IN MEMORIAM

RICHARD FOLEY
—There passed peacefully away at his home in Kildare Central, on February 21st, 1952, Richard Foley, in his 91st year. He was born in Kildare Central on January 2, 1862, son of the late Patrick E. Foley and his wife, Anne Doyle.
The late Mr. Foley was a man of upright and honest character and possessed of a friendly, jovial disposition, ever ready to enjoy a bit of wit or humor. Through thrift and industry he maintained together with his wife that ideal of home and family life which will linger in lasting tribute to his memory.
During his short illness, he was tenderly cared for by his devoted wife and other members of the family, and was visited by his pastor, Rev. W. E. Monaghan, from whose hands he received the last sacraments of the Holy Catholic Church.
His funeral, under the direction of D. A. Williams, Elmsdale, to Sacred Heart Church, Alberton, on Monday, February 25, was largely attended. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Monaghan, who also conducted the services at the grave.
The pallbearers were: Messrs Raymond Shea, Hubert Campbell, Everett Cahill, Albert Gillis, Melvin Rayner and Emmett O'Connor.
Besides his sorrowing wife, (nee Angelina Ready), he leaves to mourn one daughter, Loretta, Brookline, Mass; two sons, Raymond, Alberton, and Joseph, at home. Also four brothers, Rev. John P. Foley, Paribault, Minn.; Patrick, Seattle, Wash.; William, Edmonton, Alta; and James, Kildare Central. Also nine grandchildren.
The many Mass Cards and Messages of Sympathy received are silent tribute to the esteem and respect of the deceased.
May his soul rest in peace.

Card Of Thanks

Mrs. Richard Foley and family wish to thank all who sent Mass Cards, and Messages of Sympathy. Also the neighbours for their many acts of kindness shown during their recent bereavement.

Bedeque Carnival A Great Success

—A record crowd gathered at Bedeque Rink on Thursday night, March 18th, to witness one of the largest and possibly the most colorful carnival ever staged in that rink.

IN MEMORIAM

WESLEY CHAMPION
—Kensington and vicinity were shocked and saddened on February 4th, when it became known that one of the most respected citizens, Wesley Champion, was called to higher service.
Born at Darnley in 1885, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Champion, after a short residence in the United States, he came to Kensington in 1933 where he established a bar-barring business which he continued to carry on until a few days before his death. Mr. Champion was a true Christian gentleman, ever ready and willing to co-operate in any undertaking, the purpose of which tended for the betterment of the town and community.
He served faithfully on the Town Council for a period of 16 years and was a member of the United Church, where he will be greatly missed, and in which he served as Treasurer for 16 years. He was a member of Coldwell Orange Lodge, and of Mount Zion Masonic Lodge.
There are left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father, his wife, nee Minnie Thompson and three daughters and one son, Ethel, (Mrs. Morrison), of Picton, N. S.; Irene, (Mrs. Isaac) of Montreal; Edna, (Mrs. L. Monkley), of Summerside and Elmer of Halifax.
A short service was held at his late residence, where, at the request of the family, his pastor Rev. Mr. Murray, evoked the following prayer: "Suffer us all the day long O Lord, until the shadows lengthen and evening comes and the busy world is hushed, the fervor of life is over and our work done. Then in Thy mercy, grant us safe lodging and a holy rest and peace at the last, Amen."
The remains were then removed to the United Church, where the service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Murray, and the following hymns were sung: "The Lord is My Shepherd, I'll Not Want," "Sun of My Soul, Thou Saviour Dear," and "Abide With Me."
The many beautiful flowers bore testimony of the great esteem in which he was held.
The pall bearers were: Messrs. Dr. Lockhart, Wilfred Taylor, Harry Brown, William Johnson, Ben Condon and Pomp LeBlanche.
The Mayor and Town Council were honorary pall bearers.
The Masonic service at the Church was conducted by the brothers of Mount Zion Lodge. Then mourn ye not for the dead. Who die with their sins forgiven; Learn this from your Bible instead. The grave is the gateway to Heaven.

The Rev. Fr. Tienaman was the officiating clergyman while the organist played beautiful hymns. The young bride was beautifully attired in a long white nylon gown over matted tulle with a long white veil held on by tiny flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.
The bride and groom were attended by the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, also of Toronto. The bridesmaid was beautifully dressed in pink tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations.
Dinner for nine was served at the Concord Hotel. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gallant, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Griffin and Miss Marjorie Doyle. In the afternoon the bride and groom and their attendants motored to Niagara Falls, N. Y. returning on Sunday, February 24th.
For the present they will reside in Toronto, where they are both employed. Mr. Batts is a mechanic, and Mrs. Batts is an employee of Swift's Canadian Company. May they enjoy many years of peace and happiness together.
