MR. AND MRS. CHARLES R.A. EASTER

Church Adorned With Streamers And Bells

Montague United Church was the recent scene of a quiet winter wedding when Audrey Margaret, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Semple, Victoria, B.C., became the bride of Charles Robert Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Easter, Hampshire, P.E.I. Rev. Russell Barnes performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Wedding March played by the church organist, Mrs. Lloyd Fraser who also accompanied Mrs. Arnold Wightman who sang, "I'll Walk Beside You," before the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register.

The bride wore a floor length gown with white lace over pink, decorative sequins, long pointed sleeves and a high neckline. Her veil of tulle illusion fell over a crescent of pearls and crystals. She carried a bouquet of red roses and her only bridesmaid was a pair of pearl earrings, a gift from the groom.

A friend of the bride, Miss Barbara Arsenault was the bridesmaid. She wore a pale blue street length dress with a matching head piece and white accessories with a bouquet of pink roses.

Joseph Matthews, Hampshire, a friend of the groom was best man.

Snowstorm Gives Mack Holiday From Classes

The worst snowstorm of the winter, last night and this morning gave us. With great drifts remain, though we suspect the tractor will meet with some difficulty in making its usual haulings along the fields. Snowfall, Winds, we had. But it remained quiet, and we suffered the storm. Indeed enjoyed it, reflecting that it would put more cover on the fields, and that perhaps in the long run, we should need the added moisture it would give.

"It is lonely here some times!" a visitor of last summer, a city-woman, about to leave us, questioned looking out over the quiet valley. "oh, it's nice now, it's peaceful - no bustle, no noise. And one can come and go at will. But I would imagine that in winter, in a stormy time, in its isolation, it would be somewhat lonely."

"No," we said, "we are never lonely. Sad, yes, at times, over some tragic happening or because we have no one to talk to, cause we are not often alone. There is the family about us, see." So she struggled along the same path presently, carrying his barn, his tiny animals and
