AT County Line Station, on Tuesday afternoon, a young man by the name of Terlizick, while in the act of coupling cars had the four fingers of his right hand terribly smashed between the bumpers of the cars. MR. P. CONNOLLY, livery stable keeper, has received from St. John a number of single wagons, which were manufactured in that city by Messrs. Price and Shaw. The wagons are very handsome and stylish, and reflect much credit on the builders. We have seen wagons of superior style manufactured in this city; but we suppose, as Mr. C. is a strong Grit, he wishes to practice the old Grit motto, "Down with home manufactures; let us buy from foreigners."

AN UNLUCKY VESSEL.—The British war ship Iron Duke, flagship on the China station, which was recently ashore at Shanghai, is an unfortunate vessel. On the 1st of September, 1875, she rammed the Vanguard and sank her in a fog off Wicklow Head. No lives were lost. Shortly after, while leaving the repairing dock, she ran into the Black Prince, when both vessels were badly damaged. The Iron Duke was at one time commanded by the Duke of Edinburgh.

IN the window of Mr. C. Lewis are exhibited a number of fine large photographs, which have been recently taken. Among the most noticeable is our Reverend friend of the Presbyterian, which is an excellent piece of art. The photograph of the steamer Princess of Wales—considering the difficulties with which the artist had to contend in taking it—is very fine, as is the "Rankin House," and many other local buildings. Give Mr. L. a call.

AT the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, James McDonald and James Hennessy were each fined $1 and costs or 4 days, for being drunk and incapable. George Larter, Hiram Hobbs, George Brown, Joseph Mahar, Michael Power, John Bevan, William Hooper, John Sheehan, George Ryan, Thomas Costello and Charles Tynan appeared on summons for non-payment of dog-tax. They were each condemned to pay their tax and cost of summons. We learn that there are twenty summonses to be issued against parties who have not yet paid their dog-tax.

Divers at Work in Orwell Harbor.

To the Editor of the Examiner.
Sir,—Captain Larder, of Halifax, the celebrated diver, with a crew of twelve men, are now at work in Orwell Harbor, taking up portions of the wreck of the ship "King David," which sank some fifty years ago. To-day a number of copper bolts, sheathing, etc., was sent up from the bottom by the man below, who, when he appeared himself above water, was an odd sight.

Yours, etc., ORWELL.
