Georgetown and Vicinity.

(Special Correspondence of the Moncton Times.)

GEORGETOWN.

where the writer had the privilege of spending a short time, is situated on the eastern part of the Island. It has a population of about 1,000, is comparatively level, and the streets are wide and kept in good condition. The people, who are chiefly of Scottish descent, are very courteous in their manners, and a stranger visiting the place will be favorably impressed with the hospitality of the inhabitants. It is one of the prettiest, if not the prettiest place on the Island, and persons in search of a quiet retreat, will find a charm about it which is almost irresistible.

The climate is "just lovely" during the summer. There are beautiful drives in every direction, and boating and bathing may be indulged in to your heart's content.
If a few of the enterprising citizens would build a large hotel, and devise means to attract the attention of tourists in that direction, Georgetown would soon become a favorite summer resort. Its NATURAL ADVANTAGES.

cannot be surpassed. There are many fine residences in the place, and a few large business houses. Messrs McDonald & Westaway and Hon. D. Gordon have each large brick buildings, both firms having built several large vessels in Georgetown.
Mr. Wm. Whitman is the genial postmaster of the place. He has held the position for many years, and is a general favorite of the people.

A large export trade is done here in the fall of the year, the principal articles exported being potatoes, turnips, oats and fish. McDonald & Westaway, Hon. D.
Gordon and A. A. McDonald & Bros. are the firms doing the LARGEST EXPORTING BUSINESS.

The latter firm also deal largely in the exportation of lobsters. Lobster fishing has been nearly a failure this season, the fishermen finding it hard to get the size required by law. The opinion is pretty generally expressed in Georgetown that the Government ought to pass a law forbidding lobster fishing for a year or two.

Mr. L. A
