-2

BOSTON (CP) - Montreal forward Bob Rousseau deflected in front of the net to give the Bruins a 3-2 victory over Boston Bruins Sunday night. The Bruins had apparently salvaged a 2-2 tie when Andy Hemberton put in a 16-foot backhander with 1:30 left that shot had come off a face-off pass from Orland Kurtenbach and Boston broke in the game after the home team had blown an early 1-0 lead.

Chicago Scores

By THE CANADIAN PRESS SATURDAY
Chicago scores besides Hull were Al Macdonald, Red Hay and rookie Murray Hall, who scored his first NHL marker.

RASH OF PENALTIES

Despite the one-sidedness of the game, referee John Ashley was kept busy dealing out penalties, particularly in the final period when a rash of minor and misconduct were called.

Then, after the Hawks had killed the penalty, Fleming skated across the ice, collided with Toronto's Dick Duff and the whistle had blown.

Both were given five minutes and a 10-minute misconduct penalty.

San Mills of the Hawks and Toronto's Bob Fulton began exchanging punches during the scuffle and each was given a two-minute rap.

First period - Chicago, Macdonald (Wharram), Vasko 12:12 Chicago, Hall 10:14, Penalties - Baun 10:12, Vasko 13:00.

Second period - Chicago, Hill 11:14, Pines 5:24, 4, Chicago, M. Hall 8:16, Fleming, Young 11:12 Penalties - Shack 4:27, 7:50, Penalties - Baun 12:12 Chicago, 10:14, Penalties - Baun 10:12, Vasko 13:00.

Third period - Chicago, Hoy 7:30, Fleming 8:30, 6, Chicago, 6:33, Fleming 8:37, Fleming, major, misconduct, Duff major, misconduct and Fulton 14:06, Mikita 19:51.
