

A Feature for Every Friday— Among The Farmers Federation Of Agriculture News

Queens County The annual meeting of the Queens County Federation was a lively affair from the opening until the close at 11:30. (Even at that time there was still an audience for further discussion.)

Electricification The explanation of the proposed electricification plan was followed by comments which for the most part expressed satisfaction. On one point that of line construction costs from main line into the farm...

School Meetings The Queens County meeting endorsed by a large majority the idea of holding the annual school meeting earlier in June as a means of clarifying the position of trustees in dealing with teachers.

Cattle Marketing A spirited discussion followed Mr. Roy Grant's remarks on cattle marketing. Feeling was pretty equally divided as to the relative merits of selling alive or on a rail grade basis.

Farm Forum Farm Forum listeners may expect a treat next Monday night with the discussion panel including our own W. R. Shaw and Colin Goff.

Nova Scotia Potatoes Press reports indicate that Nova Scotia potato men have been beating their hard lot and in looking around for culprits, have settled their wrath on the heads of the Potato Marketing Board.

Island Growers The Island growers is pictured as been aboard a gray train. We think the description is not a very apt one, but Island growers can at least claim some credit for realizing that there was a Train of any kind to travel on.

Farm Forum at Kensington The leadership short courses concluded at Kensington on December 3, with an evening rally which was certainly an encouraging demonstration of interest in farm forum as an adult education project.

OSLO, (CP) — The total solar eclipse due next June 30th will attract many foreign scientists to Norway. The eclipse will be visible for about 25 minutes on the Norwegian west coast.

McGuigan - Brannan Wedding Four tall baskets of white lilies mingled with white ivy decorated the altar for the wedding of Bonnie Fay Brannan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Brannan, Valiant, Okla., to Frederick Bruce McGuigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McGuigan, Gladstone Rte. 1, Mich.

Best man for Mr. McGuigan was Clifford W. Long of Long Beach, Calif., maid of honor, was a ballerina-length gown of gold embroidered nylon net over taffeta, designed with a fitted bodice, a V neckline and bouffant skirt. Her veil was held by a baby pearl crown hat.

Following the wedding ceremony, a breakfast was served at the Lafayette Hotel. When the newlyweds left for their honeymoon trip to Huntington Beach, Calif., and cross-country through Arizona, New Mexico and Texas, the new Mrs. McGuigan was attired in a beige wool suit with black accessories.

The December meeting of Kelly's Cross W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Kelly on Dec. 4. The president, Mrs. Clarence Curley occupied the chair. Eleven members and two visitors were present.

There's an open gate at the end of the road, Through which each must pass alone, And there in a light we cannot see The Father claims His own.

Beyond that gate our loved one Finds happiness and rest, And there is comfort in the thought That a loving God knows best.

Ever Remembered by Wife and Family.
