

Increase Noted In Farm Labor Orders

Officials of the National Employment Office report that orders for farm labor are increasing in number, indicating a shortage in number of workers, and also that farmers plan to take advantage of the early spring and to get on the land sooner than usual.

Island-born farm laborers are scarce but the Employment Office has been assured by the Regional Employment Office in Moncton that German immigrants will be available during April and early May.

Before the immigrants arrive on this side of the Atlantic arrangements are made to place them in various parts of Canada well ahead of the date on which they disembark. No delay occurs between the time the land in Canada and their departure to the farmers to whom they have been assigned.

There are no extra farm laborers left over who can be given to farmers who make last minute application.

As pointed out in an advertisement which appears elsewhere in this paper, farmers who wish to engage immigrant help should apply for it immediately.

The approach of the lobstering season is playing a part in the developing scarcity of farm labor. Each year as the open season nears, the lure of the sea and factory draws many men from agriculture, and many farmers find themselves in difficulties.

It is hoped that the ready availability of the German laborers this year will fill any inroads on farms made by the fishing industry.

Repairs To Library Building Voted

At a special meeting of the City Council held in Council Chambers at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the sum of $9,000 was voted as the City's share of the cost for necessary repairs to the Harris Memorial Library building. The other half of the necessary $6,000 expenditure will be borne by the Provincial Government. The repairs, which include the replacement of the roof lighting, cleaning and decorating the Art Gallery and other minor items, will be carried out under the supervision of Mr. R. G. White, Deputy Minister of Public Works and Mr. J. E. Fullerton, City Clerk, Mayor J. D. Stewart presided over the Council meeting.

Fine Edition Of Red and White

The Winter edition of St. Dunstan's Red and White reflects much credit on the editors, Messrs. Robert Croken and Gerald Steele and the various members of the staff who have produced a volume of exceptional merit. The issue carries a well-balanced variety of articles ranging from the "Importance of Character," "Are we really advancing?" and "A new factor of Solidarity" to "A Modern Home" and a number of items in the lighter vein without which "Red and White" would lose some of its charm and pulling power with the students and their young friends. A splendid contribution by John Mullally deals with "St. Dunstan's College 1854-1954" and is sound reading for not only those who have a love and respect for the ancient campus, but citizens generally who have associated the College with the history of Charlottetown for a century. Hockey and basketball receive their full share of interest in the winter edition of Red and White, which would be incomplete without a considerable reference to those major sports which engage the athletic prowess of the student body.

Important Panel Discussions Today

The two important features of today's sessions of the annual convention of the Teachers Federation will take place this afternoon. A panel discussion on the Provincial Home and School Association will be conducted to be followed by a talk by Dr. L. W. Shaw, Director of Education.

In the morning the teachers will hear Rhythm Band selections and see Folk Dancing by pupils of the Model School under the direction of Mr. Frank Johnson and then take part in the various discussions to be conducted in the divided sessions to be held in rooms throughout the College. In the evening they will be guests at an informal social in the auditorium.

BROOKFIELD W.I.

The monthly meeting of the Brookfield Women's Institute was held in the school on March 17th with eight members present. The president presided and opened the meeting with the Creed in unison.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Correspondence was read and discussed. It was moved and seconded $10.00 be given the flood relief fund and the bill for flowers be paid. A card of thanks was received from Mrs. Sentner and family for flowers.

It was decided to have a pantry sale. There was no sick committee to report. The Red Cross convener passed out yarn for knitting, finished work was passed back and a receipt from the Red Cross office was received for the following: Three pairs ankle socks, two party dresses, one sweater and two pairs panties.

Mrs. Robert Andrews took the auto robe at $5.00, Mrs. Chalmers Newcome the blanket at $4.50 and Grace Wood the socks at 85 cents, making a total of $10.35. Collection amounted to 30 cents, donations to $1.05 and Mrs. Chalmers Newcome joined the Institute.

Mrs. Gordon MacLeod, Miss Bernice Wood and Mrs. Reagh Moore were chosen to collect for the Red Cross.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Wendell Rodd, roll call to be answered with a sympathy or get-well card. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Spring So-Ed Series Continues

The last educational night of the Spring So-Ed series continued at the Y.M.C.A. Tuesday evening. A very interesting talk was given by Mrs. Julian Herring on the subject "Beauty from Within". Her talk stressed the important part personality plays in the success of one's life.

Hold Sessions On Child Care

Miss Madeline Flander, Educational Director, Children Memorial Hospital, Montreal, concluded the first two sessions of a four day series of talks on child care. The afternoon session, for nurses only opened with a discussion of what is meant by "Child-Centred Care"-the overall topic for this series of talks. Miss Flander explained that by child-centred care was meant the consideration of environment, relationships, experiences and emotional reactions of the child as opposed to the consideration mainly of his disease or disability. During the second part of the session the nurses formed "buzz" groups out of which came relevant problems that were discussed briefly.

The evening session, which was open to the public, began by showing the film "Emotional Problems of Childhood", which emphasized the need of the child for security, independence and affection, a feeling of personal worth and a sense of belonging to a group. Following the film time was devoted to a discussion of these needs in the hospital situation and the responsibilities of the nurse. In both sessions problems mentioned specifically were those of the parent visiting the hospital and feeding the children. These will be discussed more fully in later talks.

Enjoyable Plays Presented By Little Theatre Guild

The Little Theatre Guild last evening presented three one-act plays for a widely varied but very enjoyable fare at the first studio night of the new year. The first, "Suppressed Desires," was a delightful comedy-satire by Susan Glaspell, poking fun at the present day bugaboo of the "sub-conscious mind." The modern committee woman type of wife, whose preoccupation with her husband's need to be psychoanalyzed is driving him to desperation, was excellently portrayed by Lil MacIsaac. When the hilarious climax, contrived with a clever play on words, revealed that her sister was unconsciously in love with her husband, the wife, Henrietta, was convinced that psychiatry is not, after all, an infallible solution to all life's ills.

Teachers Enjoy Choral Program

A thoroughly enjoyable half hour of rare and cleverly executed choral numbers was heard by the members of the Teachers Federation in annual convention at Prince of Wales College auditorium last evening, presented by the Charlottetown Choral under the direction of Mr. William Rogers.

The variety and scope of the numbers successfully dealt with, reflected the time and talent devoted to the art by more than forty members of the assembly under the leadership of Mr. Rogers. The programme included "Barcarolle" from Tales of Hoffman; two Scotch Folk Songs "Farewell" and "Wee Cooper O'Fife"; "Come to the Fair" (Easthope Martin); "The Ash Grove" (Welsh Folk Song); "The Gentle Maiden" (Irish Folk Song); "Morning Now Beckons" (Czech Folk Song).

The Scottish folk song "Farewell" held particular significance for Mr. Rogers being one of the numbers sung by a group of American Students in France last summer which he was privileged to hear. Several of the numbers were sung unaccompanied, the accompaniment for the others being Mrs. K. S. Rogers. Mr. Earle Jelly, President of the Teachers' Federation, presided.

Charlottetown Ministerial Association

The April meeting of the Charlottetown Ministerial Association was held on Tuesday afternoon in Room C of the Y.M.C.A. with the President, the Rev. E. C. Evans, in the chair and the Secretary, Mr. Fred B. Gamble, at the desk. After the reading of the minutes the treasurer, the Rev. T. H. B. Somers, presented the report and the Good Friday offerings which showed a marked increase over the average for the past six years. On his motion gifts were voted to the P. E. I. Hospital and the Protestant Orphanage. Others members presented the report on the Rev. M. D. Dunbar, Rev. Henry Barber, Rev. Harvey Bishop, Rev. A. H. Sproule, Rev. Canon Ibbott and Rev. Canon Moffatt. The Rev. M. D. Dunbar presented the report on radio broadcasting on behalf of Rev. J. D. Davison who was prevented from attending on account of illness. Rev. M. D. Dunbar also listed the appointments for services at the Sanatorium, Beach Grove Inn, County Jail, Orphanage, Falconwood and the Infirmary. Reference was made to the departure of the Rev. G. C. Webster and a standing vote of good wishes was taken on motion of Canon Ibbott seconded by Rev. T. H. B. Somers. The paper of the month was presented by the Secretary, Mr. F. B. Gamble, on the subject "The Development of the Social Sciences" and traced the way in which social responsibility had awakened over the last twenty-five years and pointed out the great debt all such welfare agencies owed to the spiritual impetus and direction supplied by the Church. On motion of Rev. Henry Barber, Mr. Gamble was warmly thanked for his paper. The meeting was closed with prayers by Canon Moffatt.
