Canada is feeding

75,000 Russian Children

The money and food, which the people of Canada in their generosity have contributed to the Save The Children Fund, will be sufficient to feed Seventy Five Thousand Russian Children.

In addition to these, the British Save the Children Fund—with which the Canadian Fund is associated—has undertaken to care for 50,000 more, making a total of 300,000 children to be fed until the end of August, and perhaps throughout the winter.

You can understand the very urgent need of more money to continue the wonderful work that we have undertaken.

Will you not help?

Cheques and money orders may be forwarded through your bank or local committee, or sent direct to Sir George Burn, Treasurer, Save The Children Fund, Elgin Building, Ottawa.

All subscriptions are expended in Canada on Canadian Foodstuffs.

Report of Women's Institutes of P. E. I.

Harrington.—The regular monthly meeting of this Institute was held in Harrington School on April 24th. The meeting opened with the singing of the Island Hymn. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. A discussion was then held on "how to make money for the Institute." It was decided that a new floor was needed in the school and that the Club devote its efforts toward this work. A paper entitled, "Women of Today and Tomorrow" was read. The meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Kelly's Cross.—The women of this district met at the home of Miss Etta Trainor on May 3rd for the regular meeting of their club. Meeting opened with the singing of the Ode. This was followed by a discussion on "How we can improve our Institute and make it a benefit to all our members." Some work was then done on the auto-graph quilt. The next meeting will be held in the Hall.

New Zealand.—A women's Institute was organized in New Zealand on May 29th. After a short talk on Women's Institute work by Miss Carruthers, the following officers were appointed:—President, Mrs. Peter Conway; Vice Pres. Mrs. James R. Manning; Secy. Treas. Mrs. Patrick Curran; Directors, Mrs. Wm. Hanlan, Mrs. J. E. Mallard, Mrs. Frank Curran; Auditors, Mrs. I. Doucette, Mrs. Harry Whalen, Mrs. Peter Conway and Mrs. Whalen were appointed as delegates to the Convention in July. The fourth Wednesday of each month was appointed as a regular date of meeting, next meeting to be held in the school on June 28th. All interested in the improvement of school conditions are invited to attend.

Linkletter.—The women of this Institute met at the home of Mrs. A. R. McLure on the afternoon of May 4th. Fifteen members and two visitors were present. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in preparing a box for the Mount Herbert Orphanage. After the serving of lunch the club was entertained with instrumental music, by Earle and A. R. McLure on the violin and Miss McLure on the piano. Three new members were added to the club.

Lot 16.—Twelve members and sixteen visitors met at the home of Mrs. Roy E. McLean on May 16th for the regular meeting of Lot 16 Institute. It was decided to hire someone to clean the school this month. A committee of three was appointed from each district to attend to making arrangements for putting pumps in the schools. Six new members were added to the club. After the meeting was adjourned lunch was served and a social evening was spent in games and music.

Norbera Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Stewart on June 5th for the regular monthly meeting. Nine members and six visitors were present. Meeting opened with the singing of the Institute Ode. This was followed by the reading of the minutes of last meeting, also the roll call. Coat books have been placed in the school. Plans for the building of an ice cream social were discussed, but nothing definite decided. An Montague.—The regular meeting of this Institute was held at the Community Welfare League Rooms on June 6th. Thirty-two members and three visitors were present. The meeting opened with the singing of the Institute Ode. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. A very interesting programme of solos, readings and recitations was then given, after which home-made candy was served. It was decided to hold an institute picnic and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for the same. $20 was voted for prizes for the school. Six new members were added to the Institute at this meeting. The next meeting will be held out-of-doors if the weather is fine.

Springfield.—Twelve women of this Institute met at the school-house on May 31st. The meeting opened with the singing of the Ode. A sign-board has been placed on this school, Miss Bessie McKenzie gave a delightful description on school conditions in the West. It was decided to write and invite Miss MacMahon to Springfield, in order that the children of this school might be medically inspected. Four new members were added to the club. Roll-call for the next meeting will be answered by items of interest.

THEN SHE RECOGNIZED HIM

Courtney Ryley Cooper at a Dutch treat luncheon told of the days when he was press agent for Buffalo Bill. Cooper now writes short stories of circus life. One night Buffalo Bill came out to his ranch late and drove up quietly to his house. He knocked at the door "Who's there?" said Mrs. Buffalo Bill. "It's Bill," was the reply. "I know better," said the wife, "get away from that door or I'll fill you full of holes and I'm a sure shot." The old plainsman was thoughtful for a moment then tip-toed back to his buggy, drove a short distance, turned about and beat the horses into a wild run. He cut across the yard, tore up a tree or two, raked down a fence, upset a cistern and finally drove the horse upon the front porch. Then he knocked at the door. "Come in, Willie," said his wife. JUDGE CONSUMED EVIDENCE

A postal clerk was before Judge Landis one day for stealing a bag of peanuts. As Landis listened to the evidence he absent-mindedly munched peanuts. Presently the assistant district attorney in charge said: "And now, your honor, we come to the evidence. We have here" Judge Landis gave a start and looked at the bag. It was empty. "Good Lord," he ejaculated. "Did those peanuts belong to the government? Mr. Bark you'll have to dis-miss this case."

Charlottetown Milling Company's Baking Contest for Wives

THREE CASH PRIZES AND BAG OF GOLD BOND FLOUR FOR BEST BREAD

The Charlottetown Milling Company will hold a baking contest for the housewives of Charlottetown, and surrounding country, and are offering substantial cash prizes and a bag of flour for competition.

The contest will start right away, but all entries must be in not later than 10 a. m. on the morning of the 28th instant in the Market Building. The particulars of the Contest are as follows:— Any housewife, woman or girl in the County may compete.

All entries will be received at the Market Building on the morning of June 28th when judging will take place.

Each competitor will be required to bring one loaf of bread baked from Gold Bond Flour, and be asked to sign a certificate to that effect, stating also from whom the flour was purchased.

The competitor's name and number will be entered in a book by the Secretary, but the name will not appear on the bread to be judged.

The Judges will be two of the bakers of this city, and one housewife who is not competing, and has proved her judgment of bread by baking from the same flour.

Each competitor will be allowed to remove her exhibit after the Contest, except the prize winners.

The exhibits of the prize winners will be placed on display in one of the prominent store windows, with a card announcing the name and prize according to merit.

All exhibits not removed from the Market Building before noon on the 29th will be given to some charitable institution.

The prizes will be as follows:
First—$15.00
Second—$10.00
Third—$5.00
Fourth—24 pound bag of Gold Bond Flour.

Ladies wishing to get entry certificates at any time can do so by calling on Mr. Robson at the Strathcona Hotel.

NO ENTRANCE FEE WILL BE CHARGED

Ladies: Ask your grocer for Gold Bond Flour, and if he doesn't keep it call up the Charlottetown Milling Company, Phone 865.
