MEDITATION AMONG THE TOMBS.

ON THE DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH.

Here lies John, Duke of Marlborough,
Who ran the French throught and through
He married Sarah Jennings, spinster,
Died at Windsor, and was buried at Westminster.

FROM BROOM CHURCHYARD, ENGLAND.

God be praised!
Here is Mr. Dudley, senior,
And Jane, his wife, also,
Who, while living, was his superior;
But see what death can do.
Two of his sons also lie here,
One Walter, t'other Joe;
They all of them went in the year 1510 below.

In St. Michael's Churchyard, Aberyst u th, is another, to the memory of David-Davies, blacksmith:—

My sledge and Hammer lay reclined,
My Bellows, too have, lost their wind,
My fire's extinct, my forge decayed,
And in the dust my Vice is laid;
My Coal is spent, my Iron gone,
My Nails are driven—my work is done.

In St. Germain's, in the Isle of Nan, the the following very singular epitaph is yet to be seen, in Latin, over the tomb of Dr. Samuel Rutter, formerly prebendary of Litchfield, and afterwards Bishop of Sodor and Man:—

In this house,
Which I have borrowed from
My brethren the worms,
lie I,
SAMUEL, by Divine permission,
Bishop of this Island,
Stop, reader;
behold and smile at
THE PALACE OF A BISHOP!
who died May 30,
In the year
1653.

An Hibernian epitaph reads as follows—it is taken from the old churchyard at Belturbet, Ireland:—

Here lies John Highly, whose father and mother were drowned in their passage to America.
Had they both lived, they would have been buried here!

The following admonitary voice from a tomb in Thetford churchyard, Norfolk, will at least be pursued with interest by the advocates of the Temperance cause.—

My grandfather lies buried here,
My cousin Jaue, and two uncles dear;
My father perished with an inflamation in his eyes,
My sister dropt down dead in the Minories;
But the reason why I'm here interred, according to my thinking.
Is owing to my good living and hard drinking!
Therefore, good people, if you wish to live long,
Don't drink too much wine, brandy, gin, or anything strong.

A young lady has written it down in her album that kissing is a capital offence.

The man who made a shoe for the foot of a mountain, is now engaged on a hat for the head of a discourse—after which he will manufacture a plume for Gen. Intelligence.

Dentist (looking wise and speaking with careful accent.) "Well, navigator of the seas, which is the tooth you wish extracted? Is it a molar or an incisor?" Jcak (throwing overboard his quid and speaking tartly.) "It is in the second tier,'starboard side, near the hatches. Bear a hand, you land lubber, and heave away, for it is nipping my jaw like a sea turtle·"

John Bunyan, while in Bedford jail, was called upon by a Quaker' desirous of making a convert of him. "Friend John, I have come to thee with a message from the Lord, and after having searched for thee in all the prisons in England' I am glad have found thee out at last." "If the Lord had sent you," returned Bunyan, "you need not have taken so much pains to find me out, for the Lord knows I have been here twelve years."

VALUE OF NEWSPAPERS.—Dr. Johnson, when in the fulness of years and knowledge said:—I never took up a newspaper without finding something I would have deemed it a loss not to have seen; never without deriving from it instruction or amusement·"

Revenge is a common passion; it is the sin of the uninstructed. The savage deems it noble; but Christ's religion, which is the sublime civilizer, emphatically condemns it. Why? Because religion ever seeks to ennoble man, and nothing so debases him as revenge.

A disappointed author, indulging in a vein of abuse against a successful rival exclaimed, 'he is without exception, the most superficial, self sufficient, ignorant, shallow creature that ever made any pretension to literature.' "Gently, my dear sir," interrupted a gentleman,,, you quite forget yourself."

The Cherokee marriage ceremony is very expressive—man and woman joining hands over running water, indicating that their lives are to flow on in one stream.

At a recent lecture, Dr. Boynton related that wishing to explain to a little girl the manner in which the lobster casts its shell, when it has outgrown it, he said, "What do you do when you have outgrown your cloths? You throw them aside, don't you?" —"Oh, no!" replied the little one, "we let out the tucks!"—The Docter confessed she had the advantage of him there.

CURIOUS ADVERTISEMENT.—The following advertisement is copied from a recent number of the Connecticut Courant published at Hartford, in America:—

"Julia, my wife, has grown quite rude,
She has left me in a lonesome mood;
She has left my board,
She has took my bed,
She has gave away my meat and bread,
She has left me in spite of friends and church,
She has carried with her all my shirts.
Now ye who read this paper,
Since she cut this reckless caper,
I will not pay one single fraction
For any debts of her contraction·

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Lloyd, of Erw wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that, for a very long period, I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming, that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition, I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant'

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, DROPSY, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skilfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks. (Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

A DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASM IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I have much pleasure in handing to you a testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighbourhood, with whom I am well acquainted, was affected for a long time with violent spasmodic pains in the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colds, smells of paint, and the effects of a stooping position, which he was obliged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a weak and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the salutary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dose gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs, that he has been restored to the enjoyment of good health.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) WILLIAM BOSTOCK.

Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

CHERRY PECTORAL,

For the rapid Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Among the numerous discoveries Science has made in this generation to facilitate the business of life—increase its enjoyment, and even prolong the term of human existence, none can be named of more real value to mankind, than this contribution of Chemistry to the Healing Art. A vast trial of its virtues throughout this broad country, has proven beyond a doubt, that no medicine or combination of medicines yet known, can so surely control and cure the numerous varieties of pulmonary disease which have hitherto swept from our midst thousands and thousands every year. Indeed, there is now abundant reason to believe a Remedy has at length been found which can be relied on, to cure the most dangerous affections of the lungs. Our space here will not permit us to publish any proportion of the cures effected by its use, but we would present the following:—aud refer further enquiry to my American Almanac, which the agent below named, will always be pleased to furnish free, wherein are full particulars, and indisputable proof of these statements.

Office of Transportation, Laurens R. R., S. C., Aug. 4, 1853.

J. C. AYER. Dear Sir,—My little son four years old has just recovered from a severe attack of malignant Scarlet Fever, his throat was rotten, and every person that visited him, pronounced him a dead child. Having used your CHERRY PECTORAL in California, in thc winter of 1850, for a severe attack of Bronchitis, with entire succes, I was induced to try it on my little boy. I gave him a tea-spoon-ful every three hours, commencing in the morning, and by ten o'clock at night, I found a decided change for the better, and after three days use he was able to eat or drink without pain.

Its use in the above named disease will save many a child from a premature grave, and relieve the anxiety of many a fond parent.—For all affections of the Throat and Lungs, I believe it the best medicine extant. A feeling of the deepest gratitude, prompts me in addressing you these lines,—but for your important discovery, my little boy would now have been in another world.

I am yours, with great respect,
J. D. POWELL, Supt. Trans., L. R.R.

Rock Hill, (Somerset Co.,) N. J., July 21, 1852.

Dr. J. C. AYER,—Since your medicine has become known here, it has a greater demand than any other cough remedy we have ever sold. It is spoken of in terms of unmeasured praise by those who have used it, and I know of some cases where the best they can say of it, is not too much for the good it has done. I take pleasure in selling it, because I know that I am giving my customers the worth of their money, and I feel gratified in seeing the benefit it confers.m

Please send me a further supply, and believe

Yours, with respect,
JOHN C. WHITLOCK.

Almost any number of certificates can be sent you, if you wish it.

Windsor, C. W., June 26, 1852.

J. C. AYER. Sir; This may certify that I have used your CHERRY PECTORAL for upwards of one year; and it is my sincere belief that I should have been in my grave ere this time if I had not. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, and I do not overstate my convictions when I tell you it is a priceless remedy.

Yours very respectfuliy,
D. A. McCULLIN, Attorney at Law.

Wilksbarre, Pa., September 28, 1850.

DR. J. C. AYER, My dear Sir,—Your medicine is much approved of by those who have used it here, and its composition is such as to insure and maintain its reputation. Invariably recommend it for pulmonary affections, as do many of our principal physicians.

I am your friend,
