MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S
Bone Rheumatic Liniment

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been imposed upon by others, but is positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power.

All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.

☞ See circular for particulars and testimonials, and try a bottle—it will not fail to do all that is promised.

The Markets.

OATS.

The oat market in England continues without alteration. Five shillings and five pence per 100 lbs. is the price in Liverpool, and seventeen shillings per quarter of 304 lbs. in the Bristol and the English Channels. In Charlottetown they sell at 33 cents per bushel in carloads, and for 32 cents on the streets. Halifax and St. John markets continue dull. In the former city they sell at 40 cents, and in the latter at 42 cents per bushel.

EGGS.

Fresh eggs continue scarce in Boston, and prices are a cent per dozen higher than reported last week. Twenty-five to twenty seven is the price of Island stock, while twenty-eight is obtained for the fresh Eastern stock.

POTATOES.

The potato market, and the prospects of a market in the United States are treated at length in our editorial columns. In Boston, we see by the most recent circulars, the market is very dull, and the outside prices to be expected for Island stock is fifty cents per bushel. Potatoes sell in Charlottetown at from 16 to 18 cents, and in Halifax at from 30 to 32 cents per bushel.

FISH.

Receipts of mackerel at Boston for the week have been 5,932 bbls., including 3,214 brls. from domestic and 2,718 brls. from foreign ports. Trade has not been very active there, and on the lower grades of mackerel prices are easier, but choice are held firm at previous rates. Provincial mackerel are pretty well sold up, and the range of prices is about the same. We quote Island No. 1 at $15 to $16; No. 2 at $12 to $13; and No. 3 at $10 to $11 per barrel. Unculled lots sold at $12.50 to $13. per brl. Nova Scotia range from $9.58 to $10 per brl. as to quality. Shore Mackerel have dropped a little on 4's, and we quote fare lots as follows:—Extras $20 to $22; No 1, $18 to $19; No. 2, $13 to $14; No 3 $9 to $9.50, and No 4, $5.50 to $6 per brl. Bays are selling at $13.50 to $14, out of pickle. The Shore fleet have been operating in the Bay, but did not catch many Mackerel during the week, owing to strong winds. The total quantity landed at all the ports by fleet is 7,717 bbls., against 3,654 bbls. same week in 1882, and 10,383 bbls in 1881. Since the first of January 66,000 bbls of pickled herring have been received, against 43,800 bbls same time last year, an increase of 22,200 bbls. The best Nova Scotia Shore splits and Labrador command $5.75 to $6, but most of the Labrador are medium size, ranging from $5 to $5.50. Other grades ~~range from $3 to $4 per bbl.~~ Smoked herring continue in large supply, and 16c per box is a full cargo price for medium scaled Alewives are without scales. Canned Lobsters and Mackerel are selling at previous prices.

FLOUR.

The Montreal Herald of the 29th reports that the flour market, regarded as a whole, has been fairly active, and without noteworthy change in the statistical position as compared with a week previous. During the week stock in the Montreal market diminished 8,454 barrels, indicating an outward movement. The quotations are:

Superior Extra, per brl	$5.60	to	$5.65
Extra Superfine	5.50	to	5.55
Fancy	5.50	to	0.00
Spring Extra	5.25	to	5.30
Superfine	4.75	to	4.80
Strong Bakers (Canadian)	5.50	to	5.75
Strong Bakers' (American)	6.00	to	6.75
Fine	4.00	to	4.00

In Charlottetown there is a good stock of flour. It is worth from $6.25 to $6.50 per barrel as to quality.

PORK.

The market for Pork in Montreal and Toronto contains much the same features. In Montreal there is a fair demand, and steady. The quotations are:

Western Mess	$14.50	to	$15.00
Lard, western, per lb	00.11	to	00.11½
Hams, uncovered, per lb.	00.14	to	00 14½
Hams, canvassed, per lb.	00.15	to	00.16
Bacon, per lb	00.13	to	00.15
Tallow, per lb	00.00	to	00.09

In Charlottetown pork per carcass sells at 4½ to 5½, and per brl. at $13.50 for prime and $16.50 for mess.

Murray Harbor Notes.

On the 28th ult., the Presbyterians opened their new church at Murray Harbor North. The church is a very fine one, and a great credit to them. At half-past ten a. m., a large congregation assembled to hear the Rev. A. Donald, of Pictou, N. S., preach the dedicating sermon which was an exellent one. At three o'clock, p. m., the Rev. E. Bell, of Murray Harbor South, preached with acceptance. Again in the evening at six o'clock, the church was crowded to hear the Rev. W. Reynolds of Murray Harbor South, who preached an admirable Sermon. There was good singing, and the collections for the building fund were large.

On the 28th ult., the Rev. W. Reynolds was thrown from his wagon, his horse having run away through some break in the harness. The rev. gentleman was not hurt very much and is now doing well.

On the 29th ult., at the Presbyterian Church, a large audience assembled to hear the Rev. A. Donald, of Pictou, N. S., advocate the cause of Missions, which he did very eloquently, and the result of which was a good collection.

THREE YEARS IN THE PENITENTIARY.—The jury in the case of John Yeomans returned a verdict of guilty on the second count—for shooting at Cora Smith with intent to do grevious bodily harm. The Judge sentenced the prisoner to three years in the Penitentiary. When the words dropped from the Judge's mouth Yeomans, who had been gazing intently on His Honor smiled and jocularly remarked, "Well three stripes ain't much."—Globe.

Sir Alexender Galt and others give notice that the North-Western Coal and Navigation Company will apply to Parliament to give Parliamentary sanction to the charter obtained in England; also for power to construct the Alberta Railway and Coal Company, with power to amalgamate.

Cotton goods are far cheaper to-day under protection than they were five years ago under so-called free trade. The Canadian Manufacturer proves it by giving the following authentic quotations of the prices in five different brands:—

	1878.	Sept. 1882.	Oct. 1883
A	6.01	5.16	5.62½
B	6.47	6.67	6.75
C	7.40	6 68	7.20
D	8.31	7.20	7.50
E	9.26	7.69	8.40
Average	7.49	6.48	6 99½

The gentlemen who say that protection makes prices high should explain this.

The following is a statement of the value of goods exported from Canada during the month of September:

Grand Total	$8,603,533	$1,679,333

The following is a statement of balances at credit of depositors in the Government Savings Banks, on the 31st of August, by Provinces:—

Ontario	$ 694,552
Manitoba	590,226
British Columbia	2,191,744
Nova Scotia	5,893,944
New Brunswick	3,963,282
Prince Edward Island	1,204,979
	$14,538,728

The deposits for August were $611,268, and the withdrawal $446,883. A very large proportion of the above, 14½ millions, represents the savings of the wages receiving classes, and must be added to the thirteen millions deposited in the Post Office Savings Banks in order to show the prosperous state of the country.

The exports of Canada during the month of September aggregated $10,282,866; the imports $10,323,112.00 Duty collected $2,009,729.70.

Foreign News Notes.

The Prussian Admiralty has ordered another hundred fish torpedoes to be delivered before spring.

The Paris Temps says it is rumored that the King of Portugal, being weary of the Liberal agitation, thinks of abdicating the throne.

The Government of Bulgaria has decided to dismiss all Russian officers serving in the Bulgarian army, and to recall all Bulgarians now in the Russian service.

Advices from Gora, Croatia, state that seven of the thirteen prisoners on trial for implication in the recent rising have been sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from a week to a year.

It is believed in diplomatic circles at London and in Paris that the German Government shows so much annoyance at the massing of Cossacks on the frontier that it will make an official demand for an explanation from St. Petersburg, asking directly the meaning of what seems to have been a preconcerted movement.

Advices from Saigon show that the French in an encounter near Hanoi early in September met the Chinese regulars, who were well armed and officered. After a conflict of three days, during which the French took some of the enemies works, they withdrew. Some troops of the King of Annam were with the enemy. A letter from Saigon to The France states that unheard of cruelties were committed near Hue. Admiral Corbet directed no quarter to be given to men, women or children. Three hundred Annamites who took refuge in the mouth of the Bay of Thuan were killed, and one hundred and fifty more drifting in a junk without arms were massacred. The Figaro declares that Admiral Corbet, at the instance of Commissioner Harmand, allowed such acts in order to terrorize the Annamites. The Temps denies that Corbet gave such orders, but admits that 1,200 of the enemy were slain at Thuan.

Another terrible murder has occurred at St. Ouen, France. At half-past ten on Sunday morning Mme. Besnard, occupying a room in a court, the entrance to which is through No. 106 Avenue St. Ouen, heard a sound as of stamping, followed by a cry of "a l'assassin!" Some instants afterwards the door of a neighboring apartment was violently slammed, and a man was heard to rush down stairs. Mme. Besnard, after recovering from her first alarm, called her neighbors, who forced the door of a room occupied by a young girl named Nathalie Marie Leuleu, when a horrible sight presented itself. The girl, who was only twenty years old, lay on the floor with a napkin bound around her neck. The assassin, not content with strangling his victim, stabbed her repeatedly. The knife used remained in the wound, pinning the neck of the unfortunate victim to the floor. Nothing in the room had been disturbed. Theft evidently was not the motive of the crime. The dead girl, who was quite pretty, had been residing in the house only a fortnight. It is thought that her murderer was a discarded lover. Her body has been transported to the morgue.
