Our Sale NOW GOING ON!

BIG DISCOUNTS have been the order of the day. We cannot afford them as our goods are all marked plainly at what we consider the smallest paying profit, with discount for cash.

As an instance, an article is being sold in town at $1.00, with 20 per cent. reduction, making it 80 cents. Our regular price has been and is 75 cents for the same article.

If the price on any goods changes at the factories we reduce as soon as we hear of it, and give our customers the benefit.

The WATCHES we sell now for $7.50, $10.00 and upwards are far better value than formerly could be given at these figures.

Our SOLID GOLD WATCHES, suitable for presentation, are elegant, substantial and reliable. We try every one before offering it for sale, and see that it is ready to perform properly.

Our fine REGULATOR in connection with a transit instrument, for taking observations, are great helps in this matter.

We are continually adding to our stock new designs in RINGS, BROOCHES, etc. See the new and fashionable MARQUISE RINGS.

Our ROLLED PLATE CHAINS are guaranteed to wear from five to twenty years, according to price paid.

Some of the above, together with much of our fine SILVERWARE, are of Canadian manufacture.

If we can get a home-made article of equal value with the imported we always do so and SAVE THE DUTY, but prefer to pay the duty rather than supply our customers with an inferior article.

See our KNIVES, FORKS and SPOONS. See our SPECTACLES, which we take great care shall FIT and suit.

Some people wear their Glasses like he above.

The way we fit them.

If there is anything you wish for in our line, not in stock, we will endeavor to procure it. We solicit early orders.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Stallion Race and the Questions Involved.

SIR,—A correspondent of THE EXAMINER in a late issue, over the signature of "Breeder," takes exception to the action of the King's County Exhibition Association in suspending Dr. Strickland and his stallion Elmo for non-payment of entrance fee at the proposed race at Georgetown.

"Rule 18—Power of Postponement."—Sec. 1: In case of unfavorable weather or other unavoidable cause, members shall have power to postpone to the next fair day and good track (omitting Sunday) all purses or stakes, or any race to which they have contributed money, upon giving notice thereof; and they may exercise this power before or after the race has commenced. But no postponement shall be allowed beyond the last day of the week within which the member has limited its meeting, except as to an unfinished race; and in any class that has not started by four o'clock, p. m., of the last day of the time so limited the race shall be declared off and the entrance money refunded; provided that the limitation herein shall not apply to stake races. (See also Rule 19.)"

Under Rule 18 the entrance money is to be refunded if the race has been postponed from day to day; but it does not say that the entrance fee shall be refunded to a horse that has failed to appear on the track when the race is called. It would be manifestly unfair to any Association if horses, having entered and given no notice of their intention to withdraw, should be allowed to claim the refund of what they paid, when it was owing to their action that the race was "declared off."

J. UNSWORTH, Superintendent. Railway Office, Charlottetown, November 5, 1892.

Obituary.

An esteemed correspondent writes: A shadow has been cast over the little village of Victoria by the recent death of J. J. Coughlan, Esq., the genial and respected postmaster of the place. A few weeks ago he contracted a slight cold which changed to typhoid fever, and notwithstanding all that careful nursing and attentive medical skill could do to rescue him from its embrace, Mr. Coughlan succumbed to the dread disease on the evening of the 29th ult. Mr. Coughlan was one of the best known and most respected residents of Victoria, and his unexpected death has cast a gloom over the entire community.

Now, either Dr. Strickland drew his horse or he did not. He knows very well that if he withdrew on Monday before 7 o'clock, p. m., he could not start him afterwards in that race. Does he not know the rule that says: "After which notice the horse so drawn shall be ineligible to start in the race?" If he drew his horse, and notified the secretary to that effect, why was he going to Georgetown at 6 o'clock on Tuesday morning? Does he not know that Section 3 of Rule 3 says: "All entries shall be governed by the published conditions, and shall be bound for the entrance fee for any proposed deviation from such published conditions, and any nominator who is allowed privileges not in accordance with the published conditions of the race, or which are in conflict with these rules, shall be debarred from winning any portion of the purse; and upon sufficient proof of the fact, he shall refund the amount of any award he has received, and shall be debarred from the remaining horses entitled thereto. And the said nominator and the Secretary or other person who allowed such privileges shall be deemed to have been parties to a fraud, and be punished by fine, suspension or expulsion, according to the judgment of the Board of Review."

If the secretary had received a notice of withdrawal from Dr. Strickland and afterwards allowed his horse to start in the race, he would have been liable, along with the Doctor, to the penalties recited in the section just quoted. The fact is fully shown that the Doctor had no intention of drawing Elmo, because then he would be accused of showing the "white feather," and that would never do after all the chaffing and blowing indulged in; but he thought he would fool the secretary into a conditional retention of his chance to start. Now that he finds this scheme did not work, he maintains that he withdrew his horse.

In his letter in THE EXAMINER, Dr. Strickland pleads that he was induced to enter on account of a post card sent him by the secretary. Well, was that not part of that official's duty? The managers of the Association decided to have a stallion race and authorized the secretary to get entries if possible; and if the Doctor will quote the whole of the card sent him the public will see it was because Israel and Speculation had refused to enter that it was thought the race would not fill. And, furthermore, as it had been currently reported that Elmo was to make the season of 1893 in King's County, the fact of his entering for the race at Georgetown would tend to his advantage even if the race did not take place. The fact is that the people of King's County have had too many horses like Elmo thrust upon them; and if no other advantage has been derived from the proposed race it will cause those intending to breed next year to look carefully into the claims of a horse that with his owner has more than once failed to come to time when called on. Let the people beware that Elmo's progeny will not have the same fatal fate.
