RUSSIAN COURT TROUBLES.

According to recent advices from Berlin, the removal of the Grand Duke Vladimir from St. Petersburg to the Caucasus is regarded there as the result of a family squabble. The Grand Duke's wife, a Mecklenburg princess, never embraced the Greek faith, and she reproached the Princess Alix with energy for antagonizing her religion. The scene between the two jarred the whole imperial circle. There was a prospect of further unpleasantness if the Grand Duchess should continue in court, so the Czar arranged to keep her and her husband at a distance.

Polish hopes of General Gourko's recall to St. Petersburg seem doomed, as Bonovinski, chief of the Warsaw bureau, has been retired to make way for Gourko's son. The change is regarded as an indication that far from being shaken, Gourko is stronger than ever. The tenor of all recent news from St. Petersburg is that for the present the Czar will hold to his father's ministers.

A WELL MAN.

No more Robust Individual to be found in the Village.

RICHMOND, Nov. 26.—Dr. A. G. McCormick, whose letter respecting his cure from Bright's disease by the use of Dr. King's Kidney Pills has recently been published, is now attending his patients and is apparently as robust a man as can be found in the village. During the four months that he was confined to the house suffering from the last stages of Bright's disease, his death was several times reported, and no hopes were entertained of his ultimate recovery. His present robust appearance is therefore all the more surprising to his residents. It is a safe prophecy that every sufferer from kidney disease in this section will henceforth try the remedial qualities of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

One of the foremost women physicians of England, Dr. Anderson Brown, has established an industrial farm for imberiate women. The test of the practicality of outdoor life as a cure for frankenisms will be made under the auspices of the Women's Temperance Association.

The oil of the Norwegian Cod Liver is nature's grand restorative, and is only found in its entirety and purity in Miller's Emulsion, "the kind that cures" colds, coughs, bronchitis and all affections of the throat and lungs.

The Swedish parliament has shown its interest in religious influences for Swedish sailors by an appropriation of 10,000 crowns for church work among those who are gathered in foreign harbors.

I am not sure I ever told you what a safe and excellent, as well as palatable cure for Coughs, Colic, Consumption and all Wasting Diseases is made in Halifax, Nova Scotia. If not, let me now say that there is no other Remedy quite so good for these ailments as PETERSEN'S EMULSION. I need not enlarge—a word to the wise is sufficient—remember it is PETERSEN'S EMULSION—for sale in your town by all the first-class Druggists, in large eight ounce bottles for 50c.

The latest pretender to the "throne" of France is Mohammed-ben Bourbon. He claims descent from one of the Bourbon princes who went to Algiers at the time of Louis XIV. He is a cattle dealer at Bougie in Algeria.

Consumptives, cheer up! You are not going to die, if you will but take Miller's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, "the kind that cures" coughs, colds, bronchitis and the first stage of consumption. Every bottle warranted. No oily taste like others. In big bottles, 50c, and $1.00, at druggists.

The Earl of Mar has a weakness for composing church music and has a neat little church in the highlands where he tries it upon the country folk who form the congregation.

Sir Arthur Sullivan is called the high priest of the lighter school of music. For two years in youth he was a choir boy. His favorite hours for composing are between midnight and four o'clock in the morning, when London is asleep.

A Railway Manager says: "In reply to your question do my children object to taking Scott's Emulsion, I say no on the contrary, they are fond of it and it keeps them pictures of health."

Barax—My wife makes a little money go a long way these hard times.

Samjones—So does mine, unfortunately she's always subscribing for missions in Africa and Polynesia.

If you suffer with neuralgia, bathe the parts freely with hot water and then apply Dr. Manning's German remedy, which is an infallible cure for this complaint.

Is it raining, and do you wish it to clear up? There is one infallible way by which the humblest woman may bring this to pass. She has only to don a disreputable looking frock, a last year's hat, old shoes, torn gloves and a mackintosh and go forth onto a crowded street to cause the sun to burst forth in splendor.

Only a cold in the head, neglected, produces catarrh. Only twenty-five cents invested in Hawker's catarrh cure will effect a speedy cure. Try it.

Husband—I think it very probable that the divided skirt will be generally adopted now.

Wife—Why do you think so?

Husband—The paper says that a Parisian dressmaker has at last found a way to make it cost as much as the other kind.

A dull sick headache in the morning with a feeling of nausea will be promptly relieved by a dose of Hawker's liver pills.

Crummer—Carson always goes out between the acts at the theatre.

Gilliland—I think it would be better to express yourself differently. It is nearer the truth to say that he comes in between drinks.

Piles are speedily cured by Hawker's pile cure, a mild and always certain remedy.

"I hear that your meeting broke up in a row."

"It broke up," answered the statesman, "but not in a row." Some emissary of the opposition got up and announced that there would be a collection taken up, and the meeting stamped at once."

Castoria.
"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
Dr. G. C. OSOON,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. KINNELOP,
Cape May, N.J.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
Dr. H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
