LOOK UP!

BY JOHN CRICHLEY PRINCE.

'Look up!' cried the seaman, with nerves like steel,
As skyward his glance he cast,
And beheld his own son giddy, and reel
On the point of the tap'ring mast;
'Look up!' and the bold boy lifted his face,
And banish'd his brief alarms,—
Slid down at once from his perilous place,
And leapt in his father's arms.

'Look up!' we cry, to the sorely oppress'd,
Who seem from all comfort shut;
They had better look up to the mountain crest
Than down to the precipice foot;—
The one offers heights they may hope to gain—
Pure ether, and freedom, and room,
The other bewilders the aching brain
With roughness, and danger, and gloom.

'Look up!' meek souls, by affliction bent,
Nor dally with dull despair;
Look up, and in faith, to the firmament
For heav'n and mercy are there.
The frail flower droops in the stormy shower,
And the shadows of needful night,
But it looks to the sun in the after hour,
And takes its full measure of light.

'Look up!' sad man, by adversity brought
From high unto low estate;
Play not with the bane of corrosive thought
Nor murmur at chance and fate;
Renew thy hopes, look the world in the face,
For it helps not those who repine;
Press on, and its voice will amend thy pace,—
Succeed, and its homage is thine.

'Look up!' great crowd, who are foremost set
In the changeful 'Battle of Life;'
Some days of calm may reward you yet
For years of allotted strife.
Look up, and beyond there's a guerdon there
For the humble and pure of heart;
Fruition of joys, unalloyed by care,
Of peace that can never depart.

'Look up!' large spirit, by Heaven inspired,—
Thou rare and expansive soul!
Look up, with endeavour and zeal untried,
And strive for the loftiest goal.
Look up, and encourage the kindred throng
Who toil up the slopes behind,
To follow, and hail, with triumphant song,
The holier regions of mind!

Varieties.

A BACHELOR'S SOLILOQUY.

Bless me! I'm thirty-nine to-day, 6 feet in my stockings, black eyes, curly hair, tall and straight as a cedar of Lebanon, and still a bachelor. Well, it's an independent life, at least; no it is'nt either! Here's these new gloves of mine full of little rips, string off one of my most faultless dickie, nice silk handkerchief in my drawer wants hemming, top button off the waistband of my pants; what's to be done? How provoking it is to see those married people looking so self-satisfied and consequential, at the head of their families, as if they had done the State a great service. Why, as to children, they are as plenty as flies in August, and almost as troublesome; every alley and court, and garret are swarming wi 'em; they're no rarity, and any poor miserable wretch can get a wife, enough to scare a man, to think how much it costs to keep one. Young folks have to begin where their fathers and mothers left off. Silks and satins, ribbons and velvets, feathers and flowers, cuff-pins and bracelets, gimcracks, and fol-de-rols; and there's no help for it in my case, for if I married a woman I loved, and the dear little thing should ask me for my scalp, I should give it to her, I know I should. Then, there's the tapestry, carpets, and mirrors, and sofas, and ottomans, and damask curtains, and pictures and crockery, and (you must look at the subjects in all its bearings) little jackets and frocks, and wooden horses, and dolls, and pop-guns, and ginger-bread; don't believe I can do it, by Jupiter! But then, here I sit, with the toe of my best boot kicking the grate, for the want of something to do; it's coming awful cold, dreary weather, long evenings, can't go to concerts for ever, and when I do, my room looks so much the gloomier when I come back; and it would be cosy to have a nice little wife to chat and laugh with. I've tried to think of something else, but I can't; if I look in the fire, I am sure to see a pair of bright eyes; even the shadows on the wall take fairy shapes, I'm on the brink of ruin—I feel it; I shall read my doom in the marriage list before long—I know I shall.

CONVICTION.—Deep in the foundations of his character, like the immovable blocks whereon great edifices repose, each man has to lay down for himself certain thoughts, sooner or later, of passing consequence, got out of secret and manifold communings regarding the vast mystery of here and hereafter: and on these thoughts again, and the more happily and grandly these thoughts are strung there will still base and pile themselves, in some loose order or other, conclusions, sentiments, and divers predilections, extracted painfully or otherwise out of the experience that is gone through of life and its ways, and then employed back again in the scrutiny and contemplation of all that the world presents.

CALAMITIES OF THE IMAGINATION.—"As if the natural calamities of life," says Addison, "were not sufficient for it, we turn the most indifferent circumstances into misfortunes, and suffer as much from trifling accidents as from real evils.—I have known the shooting of a star spoil a night's rest; and have seen a man in love grow pale and lose his appetite, upon the plucking of a merry-thought. A screech-owl at midnight has alarmed a family more than a band of robbers; nay, the voice of a cricket hath struck more terror than the roaring of a lion. There is nothing so inconsiderable which may not appear dreadful to an imagination that is filled with omens and prognostics. A rusty nail or a crooked pin shoots into prodigies.

DAMP BEDS.—Why is a damp bed so dangerous? Because in a damp bed, with an insufficient covering, heat is drawn out or attracted from the body more rapidly than it is generated within the body; a chill ensues, and this superabundant abstraction of caloric is greater during sleep, than during our waking hours; for during sleep, the internal heat-producing process is, like other vital functions, lowered in degree. Moist air, or air which has vapour dissolved in it or diffused through it, attracts caloric more copiously than dry air. The moist air of a damp bed carries away from the body caloric with dangerous rapidity; the whole body is chilled,—disease, and often death, ensues. Rapid abstractions of caloric, it is well known, are amongst the most prolific sources of disease. How is all his often fatal mischief to be prevented? Nothing can be more easy. Prevent, by a sufficient covering with non-conductors, the abstraction of caloric, and all mischief is obviated. One, two, or three additional pairs of blankets, according to the temperature of the chamber, would have saved many a valuable life.—Sir H. Marsh's Lectures in Dublin Medical Press.

ANCIENT PRICES OF LABOUR.—In the year 1352 (Edward III) wages paid to haymakers were 1d. a day. A mower of meadows 3d. a day, or 5d. an acre. Reapers of corn, in the first week in August, 2d.; in the second, 3d. a day, and so on until the end of August—without meat, drink, or other allowance, finding their own tools. For threshing a quarter of wheat or rye, 2½d.; a quarter of barley, beans, peas and oats, 1½d. A master carpenter, 3d. a day; and other carpenters, 2d. A master mason, 4d. a day; and other masons, 3d.; and their servants, 1½d. Tilers, 3d.; and their knaves, 1½d. Thatchers, 3d. a day, and their knaves 1½d. Plasterers, and other workers of mud wall, and their knaves, in like manner, without meat or drink,—and this from Easter to Michaelmas; and from that time less, according to the directions of the justices.

THE CURSE OF A FORTUNE.—The Records of the French Police mention the case of a lady who came unexpectedly into a large fortune, and immediately fell into profound melancholy. She expected to be robbed every moment, and at length locked her doors, and received food through a small window. She soon became afraid of being poisoned, dismissed her cook, and starved herself to death.

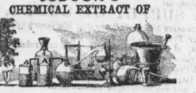
JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF



CHERRY AND LUNGWORT,

FOR THE CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Hoarsness, Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Asthma, Liver Complaints, and CONSUMPTION.

DO NOT NEGLECT IT.

Consumption can be and has been cured,

in thousands of cases, by this only certain remedy,

JUDSON'S CHEMICAL EXTRACT OF CHERRY AND LUNGWORT.

and no remedy has ever before been discovered that will certainly

Cure Consumption.

The most strongly marked and developed cases of Pulmonary Consumption, where the lungs have become diseased and ulcerated and the case so utterly hopeless, as to have been pronounced by Physicians and friends, to be past all possibility of recovery, and at times thought to be dying, have been cured by this wounderful remedy, and are now as well and hearty as ever. It is a compound of medications which are peculiarly adapted to and essentially necessary for the cure of

COUGHS AND CONSUMPTION.

Its operation is mild, yet efficacious; it loosens the phlegm which creates so much difficulty, relieves the cough and assists nature to expel from the system all diseased matter by expectoration, producing a delightful change in the breathing and chest, and this, after the prescriptions of the very best medical men and the inventions of kind and sorrowing friends and Nurses, have failed to give the smallest relief to the Consumptive sufferer.

THOUSANDS OF CONSUMPTIVE

persons have been deceived repeatedly in buying medicines which were said to be infallible cures, but which have proved only palliatives, but this medicine is not only a palliative but a cure for ulcerated lungs. It contains no deleterious Drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or certificates in curing consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spitting of blood, Coughs, pain in the side and chest, night-sweats, &c. &c.

About 1000 certificates of almost miraculous cures, performed by this medicine, from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent us for this medicine, but the publication of them looks too much like Quackery, [we will show them to any person, calling at our office.] This medicine will speak for itself and enough in its own favour wherever it is tried.

Caution—This medicine is put up in a large bottle and you must find the name of Judson & Co., Proprietors, New York, on the splendid Wrapper around the bottle. All orders must be addressed to Comstock & Brother, No. 9 John St. New York.

CARLTON'S RING-BONE CURE.

For the cure of Ring-bone, Blood Spavin, Bone Spavin, Windgalls, and Spint—a certain remedy.

CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS FOR HORSES AND CATTLE.

The changes of weather and season, with the change of use and feed, have a very great effect upon the blood and sinuous fluids of horses. It is at these changes they require an assistant to nature to throw off any disorder of the fluids of the body that may have been imbibed, and which, if not attended to, will result in the Yellow water, Heaves, Worms, Botts, &c. All of which will be prevented by giving one of these powders, and will at any time, cure when any symptoms of disease appear, if used in time. They purify the blood, remove all inflammation and fever, loosen the skin, cleanse the water, and invigorate the whole body, enabling them to do more work with the same feed. The action of these powders is direct upon all the secretive glands, and therefore has the same effect upon the Horse, the Ox, the Ass, and all Herbivorous animals—all diseases arising from or producing a bad state of the blood, are speedily cured by them.

Remember and ask for CARLTON'S CONDITION POWDERS, and take no others.

CARLTON'S NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT FOR HORSES.

and for the cure of all diseases of man or beast that require external application, and for contracted cords and muscles, strength in weak limbs, and is also used for sprains, bruises, saddle galls, swelled legs, sores of all kinds on horses.

CARLTON's articles for Horses and Cattle are prepared from the recipe of a very celebrated English Farrier, and will cure in ninety-nine cases out of one hundred of any of the above complaints. They have been used by Farmers, livery-men, stage proprietors and others with the most marked and decided success.

Caution.—None can be genuine unless you find the name of J. Carlton Comstock, on the Wrapper of each article.

COMSTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

This is the most extraordinary remedy for Worms ever used; it effectually eradicates Worms from both Adults and Children. It cannot harm the most delicate infant or strongest Adult, and never fails to completely root out and destroy all kinds of Worms. The cost, 25 cents per bottle, puts it within reach of all, and all parents who are without it, are wantonly exposing the lives of their children to those fell destroyers of youth, "Worms." Look for the name of Comstock & Brother, proprietors, on the Wrapper of each bottle.

PHENOMENON IN CHEMISTRY!!!!

EAST INDIA HAIR DYE.

COLORS THE HAIR, AND WILL NOT THE SKIN.

This dye may be applied to the hair over night, the first night turning the lightest RED or GREY HAIR to a dark brown, and by repeating a second night, to a bright jet black. Any person may, therefore, with the least possible trouble keep his hair any dark shade or perfect black; with a positive assurance that the dye, if applied to the skin will not colour it. By an occasional application, a person turning grey will never be known to have a grey hair. Directions complete with the article. There is no colouring in this statement, as one can easily test.

These facts are warranted by the gentleman who manufactures it who is the celebrated Chemist, DR. COMSTOCK, author of Comstock's Chemistry, Philosophy, and other works, and School Books, well known and widely celebrated by the public.

Deafness.

Use DR. LARZETTE'S ACOUSTIC OIL, for the cure of Deafness Also, all those disagreable noises, like the buzzing of insects, falling of water, whizzing of steam, which are symptoms of approaching deafness. Many persons who have been deaf for ten, fifteen or twenty years, and were subject to use ear trumpets, have after using one or two bottles, thrown aside these trumpets, being made perfectly well. It has cured cases of ten, fifteen, and even thirty years standing of deafness.

IS HERE YOUR REMEDY!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A MOST MIRACULOUS CURE OF BAD LEGS, AFTER 43 YEARS' SUFFERING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Galpin, of 70, Saint Mary's Street, Weymouth, dated May 15, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—At the age of 18 my wife (who is now 61) caught a violent cold, which settled in her legs, and ever since that time they have been more or less sore, and greatly inflamed. Her agonies were distracting, and for months together she was deprived entirely of rest and sleep. Every remedy that medical men advised was tried, but without effect; her health suffered severely, and the state of her legs was terrible. I had often read your Advertisements, and advised her to try your Pills and Ointment; and, as a last resource, after every other remedy had proved useless, she consented to do so. She commenced six weeks ago, and, strange to relate, is now in good health. Her legs are painless, without seam or scar, and her sleep sound and undisturbed. Could you have witnessed the sufferings of my wife during the last 43 years, and contrast them with her present enjoyment of health, you would indeed feel delighted in having been the means of so greatly alleviating the sufferings of a fellow creature.

(Signed) WILLIAM GALPIN.

A PERSON 70 YEARS OF AGE CURED OF A BAD LEG, OF THIRTY YEARS' STANDING

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Wm. Abbs, Builder of Gas Ovens, of Rushcliffe, near Huddersfield, dated May 31, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I suffered for a period of thirty years from a bad leg, the result of two or three different accidents at Gas Works; accompanied by scorbutic symptoms. I had recourse to a variety of medical advice, without deriving any benefit, and was even told that the leg must be amputated; yet, in opposition to that opinion, your Pills and Ointment have effected a complete cure in so short a time, that few who had not witnessed it would credit the fact.

(Signed) WILLIAM ABBS.

The truth of this statement can be verified by Mr. W. P. England Chemist, 13, Market Street, Huddersfield.

A DREADFUL BAD BREAST CURED IN ONE MONTH.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Frederick Turner, of Penshurst, Kent, dated December 13, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR,—My wife had suffered from Bad Breasts for more than six months, and during the whole period had the best medical attendance, but all to no use. Having before healed an awful wound in my own leg by your unrivalled medicine, I determined again to use your Pills and Ointment, and therefore gave them a trial in her case, and fortunate it was, I did so, for in less than a month a perfect cure was effected, and the benefit that various other branches of my family have derived from their use is really astonishing. I now strongly recommend them to all my friends.

(Signed) FREDRICK TURNER.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF A DANGEROUS SWELLING OF THE KNEE.

Copy of a letter from John Forfar, an Agriculturist, residing at Newborough, near Hexham, dated May 15, 1850.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I was afflicted with a swelling on each side of the leg, rather above the knee, for nearly two years, which increased to a great size. I had the advice of three eminent Surgeons here, and was an inmate of the Newcastle infirmary for four weeks. After various modes of treatment had been tried, I was discharged as incurable. Having heard so much of your Pills and Ointment, I determined to try them, and in less than a month, I was completely cured. What is more remarkable I was engaged twelve hours a day in the Hay Harvest, and although I have followed my laborious occupation throughout the winter, I have had no return whatever of my complaint.

(Signed) JOHN FORFAR.

AN INFLAMMATION IN THE SIDE PERFECTLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Francis Arnot, of Breakouse, Lothian Road, Edinbro', dated April 29th, 1851.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—For more than twenty years my wife has been subject, from time to time to attacks of inflammation in the side, for which she was bled and blistered to a great extent; still the pain could not be removed. About four years ago, she saw in the papers, the wonderful cures effected by your Pills and Ointment, and thought she would give them a trial. To her great astonishment and delight, she got immediate relief from their use, and after persevering for three weeks, the pain in her side was completely cured, and she has enjoyed the best of health for the last four years.

(Signed) FRANCIS ARNOT.
