A Dozen Good Rules For Members of a Family.

1. Shut every door after you and without slamming it.
2. Don't make a practice of shouting, jumping or running in the house.
3. Never call to a person upstairs or in the next room; if you wish to speak to them go quietly up where they are.
4. Always speak kindly and politely to everybody if you would have them do the same to you.
5. When told to do or not to do a thing by either parent, never ask why you should or should not do it.
6. Tell of your own faults and misdoings, not those of your brothers and sisters.
7. Carefully clean the mud and snow off your boots before entering the house.
8. Be prompt at every meal hour—and every other hour.
9. Never sit down at the table or in the sitting room with dirty hands or tumbled hair.
10. Never interrupt any conversation, but wait patiently your turn to speak.
11. Never reserve your good manners for company, but be equally polite at home and abroad.
12. Let your first, last and best confidante be your mother.

Odds and Ends.

Next to waiting for a verdict the most harrowing employment is keeping the baby quiet.

Mrs. Harrison (fondling a pet dog)—Such a dear little fellow as he is! I wish he could talk. The President—I don't. He might ask for an office.

Private letters received in Berlin from Zanzibar state that Stanley, according to native reports, is marching rapidly towards the east coast of Africa.

Young lawyer (getting a light)—I have just completed a case. Mr. Noonday—Aw, you don't say! Case of murder? Young Lawyer—No; case of lager.

Scientist (in restaurant)—Bring me a decoction of burnt peas, sweetened with glucose and lightened with chalk and water. Waiter (vociferously)—Coffy fer one!

The iron manufacturers of Pennsylvania think the present depression in their trade is only temporary. Works which in busy times employed 1,800 men and boys, have however, been closed.

Not in the Picture—Lady Thyra (reading catalogue)—Two dogs, after Landseer. Lady Myra—But where is Landseer? I don't see him. Lady Thyra—Why, surely, you don't suppose he would stay there with those two ferocious-looking brutes after him. I know I shouldn't if I were in his place.

A number of leading American breeders—a number of whom have not as yet crossthe "big briny,"—are contemplating a tour of Great Britain this spring, to conclude with a visit to the semi-centennial celebration to be held by the Royal Agricultural Society in Windsor Great Park early in July.

There is an Indian legend that about 180 years ago all the forests in western Nova Scotia were razed by a great hurricane. Whether true or not, lumbermen cannot find any trees now standing of over that age. Last week an immense oak was felled on the property of M. Davis, of Shelburne County, which was 34 feet diam. at the stump, and 22 inches diam. about 34 feet height. Rings showed 160 years growth.

The yield of gold in Victoria, Australia, for 1888, is ascertained from returns furnished by the Mint Customs Department, and Banks, was 636,200 ozs., or 24,783 ozs. more than in 1887. The yield is considered very satisfactory, especially in view of the opinion which obtained to a large extent during the few previous years that the gold-mining returns were falling off all round. From 1881 to 1887 the yield had been gradually decreasing till last year, when it showed an improvement.

A learned man of Quebec has done a dreadful thing. He has devoted his leisure hours to the preparation of a sort of punster's vade mecum. Our French press will now for months—nay, "it may be for years; it may be forever"—be given to the calembour and the rebus et hoc genus omne. The means of torture which this holiday-making mathematician has placed at the disposal of the tribe of paronomasiac madmen are practically limitless. Under the letter "A" alone (for the arrangement is alphabetical) there is a supply of ear-torturing suggestions that make one stand aghast with dread. For instance under "Atroce," we have these diabolical hints: "hate rosse, Ross; ah te rosse," which we recommend to the Ontario Minister of Education. Atrocious, indeed! And this we consider perfectly scandalous in a book issued under (we say it with all respect) the very nose of the Cardinal! "Archidiocesam—archi-idiotces haims, seize, ains, seize, ain, hein! ses in. . ." And then who is to stand such personalties as these: "Avoir-avourent, have, O'Hare, Ware." Then comes this nightmare: "Asyrien enne—ah si rien, sire hyene, Yeune, Assyre, Aisue, Heyne, haine." And the book which places all this temptation before the unwary crack is called "Nouve au Dictionnaire Francais, systeme educationel, rimes, consonnances, homonymes, decomposition des mots," etc.

The treatment of many thousands of cases of those chronic weaknesses and distressing ailments peculiar to females, at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., has afforded a vast experience in nicely adapting and thoroughly testing remedies for the cure of woman's peculiar maladies.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the outgrowth, or result, of this great and valuable experience. Thousands of testimonials, received from patients and from physicians who have tested it in the more aggravated and obstinate cases which had baffled their skill, prove it to be the most wonderful remedy ever devised for the relief and cure of suffering women. It is not recommended as a "cure-all," but as a most perfect Specific for woman's peculiar ailments.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, exhaustion, prostration, hysteria, spasms and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womb. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a legitimate medicine, carefully compounded by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate organization. It is purely vegetable in its composition and perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system. For morning sickness, or nausea, from whatever cause arising, weak stomach, indigestion, dyspepsia and kindred symptoms, its use, in small doses, will prove very beneficial.

"Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of leucorrhea, excessive flowing, painful menstruation, unnatural suppressions, prolapsus, or falling of the womb, weak back, "female weakness," anteversion, retroversion, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration of the womb, inflammation, pain and tenderness in ovaria, accompanied with "internal heat."

As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at that critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The Change of Life."

"Favorite Prescription," when taken in connection with the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and small laxative doses of Dr. Pierce's Purgative Pellets (Little Liver Pills), cures Liver, Kidney and Bladder diseases. Their combined use also removes blood taints, and abolishes cancerous and scrofulous humors from the system.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrapper, and faithfully carried out for many years.

Large bottles (100 doses) $1.00, or six bottles for $5.00.
