

SPORTS FROM P.I.

The Greatest Ever

"It looks like the greatest we've ever had," says Dave Boswell, director physical education speaking about the open provincial amateur athletes meet of Canada track and field champions to be staged at Memorial Field this Saturday, August 31.

Dave is delighted at the terrific response received from athletes on the mainland. He was assured of every top Island participant but the number of entries received from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick is far greater than Dave had anticipated.

At present, always a great centre of track and field stars, will send 24 to this big meet. Middleton has 13 entries, Chester Salisbury 4, Moncton 3, Truro 6, Newcastle 2, Chatham 1, Lancaster 3, St. John's 4, Island athletes will come from Summerside, Kensington, Alberton, Victoria and Charlottetown.

Many Great Stars

The meet will have many great stars competing. From Prince Edward Island folks will see discus champion, Bob Simmons, pole vault champion, Alf Groom, track stars Andy Arsenault, high jumper, Joe Cheverie, Outstanding performer, Peter Best, Minto, N.B. (mile and three mile), Crystal Olive, Rotheby, N.B. (women's sprints), and Sandra Barr, member of Pan-American Games team.

It should be a great day for athletes and spectators. Surely by then the rains will have ceased, giving the athletes every opportunity to put on their best possible show. Appearances rarely can't be deceiving in this case and the meet can miss being one of the greatest ever staged in his province.

Don DeClair and Jack Kane are working with Dave on the meet. They are doing their utmost to see that no detail is overlooked. Each year the meets are run off in a most capable manner and you can be assured that next Saturday's will be no exception.

An Outstanding Revival

FOR a long time, track and field activity was fairly dead around these parts.

A few enthusiasts but it looked like a losing cause. However, the perseverance is finally paying off. Young athletes are beginning to show a great interest in the sport and the number of entries is turning out in much larger numbers.

This province is beginning once again to produce some outstanding stars. For example, in the 100 metre race, Andy Arsenault, Joe Cheverie and Mike Dagg are just a few of them. More promising athletes who are undoubtedly covered this Saturday are the outstanding already-prominent group will give a great account of themselves.

They are working hard and undoubtedly of this kind. They work hard in preparation for such events and their training should pay rich dividends once they get into real competition.

We heartily commend all connected with such a venture. It's a great sport and surely a great way to support. Make every effort to attend at least some of the doing this coming Saturday at Memorial Field. The action starts at 10 o'clock in the morning and continues until late in the afternoon.

Sandra Is Coming

FANS will like to see Sandra Barr, St. Stephen in action. Waterloo games last Saturday. Sandra took first in the high jump and discus, was second in the shot put and third in the broad jump and javelin. She is quite a performer, and the local promoters are to be congratulated in getting her to come here.

Another outstanding juvenile competing will be John McEneaney, Bridgetown, N.S. John is the champion for Canada as far as juveniles are concerned in the 1000 metre run.

When we wrote this column entries were still pouring in to Mr. Boswell's office. It is expected that about 250 athletes will be present at the meet. The entire success of these great annual track and field championships.

Make certain you attend.
