

Local and Other Items.

THE MIRAMICHI.—The steamer Miramichi has arrived at Summerside and will probably be here to-night.

THANKSGIVING.—President Cleveland has issued a proclamation appointing Thursday, November 29th, as Thanksgiving day.

COURT OF CHANCERY.—The case of Isabella Anderson against James Brown and Samuel Brown, was concluded this afternoon. Judgment reserved.

REPAIRS.—It is pleasing to note that workmen are engaged in repairing the streets at the eastern entrance to the town. The holes there were awful.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—A man named Hall, while under the influence of liquor, fell over the wharf at St. Andrew's, N. B., on Wednesday night last, and was drowned.

STILL COMING.—The St. John Sun says that Maritime Bank notes are still slowly coming in to the liquidators for the first dividend of 50 cents. About $20,000 worth of notes are still out.

PUTTING IT DELICATELY.—"I hope you appreciate the fact, sir, that in marrying my daughter you marry a large-hearted, generous girl." "I do, sir, (with emotion), and I hope she inherits those qualities from her father."

PARNELL DEFENCE FUND.—In Quebec about $500 has been subscribed to the Parnell Defence Fund up to the present; in Montreal over $1800 has been collected; and in Toronto and other cities smaller amounts have been raised for the same purpose.

MASONIC FUNERAL.—The Brethren of St. John and Victoria Lodges, A. F. & A. M., are respectfully requested to meet at the Lodge room, Water Street, at 2.30 o'clock to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, to attend the funeral of their late brother, Matthew Waddell.

PUGILISTIC.—The Larron-Ashton fight has been postponed on account of the latter not being well enough to train. The time has been set for December 15th. * * * Geo. Godfrey has returned to Boston. He says Pete Jackson can knock out any of the big ones.

SCARLET FEVER.—Scarlet fever of a malignant type is very prevalent in Shediac. The schools are almost deserted. Two children of Ferd Robidoux, editor of the Montreal Acadie, died within a few hours of each other, and were buried in the same grave.

DEATH IN THE RELIC.—Three days after the battle of Gettysburg, Harry Strickler, of Carlisle, Pa., picked up a shell and kept it as a relic. A few days ago he very foolishly undertook to extract the powder and bullets during which operation the shell exploded and mangled him terribly.

GROSS CARELESSNESS.—The steamer St. Lawrence came very near colliding with a schooner shortly after entering the harbor last night. The schooner showed but one light—a green one—and that was hung on the port instead of the starboard side. Such carelessness or ignorance on the part of captains can not be too strongly condemned.

GOSSIP MEETING.—Remember the Railway Gossip Meeting, open to the public every Sunday in McLeod's Hall, at 4 p. m. Strangers always welcome. Lesson for to-morrow: Romans 12:1. "I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service."

AQUATIC.—Henry E. Searle, the Australian sculler, who, a few days ago, defeated Peter Kemp, up to that time champion of the world, over the Paramatta river course, is scarcely 20 years of age and is not yet fully developed, either physically or as a scientific oarsman. Searle is spoken of as a man of great muscular power with ability to "stay out" a long and trying race.

BREACH OF PROMISE.—Edmundston, N. B. is excited over a breach of promise case. The papers had already been served with the defendant, but the young lady, whose affections have been crushed, only claims damages to the extent of $200. The worst feature in the affair is that the young man borrowed money from the lady to buy a ring to marry the other, lady.

POLICE STATISTICS.—The Transcript says that Marshal Thibodeau's book shows 20 arrests made by the Moncton police during the month of October, and $15.50 in fines and costs collected, as compared with 18 arrests and $19 collected in October of last year. There were 177 arrests during the first ten months of the present year, an increase of four over the corresponding period of last year.

IMPROVEMENTS.—The large building on Queen Street, belonging to the estate of the late Owen Connolly, is being fitted up anew. There will be two large stores on the ground floor, and the second and third stories will be fitted up for offices, etc. It is reported that Mr. John McEachen will occupy both scores, and that the Herald Publishing Company will have apartments on the second and third floors. Mr. Chas. McGregor is making the alterations.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

THE SACKVILLE DISMISSAL.

PUBLIC OPINION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.

The Herald has compiled the opinions of editors all over the country as to how they regard the dismissal of Lord Sackville, and sums them up as follows: Approving dismissal, 68; disapproving, 32; undecided, 11.

BERLIN, Nov. 1.

The National Zeitung says: "The frivolity with which international difficulties are provoked by political factions in America is especially evident in the Sackville affair. After the Republicans set a trap to catch a strikingly harmless English minister to discredit Mr. Cleveland as a candidate of the foreigner, Cleveland himself tries to cross this manoeuvre by exaggerated severity against Sackville. This conduct appears comical from the fact that Cleveland does not leave England in doubt as to his object in so acting. This kind of thing is scarcely calculated to raise the reputation of the American republic."

LONDON, Nov. 1.

The St. James' Gazette, referring to the action of the United States in the case of Lord Sackville says: "It would be most creditable to English good sense if Secretary Bayard's insolence is treated with contempt. The American eagle is screeching. Let him screech. We are not exactly prepared to send ironclads to Long Island because Bayard is outrageously offensive. Respectable Americans who stand neither with Cleveland nor Harrison, are nearly as much disgusted with the affair as Englishmen are."

It is stated that in Government circles it is considered that the Sackville incident is ended. Lord Sackville has not yet advised the government as to the date of his return. It is possible that some time may elapse before the new minister is sent to Washington. American circles here are anxious that Lord Dufferin be appointed to the post.

The Star (T. P. O'Connor's paper) says Secretary Bayard puts it pretty strong. The Irish voter is so pressing, and the desire to satisfy him so urgent, that President Cleveland cannot wait until Salisbury takes action. The incident furnishes fresh evidence of the paramount influence of the Irish vote in Anglo-American politics.

The Fall Mail Gazette expresses the hope that the ire of Democratic wire pullers is now assuaged. Cleveland could do no more without throwing Sackville into jail. What silly business it is all through! British consolation is that the folly of President Cleveland eclipses Lord Sackville's indiscretion. It is one thing to be tricked into making a slip in private, but it is quite a different thing to plunge headlong into an abyss of folly and ill-temper. We owe Cleveland thanks for showing that the silliest man in Washington was not born in England.

The Daily News says the suggestion to retaliate upon Phelps is theoretically illogical and practically foolish. In justifying Cleveland's course the News maintains that if he ignored the matter and happened to be unsuccessful in the coming election, Mr. Harrison would probably have seized the first chance to intimate that Lord Sackville's room was preferred to his company.

The Daily Chronicle says, with every desire that Cleveland and Secretary Bayard should enjoy the monopoly of their rudeness, it is impossible passively to submit to having our representatives treated like Chinese coolies or Irish pauper emigrants. There need be no heat displayed, but if England is to remain a self-respecting nation her ministers must not be slow to resent so deep an affront on her national dignity.

The Manitoba Muddle.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 1.

The railway situation is again very grave, and as matters now look, it is evident that there will be blood shed unless calmer counsels prevail. The militia were out last night and are still camped at the crossing, intending to remain there until all danger seems averted. The government is very angry about the C. P. R.'s action in having the troops called out, as they declare they had no intention of effecting a crossing. From preparations going on, however, there seems no doubt that a forcible crossing will soon be effected.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.

The Minister of Militia has received a despatch from Winnipeg that the infantry were called out on the requisition of three magistrates, and had been successful in preventing a breach of the peace.

Honoring the Dead.

OTTAWA, Nov. 1.

The memorial statue to Rogers and Os- goble, two of the Ottawa sharpshooters killed at Cut Knife, on May 2nd, 1885, in the fight between Otter's column and Poundmaker's braves, was unveiled to-day by the Governor-General, in the presence of a thousand spectators. Lord Stanley said the statue would be an enduring monument to those who came forward in the service of their country, men loyal to their Queen, true to their colorful and faithful even unto death. Sir A. P. Caron referred to the monument as indicative of the principle that the laws of the country must be respected and its government maintained. The proceedings were very successful.

Wrecked Among Savages.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 1.

The Norwegian steamship King Alf arrived yesterday from Jamaica, having on board Capt. Jacobsen and one sailor belonging to the Norwegian barque Inga, which was wrecked on the Island of Cayman, Sept. 17, while on a voyage from Montevideo to Ship Island. Capt. Jacobsen says that soon after the vessel struck on the island she was boarded by nearly 20 naked colored wreckers, who made a bold and daring attempt to take possession of the crew and rob the vessel. They made an attempt to gain entrance to the after cabin and were only prevented from doing so at the point of the pistol when the savages were driven from the vessel's deck.

crew landed in their life boats on the island of Cayman. They were the only civilized people there, and subsisted two weeks on coconuts and a little gin they had saved. At the expiration of this time Captain Jacobson got possession of a small sloop in which he and his crew made sail for Jamaica. They only had a small quantity of provisions and expected to reach Jamaica in two days, but instead of this were a week. The sufferings from exposure and want of sufficient food were beyond description. The rest of the crew will ship from Jamaica.

Sunk in Collision.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.

Captain Kennedy, of the British ship Creedmore, just arrived from Manila, reports September 9 the British ship Ardencaple was sighted with distress signal. She had on board remnants of the crew of the ship Carl Wemyss, which collided with the Ardencaple and sank. Sixteen persons were drowned, including the captain, his wife and three children. The Ardencaple is in a dangerous condition. Captain Kennedy took on board all except Captain Guthrie and the first officer, who decided to stay with the vessel. The wrecked crews were landed at Barbadoes.

Gladstone's Opinion.

LONDON, Nov. 1.

Lord Roseberry addressed a meeting at Dalkeith yesterday. He read a letter from Gladstone in which the latter said: "I conceive that this country has indicated a very general desire to retain the Irish members at Westminster. We recognize that desire and are prepared to give it effect."

Trouble Among Witnesses.

LONDON, Nov. 1.

In a tavern, opposite the Law Courts, this afternoon, Joseph Kavanagh drew a revolver and fired a shot at Blanche Cox. The shot did not take effect. Kavanagh and Cox are cited to appear as witnesses before the Parnell commission.

Joe Grasch, a young Hungarian, has been paying attention to a Polish girl named Pika Nantioke. The pair live at Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania. The girl's brothers opposed Grasp's suit and the lovers decided to elope. At one o'clock in the morning Grasp came to the house, and raising the ladder to the window of the room occupied by the young lady, was assisting her to descend when discovered by the brothers, one of whom held him while the other beat him with an axe, mangle him terribly. The elopement is indefinitely postponed.
