DISGRACEFUL AFFAIR.

Reception of London Imperial Volunteers.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The reception to the London Imperial Volunteers, last night, was marked by unbridled debauchery and defiance of all law, order and decency. Few of the returned heroes participated in last night's celebration. Fully two hundred people were killed or injured.

ANOTHER CONFERENCE.

The Czar Anxious About China.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The correspondent of the Express at St. Petersburg, says that it is reported that the Czar will propose another conference with a view to settling the Chinese question.

FATAL FIRE.

GRAND CONSERVATIVE RALLY.

Senator Ferguson at Georgetown: Largest Political Meeting in History of the Town.

The Liberal-Conservative meeting at Georgetown last night, under the auspices of the Georgetown Tupper Club was, without doubt, the largest and most enthusiastic meeting held for many years in this grand old stronghold of Liberal-Conservatives, and is a guarantee that Georgetown will roll up a handsome majority for Macdonald.

The hall was simply, yet tastefully, decorated with flags, and its seating capacity was taxed to the utmost limit.

Promptly at 8 o'clock Senator Ferguson, accompanied by the Hon. D. Gordon, A. J. McDonald and the officers of the club, entered the hall. This was the signal for enthusiastic applause. As the President was slightly indisposed, the 1st Vice President, E. H. McEachern, presided. In a few brief but well-chosen remarks he introduced the Hon. Senator Ferguson.

The Senator, on coming forward, received quite an ovation. After the applause had subsided he was presented with an address, the publication of which, as well as a resume of the Senator's powerful speech, we are compelled to defer until tomorrow.

HAIL TWO FEET DEEP.

Grass Destroyed and Many Animals Killed in Texas.

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 28.—News reached here yesterday of a terrible hailstorm, which passed over a large section of West Texas two days ago. The hailstones killed hundreds of wild antelope, jackrabbits, and other animals. The hailstones covered the ground to a depth of over two feet. The grass on over three hundred thousand acres of land was destroyed.

Death of a Prince.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Prince Christian Victor is dead, from fever, at Pretoria.

Renounces His Right.

BERLIN, Oct. 29.—The Berliner Tageblatt publishes a special despatch from Budapest which says that the Austrian heir presumptive, Archduke Francis Ferdinand, will shortly renounce the succession to the throne in favour of his brother, Otto, and the latter's eldest son, Archduke Charles.

Cleveland Worried.

PRINCETON, N. J., October 29.—In conversation yesterday ex-President Cleveland said:

"I am surprised that my opinion and intentions as relating to the pending canvass, should at this stage so suddenly be deemed important. I am daily and nightly sought out by newspaper representatives and plied with all sorts of questions, some of which seem quite senseless. If, in good nature, I say a few harmless words they are so padded before publication as to be unrecognizable or are made the pretext for utterly unauthorized presumptions.

"It seems to me that my situation ought to be sufficiently understood and appreciated by thoughtful friends to justify in their minds my determination to remain silent during this exceptional and distressing campaign."

Fielding's Chances.

HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 29.—Hon. W. S. Fielding is in mortal dread that he will be defeated in Queen's-Shelburne, and he has good reasons for his fears. The Shelburne end of the constituency has always been about evenly divided, with the advantage generally in favor of the Conservatives, and Queen's has only a small normal Grit majority. The electors are sour on the Minister of Finance for several reasons. He has been seen by them very rarely, and the public works that have been carried on have been bungled, not only from a public point of view, but they have done much damage to the Liberal party there. For every friend that Mr. Fielding has made by various expenditures on breakwaters and harbor improvements at different points along the coast of his riding, he has in every case made a score of enemies. If the interior of the riding does as well for the Conservatives as it did at the last election, the coast can be depended on to defeat Mr. Fielding. He knows this and has become decidedly nervous. He is in this city today, and tomorrow will hurry to his county, stopping en route only to take time to make a speech on behalf of the minister of militia, who also has a very hard fight on his hands King's County.

A TRAP

Driven Into This Morning Before Daylight.

Two residents of Rustico who were coming to town early this morning, before daylight, drove right into a trap which has been left in the road near Oyster Bed Bridge ever since the last storm, and had the shafts of their wagon broken and suffered other damage.

After their mishap they called at the residence of the overseer of the district who treated them kindly and explained in answer to their enquiries that he had informed the authorities of the condition of "the little bridge," but that they were "keeping the job back while some of their friends who were to make the repairs were digging their potatoes."

THE LIST GROWING.

More Prominent Liberals Who Are Going to Vote Conservative on November 7.

Further additions are made to the growing list of men, who, having been prominent in the Liberal party, have decided to withdraw their support during the present election for various reasons. It will be noticed that these gentlemen do not necessarily cease to be Liberals. They retain the old principles, but exercise their right to rebuke the leaders, who have endeavored to destroy the principles, and they protest almost unanimously against the baneful influence of the machine. Here are the names, except in one case where, for good reasons, the name is withheld:

Mr. J. R. Kerr, of Regina, president of the Liberal Association in 1894, and chairman of the public meeting which welcomed Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fisher to Regina on their visit to that city before the last election, is out for Mr. Davin and the Liberal Conservative party.

Mr. James Hoar, of Woodstock, writes to the Woodstock Times that he is at issue with the Government time, and will vote for the Conservatives. "I have not changed," he says, "on account of my personal grievance, but from conviction."

Mr. A. R. Vanblarcom, a staunch Liberal, writes the Pictou Gazette that the Liberal party has ceased to exist owing to Laurier's repudiation of the principles. It must be reformed by the repudiation of the infidelity of the leaders.

An old Liberal, who does not give his name, writes to the St. Thomas Times declaring that the West Elgin frauds and other evil transactions have convinced him that he must vote against the party. He concludes: "Nothing could be more unfortunate than for the Liberal party to allow itself to be run by the 'machine.' I cast my first vote for the late Hon. Arch. McKeller nearly forty years ago, and the older I get the stronger my faith grows in Liberal principles. But if the Liberal party is to be run by heelers and led by unclean men I have reached the cross roads, and in my old days I shall have to temporarily transfer my allegiance to clean candidates, although they may not be supporters of the principles I so much admire."

Mr. D. D. D'Arcy, of Ottawa, has resigned from the Liberal Association and joined the Liberal-Conservative Association. He is a merchant, and for twenty years has been one of the best Liberal workers.

Mr. J. G. Adams ran in Cornwall and Stormont at the last general election as the candidate of the Patrons of Industry. He is now out in support of the Liberal-Conservative candidate, Mr. Pringle. At a recent meeting he spoke and promised to take an active part in the campaign in Mr. Pringle's behalf. He said he was there to dispute the right of the present Government to a renewal of the confidence of the people, because they had stultified themselves by breaking every pledge they had made when seeking power.

Kenneth Mackenzie, for fifty years one of the most respected Liberals in Manitoba, denounces his own party, and says it is controlled by Sifton and other men who have no regard for Liberal principles or their word. Mr. Mackenzie served for many years as a Liberal member for the Local House, and is a wealthy farmer.

Ex-Ald. Joseph Rowan, of Ottawa has broken from the Liberal party and joined the Liberal-Conservative organization. He is disgusted at the broken pledges.

Mr. P. O'Reilly, of Ottawa, a strong Liberal worker, is helping Messrs. Birkett and Champagne. When asked as to why he had left the Liberal party, Mr. O'Reilly said he would give his reasons on a public platform on the first opportunity.

Col. Sam Holmes, of Chatham, thus addresses the Chatham Planet: "I am done with the Liberals, and I don't care who knows it. My father was a Reformer, and all his sons dutifully followed in his footsteps, but at last the scales have fallen from my eyes, and this time I am going to vote for Mayor T. A. Smith"—the Liberal-Conservative candidate in Kent.—Montreal Star.
