

Fragments.

COMMUNICATED BY VICH DROMNUII NAN ORD.

What constitutes a State? Not high-raised Battlements, or lofty mound, Thick wall, or moated gate. Not wide and broad-armed Ports, Where, laughing at the storm, rich Navies ride; Not Royal Halls and Courts, Where low-browed Baseness wafts perfume to Pride! But MEN, high-minded MEN, Who know their Rights,—and, knowing, dare maintain, And spare the Tyrant, while they read his chain; These constitute a State!

What constitutes a Feast? Not haunch of venison, of flavor true, Fat, juicy, nicely dressed, Nor turtle, calipash of verdant hue, Not soup, in whose rich flood, French cooks a thousand relishes infuse, Not tricecees well stewed; Nor France's greater roast, high famed ragoûts; Not sirloin of beef, Crowning a dish in which rich gravy lies, Not Turbot, ocean chief, Which ruddy lobster sauce accompanies. NO: A good appetite, And good digestion, turn into a feast. What'er front teeth can bite, And grinders manducate, and palate taste; Be it homely bread and cheese, Or Bacon Smoked— Be it Onions fiery root, Whose rank effluvia draws unbidden tears; Potato, Erin's fruit, With which the Irishman his stomach cheers; Or Oatmeal Porridge, Chief— Undoubted Chief of Scotland's rustic slops. Yet in these meals so plain, Let a sharp appetite as guest attend, And napkin Aldermen May grudge the gout with which the bits descend. This constitutes a feast, To experience Hunger, and have where-withal, (The 'it' be not of the best) To stop the void breadbasket's healthy call.

Ye Gentlemen of England! Uprouse! uprouse ye now! Let Loyal Courage fill each breast, be boldness on each brow! Fair Britain's Isle is shaken, Lawless force within her burns; Ye Gentlemen of England! To you your Country turns! Ye Gentlemen of England! For many a year ye stood, A landmark of true Piety, a bulwark of the good; But now your Church, by fees despoiled, is hardly left a name, And all but in the hands of those who glory in her shame! Ye gentlemen of England, resist the factious band Of BANKRUPT slaves and ruffian knaves who seek to crush the LAND, The plunder of the Treasury is not their aim alone, But level with the dust to lay the Paerage and the Throne! Ye gentlemen of England! ye showed your strength before! At France's threat ye drew your swords, and guarded Albion's shore; And will ye now inactive stand, or from your station roam, When menaced by a direr foe, a maddened MOB at home! Ye gentlemen of England! Forth let your standards fly! "For God," for Britain, and her Queen, "Upraise the proud flag high; Defiance hurl to anarchists, who'd bear the Loyal down! Defiance hurl to all the foes of England's Church and Crown! Ye gentlemen of England! The Royal Standard, And round it all will rally who hold their country dear! Shall Britain's wealth, shall Scotland's Peers, to rebel papers bow? Up! England's wealth, and Scotland's Clans! 'Tis ye must save her now!

*Note.—In opposition to Mr. Bradlaugh. It is possible that a committee of the House of Commons is to sit on the question as to the admission of an avowedly Atheist Legislator for christian men? Bradlaugh is even more deserving of imprisonment and the treadmill than ever was that infamous publisher of obscene books, Richard Carlyle. Obscenity is bad enough, but blasphemy is worse.—V.D.N.O.

A Good Thing. German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in Medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Beware of medicines of similar names, lately introduced. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Sample bottle, 10 cents.
