Hello again. I am so thrilled with those of you who have inquired about graduate school for next year. It is exciting to go through the whole newness of the application procedures, and possibly scholarships, bursaries, or assistantships with you. I mean, after all, it's what I do. I collect this information, and then try to encourage UPEI people to go after it. The money available is just sitting there, so to speak, in various awards and it is up to the student to try and win some of it.

Also, make sure you understand that you can still apply for a student aid loan and bursary. Actually, PEI people can leave it until the last day of classes, but of course, I wouldn't recommend that sort of financial planning. I know these loan programs quite well, and if you should need help, then do drop by during my office hours on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. I'd like to help you get what you need, or to just explain, in simple terms, what often appears unnecessarily complex: formula, tables, contribution percentages, and income tax forms.

Speaking of forms, there are some forms that you should think about filling out. Undergraduate awards can be won with a quick signature, so come by the office and discover which ones are available for you.

Remember the search for the green begins with you.
