To build a railway from Quebec westerly to Norway House, thence across the Rocky Mountains to the Pacific coast, with a branch from a point west of Lake Winnipeg to Hudson Bay, is the gigantic scheme of a company now seeking incorporation.

The Kurds are reported to have massacred 3,000 Armenians, including women and children, in Turkish Armenia and destroyed 25 villages. The Turkish officials deny the report.

Are You Ready?
There seems no reason to doubt that we will have a severe winter. Hundreds of warm Mantles have been sold in anticipation of it. Our own sales have been very large and extremely gratifying. We intend signifying this success by a wonderful offering in ULSTERS. Is any garment as great a protection and comfort on cold days as an Ulster?
Can any other style of garment take its place for shopping or marketing? Now is the time to buy. Here is a list of values never before offered in Charlottetown:— $8 Ulsters for $5.
$10 " " $6.
$12 " " $8.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

DAMAGING STATEMENT REPEATED.

Sir,—Permit me to correct a statement which appears in the last issue of McKillop's Commercial and Legal Record, which is calculated to do Mr. Geo. W.
Morrow, of St. John's, serious damage. It is therein stated, under the heading "Assignments," "Morrow Geo. W. to W. A. O.
Morrison, $1; in trust for benefit of creditors, Nov. 3."

No such an assignment is or ever was in existence. Mr. Morrow conveyed and assigned certain property to me, over three years ago, the conveyance of which was only registered 9th Nov. instant, and why it should be reported as an assignment in trust for creditors, is a matter which the proprietors of the Record will have ample opportunity of explaining to the Court in due time. Yours, etc., W. A. O. MORRISON.
Charlottown, Nov. 15th, 1894.

COUNCILLOR TAYLOR'S REPLY.

Sir,—In Tuesday's EXAMINER a "bully," too much of a coward to sign his name, makes statements concerning myself, part false, the remainder a slight truth exaggerated to the position of a first-class falshood. Unfortunately, Mayor Dawson cannot control the "boodlers," but he can the Council debates, and he is not the man to allow speeches in the Council to "bristle with profanity."

Your correspondent who signs himself "Law and Order," is the only one unprincipled enough to charge me with having any "antipathy to a Catholic," those whom I count amongst my best friends and always supported at the Council Board. I simply stated that it was a recognized custom to have three Catholics and three Protestants on the force, and it was not fair to destroy this arrangement; and since then I have met more amongst my Catholic friends displeased with the Council's breach of honor than amongst the Protestants who were deprived of their policemen. Yours truly,

T. Z. TAYLOR.

BURGLARY LAST NIGHT.

Barrett & Champion's office on Connolly's wharf, was entered by burglars last night, and all the cash in the safe, about $5 or $6, was stolen. There are three windows and two doors in the office. The putty was taken away from one of the panes in the south window, and the pane carefully removed, thus making an opening large enough to enable one of their number to pass into the office. After getting inside the burglar took a hammer which he found on the desk and completely broke a large lock which kept the door fast. This door opens into the street and he walked into the office and proceeded to open the safe.
They went to the desk and found a large key (usually kept locked up) with which they opened the safe—an old-fashioned one with hidden key-hole—and took all the change therein. In the afternoon the bookkeeper made up the cash and placed the $5 or $6 in silver, with the books, in the safe for the night, the notes being taken home as is customary each night. Had this not been done the burglars would have returning from prayer-meeting on Wednesday night his horse took fright, upsetting the wagon, throwing Mr. Acorn violently to the ground and dislocating his shoulder.

The Matthews Pork Packing Company, are building a factory in Hull, Ontario, where their buildings will be erected at a cost of about $100,000. The firm expect to pack about four to five thousand hogs per week, and will take pretty nearly all the hogs raised in Eastern Ontario and Northern Quebec.

Our Furniture Store is no abiding place for merchandise—it comes and goes. Given a month's notice, you will find that you will find the same things the second time.

Dane Fashion is almost as fastidious about her chairs and tables as with her hats and gowns. Uncertain as she is, however, we're equal to her every whim and caprice.

What's that? Sixty cents doing as much buying as one dollar used to do, not so very long ago? Yes, and a conservative comparison at that.
Close selling has ever been the power that forced our Furniture Store to the front, but we never saw the time when prices and purses were on such friendly footing.

THANKSGIVING is not so far off but you should be thinking of Dining Room Furnishings.
