NAKED BODY OF A MAN

Found at Hunter River.

Was it a Murder? Or Was the Man Mad?

Coroner's Inquest Adjourned.

[SPECIAL BY TELEPHONE.]

Mr. George McMillan, who resides about a half mile this side of Hunter River, was on his way to one of his barns this morning, he looked into the cellar of an unused and delapidated house on his premises and saw the dead body of a man lying stark and naked on its back with the arms folded.

The man had been apparently about fifty years of age, and beyond the meridian of life. A heavy whisker and moustache, partly grey, covered a large part of the face. Judging by the appearance of the body, the man weighed about two hundred pounds, and was stout and muscular.

On the bank of the cellar near by were the man's clothes: pair of tweed, and coat of fine black cloth, with low brogans, of No. 9 or 10.

Mr. McMillan at once gave information of his discovery, and the body was removed to the hall at Hunter River, where Dr. McKay, assisted by Dr. Honeywell, examined the body. A Coroner's Jury was then empanelled as follows:

Even McLeod, (Foreman), William Proctor, James Vanlderstine, William Craig, Francis Dark, John McKenna, John Trainor, Ephraim Craig.

ROBERT WATSON, one of the witnesses, said that he saw a man whom he thinks was the deceased in the neighborhood of McDonald's, Seven Mile House, on the morning of the 8th inst. The man was crawling about on his knees, being apparently unable to walk.

The witness called Mr. McDonald's attention to the man, and McDonald took him into the house and gave him some nourishment. The man said he was suffering from weak spells and had been an inmate of the poorhouse.

MR. BROWN said he had met a man whom he supposed was the deceased (about half a mile from where the body was found) on the night of the 8th. The man was on his knees by the roadside. Brown stopped his horse and asked the man what was the matter with him. He said he was going to Morell. Mr. Brown was going in the opposite direction and told the man so, and passed on.

BENJ. GAMESTER said that he met a man who looked very much like the deceased a little earlier in the evening of the day on which the previous witness met him, about three-quarters of a mile east of where Brown met him. They bade each other good night as they passed.

After the body was viewed by the Jury, the inquest was adjourned until to-morrow evening, in order to admit of a post mortem examination and the collection of evidence bearing upon the sad case.

The body has not been recognized by any one who has yet seen it. who was present at the inquest states that he believes the man was seen about a fortnight ago not far from the place where the body was found.

LATER.

Advices from Morell state that a man left there five weeks ago, for the Poor House; and that he belonged to Souris.

Advices from the Poor House state that a man named Fogarty went away from that institution about a week ago, leaving his clothing behind him.

ALL remnants must go. You may as well have a bargain as anyone, then go to J. B. Macdonald's. dec 24 d w

SCOTT ACT.—Another Scott Act offender went down yesterday for three months—one first and one third offence.

CAUGHT BY THE POLICE.—Several liquor dealers were served with summonses at the polls yesterday after returning their votes.

Supreme Court.

The Queen on the prosecution of James H. Cumiskey vs. John O'Brien. This was an indictment for arson, and commenced Tuesday afternoon. The prosecutor is a merchant at Fort Augustus. On the night of the 11th May last his shop and some buildings were destroyed by fire. The premises were insured. The fire originated in the oil room of the warehouse, and was said to have been the act of an incendiary, and Cumiskey laid an information before Wm. Heard, J. P., and had O'Brien committed for trial last June. The Grand Jury at the last June Term found a Bill of Indictment, but the Crown officers and Cumiskey were not prepared for trial at that time, and the trial was postponed until the present term. In the meantime the Court discharged the prisoner on his own recognizance. After hearing quite a number of witnesses on Tuesday and Wednesday, the Crown closed their case. The prisoner's counsel declined to call any evidence, being satisfied to allow the matter to go to the jury as it was presented by the Crown. He then addressed the jury on his own behalf. Judge Hensley—who presided—charged the jury very strongly in favor of the prisoner, who unanimously returned a verdict of "Not Guilty," and the prisoner was immediately discharged without a stain on his character. The Attorney-General and Mr. F. Peters for the Crown; Hodgson, Q. C., for the prisoner.

Hovatt vs. Lea.—An action of account is now being tried. Peters & Peters for plaintiff; Davies, Q. C., for defendant.

Winter Landings.

Str.—I think it is about time that somebody brought to the notice of our city (mis) managers, the very disagreeable state that the landings from the river are left in. We have had ice fit for horses to cross on for more than a week, but there is no landing made yet—the only one left is that on Prince St., and our city (mis)managers have allowed it to be spoiled, and make no effort to have it put in proper shape. Day after day we hear of horses getting in the ice there, and the city Councillors must hear it as well as others, but, strange to say, nothing is done. The merchants of Charlottetown pay many taxes on their stock, and the least the Council might do in return, is, make the approaches to the city in a passable condition. Year after year, the same thing occurs, and we have waited till patience has ceased to be a virtue. We hope you and other papers will take this matter up, and make it hot for some one, and see if we cannot get the improvement asked for.

Yours truly, R. B. MCKENNA.

CORRESPONDENCE, etc., crowded out.

LECTURE.—Rev. John Read will lecture in Y. M. C. A. Hall, on Wednesday evening next. Subject: "A Trip to Thunder Bay."

FROZEN TO DEATH.—John McCuskey was frozen to death while lying on the road, drunk, near St. John, on Saturday night last.

TOO THIN.—The travelling public are warned that the ice is unsafe at the North Point. Mr. McNeill brushed the track down West River that far, but found it too thin to go any further.

ASSAULT.—About half-past ten last night, two countrymen, whilst proceeding up Queen Street, were attacked by toughs, and rather roughly handled. Their cries of "Police" brought Sergeant Cameron and Officer Campbell quickly to their aid, when the toughs made off. One of the countrymen received a badly damaged eye, and the other escaped with the loss of a two-dollar hat.

COMPLIMENTARY ADDRESS.—On the eve of his departure from New Glasgow, Mr. A. D. McDonald was presented by the members of Clyde Council, R. T. of T. with a complimentary address, expressive of the respect and esteem in which he was held by them, and of their regret at his removal to another sphere of labor. Mr. McDonald made a suitable reply, thanking the members for their kind address, and wishing the Society God-speed on its noble mission.

PICTON AND P. E. I.—The steamer Stanley, Capt. Finlayson, is doing a good work so far between P. E. I. and Pictou. She leaves Georgetown at an early hour each day, so as to arrive in Pictou every morning at 8 o'clock. This early arrival enables the passengers who want to go east to take the morning train to Sydney from New Glasgow. Also the mail from the Island can be opened, read and examined by business men here, and a return mail made up same day by return boat. Eastern Nova Scotia and P. E. Island are now, therefore, enjoying advantages more fully than ever before. The Stanley is in every way a first-class boat, and Captain Finlayson is just the man to see that everything is done on her in a first-class way. Of course, thus far not much ice has been formed to obstruct her regularity of trips; but she is believed by those who know, to be equal to the occasion every time. With such benefits we can only wish that the Government will continue the Stanley in this route all the year around. That is certainly the best thing that can be done.—Pictou Standard.

Long-Standing

Blood Diseases are cured by the persevering use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

This medicine is an Alterative, and causes a radical change in the system. The process, in some cases, may not be quite so rapid as in others; but, with persistence, the result is certain. Read these testimonials:—

"For two years I suffered from a severe pain in my right side, and had other troubles caused by a torpid liver and dyspepsia. After giving several medicines a fair trial without a cure, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was greatly benefited by the first bottle, and after taking five bottles I was completely cured."—John W. Benson, 70 Lawrence st., Lowell, Mass.

Last May a large carbuncle broke out on my arm. The usual remedies had no effect and I was confined to my bed for eight weeks. A friend induced me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Less than three bottles healed the sore. In all my experience with medicine, I never saw more Wonderful Results.

Another marked effect of the use of this medicine was the strengthening of my sight."—Mrs. Carrie Adams, Holly Springs, Texas.

"I had a dry scaly humor for years, and suffered terribly; and, as my brother and sister were similarly afflicted, I presume the malady is hereditary. Last winter, Dr. Tyron, (of Ferdinand, Fla.) recommended me to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and continue it for a year. For five months I took it daily. I have not had a blemish upon my body for the last three months."—T. E. Wiley, 138 Chambers st., New York City.

"Last fall and winter I was troubled with a dull, heavy pain in my side. I did not notice it much at first, but it gradually grew worse until it became almost unbearable. During the latter part of this time, disorders of the stomach and liver increased my troubles. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after faithfully continuing the use of this medicine for some months, the pain disappeared, and I was completely cured."—Mrs. Augusta A. Furbush, Haverhill, Mass.
