Bride Elect Tendered Shower

On Monday evening, August 18th a large crowd gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon, to tender a miscellaneous shower to their grand-daughter, Iona Keating, prior to her marriage.

The living room was tastefully decorated for the occasion, in pink and white. Miss Lorraine Cousins escorted the bride-to-be to the seat of honour. The Misses Mary Kelly and Willena Cameron carried in the basket of heavily laden gifts, which were opened by Alice Toombs and Alberta Todd.

The accompanying cards of best wishes were read by Mrs. Erland Cousins and Edna Todd. The gifts were nicely arranged on the table by Aetha Graham and Thelma MacLure. After presenting of the envelopes, Mrs. Erland Cousins, on behalf of the officers and members of Rose Valley, V. P. U. read an address and presentation of a Bible was made to Iona by Audrey Cameron. The bride-to-be then thanked each and every one for their lovely gifts and all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." Miss Sue Champion was organist. The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse and dancing and a lovely lunch was served by the ladies.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a darling daughter and sister who passed away September 8th, 1951, Mrs. Pearl Lockhart, at the age of 21.

One year has passed, our hearts are sore
 As time goes on we miss her more,
 Little did we know when we awoke
 The sorrow that that day would bring.

The blow was hard the shock severe,
 To part with one we loved so dear.
 So quiet, so quiet was the call,
 Her sudden death surprised us all.

Though her smile has gone forever,
 And her hands we cannot touch,
 We shall never lose sweet memories
 Of the one we loved so much.

Sadly Missed, but Ever Remembered by Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Milligan and Sisters, Sisters-in-Law, Brothers, Brothers-in-Law.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mr. John Gill, Union Road, who passed away September 9th, 1949.

From our home and family circle,
 God has taken one we loved,
 He has gone from earth to heaven,
 To a better home above.

Time may heal the broken hearted
 Years may make the wound less
 But it cannot fill the longing,
 For the loved one gone before.

But we know what you are waiting,
 At the gateway bright and fair,
 And will greet us some glad morning,
 As we join you over there.

Fondly Remembered by His Wife,
 Family and Grandchildren.

Describes Work Of Youth Clubs

"To instruct oneself is to enrich the life" is the motto of the 4H Clubs of Canada along with representative clubs from 15 other countries of the world," said Mr. Stewart Wright, Senior Fieldman for the Department of Agriculture in speaking before the Rotary Club during their noon luncheon at the Charlottetown yesterday.

The pledge of the young people explains the motto, "Head — clearer thinking, Heart — greater loyalty; Hands — larger service; Health — better living. All 4 for Club, Community and Country."

Mr. Wright, who is national president of the 4H Club, in his address primarily dealt with the various rural youth organizations in this Province, which have their counterpart in other parts of Canada, and in the main also the United States.

From a modest start with an Ayrshire Boy's Breeding Club in 1921, the competitive showing on Rural Field Day last year brought 48 calves to the ring at one time, representing the activity and achievement of 14 Holstein clubs.

The natural ambition of each club is to have a member win the coveted distinction of a trip to the Royal Winter Fair at Toronto, which results in keen local competition for a full twelve months, with monthly meetings in winter and twice monthly in Summer. A good local adult supervisor is of inestimable help in sustaining interest when representatives from the department are unable to travel.

The monthly reports from club members, their attitude and interest constitute 60 percent of the marks granted, with 40 marks on the calf, "Thus," said Mr. Wright, "we place the emphasis on the boy or girl rather than the exhibit."

Rural Field Day of course marks the provincial highlight in the lives of these young contestants who must be between the ages of 16 and 21, for it is on the Exhibition grounds here where the elimination contests take place which bring to the top those who are in the running for the Big Show at Toronto. The Railways provide free transportation and the Canadian Council arranges hotel accommodation.

After "contest day" the victors are given a week sight-seeing through big industrial plants, ending up with a trip to Niagara Falls and a short stay at Ottawa if the House is in session. Rural Field Day is held at the Charlottetown Exhibition grounds on September 19th with present entries indicating an excellent show. In addition to Calf Club competitions, there will be exhibits and awards given for poultry, gardening, clothing and food, from the Youth Clubs who specialize in these items. The Exhibition will be preceded on the night of the 18th by a Folk Dance contest and a competition on Public Speaking.

Mr. Wright extended a hearty invitation to city folk to attend this Exhibition as a gesture of encouragement to the rural young people, giving his assurance that the experience will be well worth the effort to be there.

Rotarian George Fisher who was chairman for the day was supported by Rotarian Jim Gerry as co-chairman, when thanked Mr. Wright on behalf of the club for his admirable address.

Strange But True
 By F. E. MacArthur

When she died recently at the age of 101, Mrs. Gesche Kettvech, of Mionok, Ill., left 122 descendants.

One way to get clear of doing jury duty is to fall asleep during court. At least that's what Frank Pies did when he was called for jury duty in Milwaukee, Wis., and Judge Robert Tehan sent him home.

Stranger than fiction is this story coming out of Chicago: one pair of eyes for two brothers. Because he has been sightless since birth, George Ossentjuk, 18, depends on his brother, Albert, 19, for the "seeing" part of school work in the Park Junior College, Chicago, where the brothers are taking identical courses in preparation for the ministry.

Although she can say but one word "Mamma," that word uttered by 18-month-old Lynda Thompson of Toronto, saved the lives of 23 sleeping persons in the same tenement. The place was on fire.

While doing exercises in his bed in a hospital in Newton, Iowa, Carl Buckus Jr. twisted suddenly and snap went his leg!

Approves Change In Succession

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 8 (AP) — The cabinet has approved a change in the royal succession which would make it possible for Denmark to have its first queen in 540 years.

This was reported Thursday by the government newspaper Belling-skie Aftenavis, which said the cabinet had approved a proposal to pattern the Danish succession after that of the British. Under such a system the throne goes to the oldest princess, provided there is no prince.

King Frederik IX, the present ruler, has no sons. His Swedish-born queen, Ingrid, has borne him three daughters.

If the cabinet's decision is approved by parliament, the next queen of Denmark would be Princess Margrethe, now 12. That was the name of Denmark's last queen, who died in 1912 after a reign of more than 35 years.

The present heir apparent is Prince Knud, brother of King Frederik. If the present law is not changed and Knud succeeds his brother, the next heir to the throne would be his eldest son, Prince Ingolf, 12.

DARNLEY AND SEA VIEW
 W. M. S.

The regular meeting of Darnley and Sea View W. M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Fulton Simmons for the month of August.

The singing of hymn 187, "Break Thou the Bread of Life," opened the meeting, followed by Scripture found in Psalm 92, read in union, Mrs. Simmons, then led in prayer and hymn 497, "O Saffron to the Rock That is Higher Than I," was sung. The topic was "The Lord's Day." Several of the members had readings on the topic and the devotional period closed with a circle of sentence prayers.

The roll call was answered by five members repeating a commandment by memory.

Collection was taken and dedicated. The friendship secretary reported two sympathy cards sent, six calls to sick, and one treat and two letters to shut-ins.

The singing of hymn 259, "We Have Heard a Joyful Sound," and repeating the Mizpah Benediction closed the meeting. Luncheon was served by the hostess.

HUGE CATCH
