THE PIRATE.

By Sir Walter Scott.

CHAPTER XXI.

"Well, then, why do you not sail off without me?" said Cleveland—"There has been fair petition, and all have had their share—let all do as they like. I have lost my ship, and having been once a captain, I will not go to sea under command of Goffe or any other man. Besides, you know well enough that both Hawkins and he bear me ill-will for keeping them from sinking the Spanish brig, with the poor devils of negroes on board."

"Why what the foul fiend is the matter with thee?" said his companion. "Are you Clement Cleveland, our own old true-hearted Clem of the Cleugh, and do you talk of being afraid of Hawkins and Goffe, and a score of such fellows, when you have myself, and Barlowe, and Dick Fletcher at your back? When was it we deserted you, either in council or in fight, that you should be afraid of our flinching now? And as for serving under Goffe, I hope it is no new thing for gentleman of fortune who are going on the account, to change a Captain now and then? Let us alone for that,—Captain you shall be; for death rock me asleep if I serve under that fellow Goffe, who is as very a bloodhound as ever sucked bitch! No, no, I thank you—my Captain must have a little of the gentleman about him, howsover. Besides, you know, it was you who first dipped my hands in the dirty water, and turned me from a stroller by land, to a rover by sea."

"Alas, poor Bunce!" said Cleveland, "you owe me little thanks for that service."

"That is as you take it," replied Bunce; "for my part I see no harm in levying contributions on the public either one way or t'other. But I wish you would forget that name of Bunce, and call me Altamont, as I have often desired you to do. I hope a gentleman of the roving trade has as good a right to have an alias as a stroller, and I never stepped on the boards but what I was Altamont at the least."

"Well, then, Jack Altamont," replied Cleveland, "since Altamont is the word."

"Yes, but, Captain, Jack is not the word, though Altamont be so. Jack Altamont—why, 'tis a velvet coat with paper lace—Let it be Frederick, Captain; Frederick Altamont is all of a piece."

"Frederick be it, then, with all my heart," said Cleveland; "and pray tell me, which of your names will sound best at the head of the Last Speech, Confession, and Dying words of John Bunce, alias Frederick Altamont, who was this morning hanged at Execution-dock, for the crime of Piracy upon the High Seas?"

"Faith, I cannot answer that question, without another can of grog, Captain; so if you will go down with me to Bet Haldane's on the quay, I will bestow some thought on the matter, with the help of a right pipe of Trinidado. We will have the gallon bowl filled with the best stuff you ever tasted, and I know some smart wenches who will help us to drain it. But you shake your head—you're not i' the vein?—Well, then, I will stay with you; for by his hand, Clem, you shift me not off. Only I will ferret you out of this burrow of old stones, and carry you into sunshine and fairness.—Where shall we go?"

"Where you will," said Cleveland, "so that you keep out of the way of our own rascals, and all others.

"Why, then," replied Bunce, "you and I will go up to the Hill of Whitford, which overlooks the town, and walk together as gravely and honestly as a pair of well-employed attorneys."

As they proceeded to leave the ruinous castle, Bunce, turning back to look at it, thus addressed his companion:

"Hark ye, Captain, dost thou know who last inhabited this old cockloft?"

"An Earl of the Orkneys, they say," replied Cleveland.

"And are you advised what death he died of?" said Bunce; "for I heard that it was of a tight neck-collar—a hempen fever, or the like."

"The people here do say," replied Cleveland, "that his lordship, some hundred years ago, had the mishap to become acquainted with the nature of a loop and a leap in the air."

"Why, la ye there now!" said Bunce; "there was some credit in being hanged in those days, and in such worshipful company. And what might his lordship have done to deserve such promotion?"

"Plundered the liege subjects, they say," replied Cleveland; "slain and wounded them, fired upon His Majesty's flag, and so forth."

"Near akin to a gentleman rover, then," said Bunce, making a theatrical bow towards the old building; "and, therefore, my most potent, grave, and reverend Signior Earl, I crave leave to call you my loving cousin, and bid you most heartily adieu. I leave you in the good company of rats and mice, and so forth, and I carry with me an honest gentleman, who, having of late had no more heart than a mouse, is now desirous to run away from his profession and friends like a rat, and would therefore be a most fitting denizen of your Earlship's palace."

"I would advise you not to speak so loud, my good friend Frederick Altamont, or John Bunce," said Cleveland; "when you were on the stage, you might safely rant as loud as you listed; but, in your present profession, of which you are so found, every man speaks under correction of the yard-arm, and a running noose."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind. mar17 eod & wky

W. C. T. U.—There will be meetings held daily this week, from 4 to 5 o'clock, in the basement parlor of the Y. M. C. A., under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The several clergymen of the city have kindly consented to be present, so it is hoped that there may be a large attendance.

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met in Zion Church, Charlottetown, on 7th inst. There were present Rev. James Allan, J. M. McLeod, Arch. Brown, A. F. Carr, M. A., Wm. P. Archibald, B. Cogswell, Daniel Stewart and Wm. Ross, elders.

Rev. John Hutchison, M. A., being present, was invited to sit as a corresponding member of Presbytery.

Rev. Principal Grant, D. D., was unanimously nominated as Moderator of the next General Assembly. The following commissioners to the Assembly were appointed, viz.:—Wm. P. Archibald, B. D., A. B. McLeod, John McLeod, A. W. Mahon, A. F. Carr, M. A., James Carruthers and Malcolm Campbell, ministers, and Messrs. Robert Cairns, John McDonald, Thomas McNeill, John A. The following congregations reported that they had collected the amount allotted to them for the Augmentation Fund, viz.:—Montrose, Alberton, Bloomfield, Richmond Bay East, Summerside, Bedeque, Tryon, Bonshaw, Cavendish, West River, Woodville, partly, Valfield, and St. James' Church.

It was agreed to apply to the Augmentation committe to make the following grants, viz:—Montrose, Tignish and Elmsdale, $80; Richmond Bay West, $250; Richmond Bay East, $250; Orwell, $75. It was agreed to defer the application for West Cape and Covehead until the next meeting of Presbytery. Rev. Mr. Archibald reported that he had visited the congregation of Tryon and Bonshaw and found them, financially, in a prosperous condition; but as they are spending a considerable sum in church repairs, he recommended that the committe be asked to grant $280 to that congregation. The report was received and approved.

Rev. A. F. Carr, M. A., was authorized to moderate in a call in the congregation of West Cape at such time as they are prepared to proceed.

Rev. J. P. Gerrior tendered his resignation of the pastoral charge of the congregation of Summerside. The resignation was allowed to lie on the table, and Rev. J. M. McLeod appointed to exchange with Mr. Gerrior on Sabbath, 12th inst., notify the congregation of their pastor's resignation, and cite them to appear for their interests at a meeting of Presbytery, to be held in Strathalbyn on 28th inst., at 11 o'clock a.m.

It was agreed to hold a Presbyterial visitation of the Georgetown section of Rev. Mr. Spencer's congregation on 13th March, at 7 p. m., Rev. A. B. McLeod to preach; and also to meet in Cardigan on the following morning at 10 o'clock to consider matters connected with the welfare of that congregation.

The Assembly's remit anent the constitution of the General Assembly and travelling expenses was considered, when it was agreed to recommend that the number of Commissioners be reduced from one fourth to one sixth, instead of one eighth. The 2nd and 3rd clauses of the remit were approved.

With regard to the remit on the marriage affinity question it was agreed to approve of the recommendation that discipline shall not be exercissd in case of marriage with a deceased wife's sister or a deceased wife's niece, and also that Chapter xxiv., sec. 4, of the Confession of Faith—"The be amended by striking out the last sentence thereof, viz. man may not marry any of his wife's kindred nearer in blood than he may of his own, nor the woman of her husband's kindred nearer in blood than of her own."

The remit anent the Book of Forms was referred to Messrs. Archibald, McMillan and Brown, with instructions to report at the next meeting of Presbytery.

Rev. Messrs. Archibald, Carruthers and D. B. McLeod were appointed a committee to correspond with congregations in the interests of the Home Mission and College Funds.

The following supply of preaching was arranged for St. Peter's and Brackley Point Roads: Rev. Mr. Spencer, 3rd Sabbath in February; Rev. Alexander Roulston, 4th Sabbath in same month; Rev. Mr. Campbell, 1st Sabbath in March; Rev. Mr. Carruthers, 2nd; Rev. Mr. Gillies, 3rd; Rev. Allan McLean, 4th; and Rev. Archibald Brown on 5th Sabbath in same month; and the Rev. D. B. McLeod on 2nd Sabbath in April. For Bedeque, Rev. John Hutchison for the remainder of the present month. For New London and Kensington, Rev. William Scott on 19th and 26th inst. For Belfast, Rev. John McLeod, of Strathalbyn, on 19th inst.; Rev. M. Campbell, 26th inst., and Rev. James Carruthers on 1st Sabbath in March. For Richmond Bay West, Rev. A. Brown, on 19th inst., and Rev. Mr. Fisher on the 1st Sabbath of March. For West Cape, Rev. A. F. Carr, M. A., on 19th inst., and Rev. Mr. Coffin, on the 1st Sabbath in March.

Rev. Mr. Archibald was appointed Convener of the Committee on Temperance, and Rev. Mr. McMillan interim moderator of the session of New London and Kensington, instead of Mr. Archibald, resigned.

The Presbytery agreed to meet in Strathalbyn on 28th inst, at 11 a. m., for Presbyterial visitation and other business, Rev. D. B. McLeod, M. A., of Orwell, to preach, (in English.)
