Miss Doris MacWilliams, teacher at the Cape Traverse School, has introduced a new method of classroom study for her students with the use of Time, the weekly newsmagazine, as the basis for current affairs discussion, according to an announcement from the director of Time's Educational Bureau.

DIED AT WEYMOUTH, MASS.
-Numerous friends and acquaintances in P. E. Island will regret to hear of the passing of Mrs.
Ellen Blood in her 85th year. Mrs.
Blood was born at Irishtown and was brought up in Hope River—both her father, Martin Murphy and mother Margaret Ready Murphy, died when she and her brother Frank were mere children. Frank predeceased her about twenty years ago. She leaves a son, Miss Orlis H. French (Mary), and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her passing.
Her son, Frank Blood, predeceased her some years ago. Although she lived over sixty years abroad, her heart was ever and always with the Island and its people. She made annual visits every year for over fifty years. The funeral Mass was held on March 6th at St. Williams Church, Weymouth.
Her many friends will long cherish the memory of one who was always a friend indeed.—K.

Maroon Sisters Eliminate Elmsdale In Semi-finals

The O'Leary Maroon Sisters eliminated the Elmsdale Girls hockey team by taking the second game of the best of three West Prince semi-finals in a rousing game which lasted a total of eighty-four minutes, in the Alberton rink on Friday night. It was a close, crowd pleasing contest with neither team having much advantage over the other.

After regulation play the score was tied at 1-1 with Anna Ramsay scoring for Elmsdale at 9:35 in the first period and Helen Kennedy lying up the game for the Maroons at the three quarter mark in the second period on an assist from Freda Smallman. Neither team managed a score in the final period despite some desperate playing and the game went to ten minutes of overtime with still neither side eking out a tally. After 14 minutes of "sudden death" hockey Freda Smallman finally beat the Elmsdale goal tender with a terrific shot on a breakaway to win the game and the West Prince title for the O'Leary Maroon Sisters. Penalties went to Betty Rennie and Betty McKinnon.

Referees were Jimmy Bagloe and Robert Profit.

LINEUPS:—
Elmsdale—Goal, Thelma Wells; defence, Blanche Adams, Betty Rennie, Joan Currie, Lulu Wallace; forwards, Ruby Adams, June Fraser, Anna Ramsay, Roberta Wallace Olive Matthews.

O'Leary—Goal, Isobel Dennis; defence, Bessie Dennis, Florence Gallant; forwards, Helen Kennedy, Freda Smallman, Margaret Woodbridge, Lillie Yeo, Betty McKinnon, Marcia Pate.

Government plows working over the week-end to open the highways succeeded in clearing the road from Summerside west as far as O'Leary. From Elmsdale to Alberton the highway was reported open but still closed from Elmsdale to Bloomfield. The road to Tignish was still unopened last night.

Via Borden from Summerside the road was open as far as Thur-man's Corner only and from there plows were endeavoring to work through Albany to the Trans-Canada Highway to Borden.

The road from Summerside to Charlottetown was clear as the plow from Summerside reached Kensington and the one from Charlottetown was able to reach Kensington. Highway officials reported that all cuttings were completely filled up during the last storm.—S.

Honour Bank
Manager And Family

In the brief period during which Mr. J.A. Field was manager of the Kensington branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, he and Mrs.
Field and daughter, Betty Carol, became very popular and made many friends, who regret at their departure was expressed in many pleasing ways. Memories of happy social hours and lovely farewell gifts will long be treasured by the three members of the Field family, who left on Tuesday, March 11th for Florenceville, N.B.

Mr. and Mrs. Field and Betty Carol were guests of honor at dinner parties given in their honor by the following Kensington friends —Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Holman, Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Davison, Dr. and Mrs. R.W. Auld, Mr. and Mrs. P.J.
Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Mac-Leod, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davison, and Mr. and Mrs. George Brookings.

Mrs. Field was entertained at bridge by Mrs. Gordon Cooke and Mrs. J.R. Holman at the home of the latter when the guest prize was a P.E. Island scene.

Mrs. Fred Davison and Mrs. R.W.
Auld were joint hostesses at a bridge party in Mrs. Field's honor when the guest prize was a cup and sauce.

Mrs. Fields was the recipient of a combined cigarette case and lighter, accompanied by an address, the gift of brothers and companions of Mount Zion Lodge, No.
12, and Prince Edward Chapter No. 12. His farewell gift from the members of the staff of the Kensington branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia, was a wallet.

Mr. and Mrs. Field and Betty Carol were each presented with a prayer book accompanied by an address from the parishioners of St. Mark's Anglican Church. Betty Carol also received a copy of the New Testament from her fellow members of the Junior Auxiliary of St. Mark's Anglican Church, as well as a silver locket from her school teachers and pupils of Grade 2. Many individual gifts were also received from friends and playmates.

Mr. and Mrs. Field were generous with their time and talents in all things pertaining to the welfare of the community, and will be greatly missed in the various organizations as well as socially.—Bur.

Following the marriage a reception was held at Birch Hill Tourist Home, Summerside East, for immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Following the reception the bride changed into a dress of blue sheer, with navy coat, purse and shoes, white hat and gloves.

In the evening they motored to Cape Egmont, where a reception was held for the bride and groom at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
John P. Gallant. Previous to the wedding the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, New Annan. Mr. and Mrs. Gallant will reside in Summerside.

Former Miss MacInnis
Honoured At Shower

—On Thursday evening, Feb. 14, a large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams and tendered a miscellaneous shower in honour of Miss Eleanor Mac-Innis. The room was nicely decorated in a color scheme of turquoise and white. The bride, dressed in blue sheer, looked attractively as she was escorted to the seat of honour by Mrs. Lewis Moase. Mrs. Walter Moase played "Here Comes The Bride" on the accordion.

The heavily laden baskets were carried in by Misses Shirley and Eleanor Moase, and opened by Misses George MacInnis and Irma MacNeil. They were arranged on the table by Miss Pauline Moase and Mrs. Charles Waugh.
The accompanying verses and names were read by Miss Shirley Tuplin and Mrs. Keith Thompson.

When the gifts had been presented and arranged, Eleanor in a few well chosen words thanked all for the lovely gifts, also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams for opening their lovely home for a shower for her, and invited all to visit her in Summerside, after which "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow" was sung by all present.
A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess, assisted by ladies of the district.

Accordion music was then enjoyed, furnished by Mr. Walter Moase. Games of cards and bingo were also enjoyed.

Miss Grace Darby was a visitor to Summerside recently.

The Misses Doris and Retta Bryant were recent guests of their cousin, Miss Dorcen Bryant.

The many friends of Mr. John Moore, Victoria West, regret to hear of his illness.

Mrs. Arthur Moore and son Gary spent a few days recently in Summerside, guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Clarence Strongman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Wilson of St. John, N.B. attended the funeral of their sister, Mrs. S. McKinnon.

Mr. Ellsworth Campbell R. C. N.
and Mrs. Campbell, Halifax, N.S. spent a recent weekend at Mrs.
Campbell's former home in Springhill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Sharpe, West Devon, were visitors at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Campbell on Friday, March 7th.

Miss Jean MacDonald was a recent guest of Mrs. Sterling Moore, Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacArthur were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Gaudet, Richmond.

Friends in Springhill and vicinity regret to learn that a former resident, Mr. John W. Ellis, now of O'Leary, is quite ill.

Mr. Claude MacArthur, Springhill, who spent the past few months in New Brunswick, has returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dymont, Springhill, and young son Earl, were visitors to Summerside on Friday, March 7th.

Sincere sympathy is being extended to Mr. Edward Sharbell and family in the death of Mrs. Shar-bell which occurred on Friday, March 7th.

Mr. Allison Raynor received word recently of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. Robert Bryce of Saskatchewan. Mrs. Bryce is the former Miss Blanche Raynor of Enmore.

The death took place at her home in Tyne Valley on Sunday morning, March 9th of Mrs. Peter MacDonald, formerly Miss Bie of Elmsdale. Sympathy is being extended to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frost, Springhill, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Enman and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frost on Sunday, March 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Moore and children, Milton and Lillian, and Miss Jean Smith, Victoria, West, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Gerald MacArthur on Wednesday evening, March 5th.

The many friends of Mrs. Sank McKinnon of Misouche were shocked to hear of her sudden death which occurred at her home on March 1st. Sympathy is being extended to her only child, Mrs.
Maurice Gaudet, and to her brothers and sister.

The sympathy of the community is being extended to the husband and family of the late Mrs.
Peter MacDonald whose death occurred at her home on Sunday, March 9th. Her funeral was held in the Presbyterian Church on Tuesday afternoon March 11th, with Rev. L.A. Dignan officiating. —BH.

Mr. Dermot MacLean, Milo, the obliging snowplow operator, told this correspondent that Feb. 15th was the last time the snowplow at O'Leary was used last year. Some difference to this year with its terrific storms during February and March. Splendid service has been rendered the residents of O-Leary and district by Mr. Mac-Lean but if we have many more old fashioned winters like this one O'Leary will need a tractor snow-plow. —AZ

Misses Norma Corcoran and Noella Gallant spent Sunday, March 9th, in Duval, guests of Miss Audrey Gallant.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Barnett, Elmsdale, recently visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warburton Murray, Piusville.

The last section of the pavement was opened on March 9th, connecting O'Leary and Alberton. —BB

Inspector M.E. Callaghan, Alberton, visited the O'Leary School on Wednesday, March 12th.

Miss Norma Pate, O'Leary, is one of the stenographers attached to the Provincial Legislature in Charlottetown.

ROME, March 16—(AP)—The Senate Saturday approved Italy's participation in the Schuman Plan. The vote was 148 to 97.
The measure now goes to the Chamber of Deputies. The plan calls for pooling West European coal and steel production.

After being blocked for about a record period of thirteen days, the longest time for a number of years, the road between Elmsdale and O'Leary was cleared by the tractor snowplow. There are huge cuttings, especially on the hills.

O'Leary badly needs a radio repair shop. Since the departure of Douglas Hardy to join the R.C.A.F. and the departure of George Matheson to Alberton to work with the Maritime Electric Co., the village has been without a shop of this type.

Mrs. Norton has arrived in O-Leary to join her husband who is the newly appointed manager of the O'Leary branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia. Mr. and Mrs. Norton are receiving a cordial welcome to the village. They were formerly stationed in Saint John, N.B. for ten years and also in Boston, Mass. for ten years. Mr. Norton succeeds Mr. W.S. Wilson who has been transferred to Kensington, P.E.I.
