

Barbour - Ashley Wedding

In Casumpec United Church at 4 p.m. on Thursday, July 30, Joyce Evelyn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes Ashley of Casumpec, was united in marriage to Merrill McKay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Barbour of Montrose.

The church was decorated with a profusion of summer flowers and the guest pews were marked with pink and white bows and sweet-peas. Rev. Arthur R. Wallis, B.A., performed the ceremony and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Artemas Cameron. Miss Eleanor Ashley, sister of the bride, sang "O Perfect Love".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of flocced nylon with fitted bodice and net yoke forming a high neckline, fastened at the back with tiny covered buttons. The long sleeves tapered to a point at the wrist and the floor-length skirt flared gracefully over stiff hip pads. Her finger tip veil of rayon net was held in place by a coronet of pearls, and she wore pearl earrings and necklace. Her gloves were of white nylon and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Vance Bridges who was matron of honor for her sister, wore powder blue flocked sheer in off-the-shoulder style with net yoke, short sleeves and full skirt. Her bouquet was Talisman roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Roscoe Barbour. The ushers were Mr. Milton Ashley and Mr. John Barbour.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ashley chose a dress of powder blue criss-cross ribbon nylon and navy hat. Her corsage was pink of navy nylon with navy hat. Her corsage was Talisman roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for about 50 guests was held on the lawn at the home of the groom's parents. The bride's table was attractively decorated with snapdragon in silver baskets. CAPITOL THEATRE, SUMMERSIDE WEDNESDAY THE ADVENTURES OF A HERO IN INDIA —Into the tension of the Khyber Pass marches a young soldier disgraced in the eyes of the British Army and of his father—but not in the eyes of his friend nor in the heart of the girl he loves. His heroism in a crucial battle between the Midland Fusiliers and the rading Afghans saves the day for Captain Dion Lenbridge and for England.

Peter Lawford enacts the disgraced soldier, Richard Greene his friend, and Janice Rule the girl who never loses faith in Dion in "Rogue's March", M-G-M's excitement-packed adventure drama, now showing at the Capitol theatre, in Summerside.

Planned in the tradition of "Kim" with its story shifting from the colorful England of Victoria's day to the turbulence of fighting on the borders of India, "Rogue's March" packs a dramatic wallop in every reel as it unfolds its narrative of the young captain who is accused of treason, who at a stirring trial is unable to refute the treacherous evidence of a clerk in the Intelligence Department and who is drummed out of the service. Escaping his guards, Dion joins the Victorian Rifles as a Private and in India is ultimately once again brought face to face with his father who has disowned him and the girl who has never given up hope for him. And in the story's valiant climax, Dion is able to vindicate himself and to save the lives of the two people he loves most.

OVERTAXATION — The Facts

Huge surpluses in the past six years reveal the FACT that the present Government has TAKEN AWAY A MILLION A DAY more than was needed for all purposes including Defence and Social Security.

How much is the Government taking in Income Tax alone? The Fact: In 1952-53 Canadians were taxed on an average of $176 for every man, woman and child — or $704 for every family of four. This year the Government will take on an average of $195 from each person—or $780 from every family of four.

Is that all? oh, No. In Hidden Taxes WHICH EVERY-

ONE HAS TO PAY—no matter how small the income — the Government took in 1952-53 an average of approximately $105 per person. In 1953-54 they will take $115 per person.

Canadians pay THE HIGHEST SALES TAX IN THE WORLD. There is a 10% Sales Tax on practically everything YOU have to buy . . .

There's a tax on tea, coffee, household furniture, boots and shoes, and children's clothing.

Add up YOUR tax bill. In a five-day work week, YOU are handing over ONE day's pay each week to the Government for taxation—Direct and Hidden.
