SUMMERSIDE "Where Old Friends Meet"

Hicks-Hickey Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. J. A. McGowan, at Keir Memorial Presbyterian Church, Malpeque, on Monday, Sept. 4th when Evelyn Mildred Genevieve, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hickey, Darnley, became the bride of Kenneth Sydney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hicks, McKee's Mills, N.B.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Allan, entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Mary Craig, niece of the bride. She wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and ending in a full train, and a coronet of seed pearls with a circular finger-tip veil of nylon net. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink gladioli and bouvardi, and wore a single strand of Dettah pearls, the gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid was Miss Charlotte Hickey, sister of the bride who was dressed in a gown of light blue taffeta with matching head-dress and carrying a bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Little Lynn Farthing, niece of the groom, was flower-girl and looked winsome in a gown of yellow nylon tulle, with matching bonnet and carried a basket of red roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Calvin, Russell Hicks and James Hickey, Jr. acted as ushers. During the signing of the register Mr. Charles Woodside sang, "I'll Walk Beside You". Following the ceremony a reception was held at Birch Hill Tourist Home, with the mothers of the bride and groom receiving with the wedding party.

Mrs. Hickey wore a grey flowered, sheer dress with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Hicks wore a navy crepe dress, matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mr. Calvin Hicks proposed the toast to the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks left for a honeymoon trip to Eastern Canada, New York and Boston. For travelling the bride wore a copper tan gabardine suit, brown velvet hat, gabardine suit, brown velvet hat with brown accessories, and a corsage of yellow roses. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hicks, McKee's Mills; Mrs. Calvin Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hicks, Mr. Gordon Hicks, Mrs. H. Stanley, Miss Dorothy Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Moncton; and Mrs. Farthing, Montreal.

Greenmount and Vicinity

Miss Florence Dunbar of Alma was a recent visitor at the home of Miss Alida Rayner. Both girls attended English convent last year and plan to return for another term.

Mrs. Russell A'Hearn and infant daughter returned to their home from the Western Hospital several days ago.

Vernon Coulson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Coulson, Greenmount, has accepted a position in the display department at Holman's, Summerside.

Misses Joyce and Elizabeth Rayner, spent the week-end visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John O. Gordon, Alma.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison Owen and family of Charlottetown spent the holidays, visiting relatives in Greenmount. They were accompanied on the return trip by Mrs. Owen's mother, Mrs. A. H. Rayner.

Rev. and Mrs. George Staples of Bangor, Maine, returned to their home on Tuesday. They had been vacationing at the home of Mrs. Staples' brother John and Mrs. Macintosh, Kildare Capes. On Sunday evening Sept. 3 Mr. Staples was guest speaker at Greenmount Church of Christ.

Miss Grace Rayner is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Fred Gillis, Moncton, N.B. She was accompanied to Cape Tormentine, N.B., by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Rayner of Greenmount.

Congratulations to Mr. Joseph O'Rourke, Kildare Capes, for winning the special prize donated by Russell Rogers, Coleman, for the best exhibit of potatoes shown at the Alberton Exhibition.

Mr. and Mrs. John Macintosh, Kildare Capes, returned to their home early in the week after spending the week-end in St. Andrews, N.B. at the home of their daughter, Molly. Sincere sympathy of this community is extended to Mrs. Macintosh and her husband in their recent bereavement.

Mrs. Melvin Breakenridge and family of Summerside spent several days visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. William Weale, Greenmount. During this time their husbands were attending the Maritime Convention of the Church of Christ, held at Weymouth, N.S.

Rev. Donald Bailey of Toronto, Ont. recently made several calls in Greenmount renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Bailey was minister of the Greenmount Church seven years ago. His many friends were indeed glad to see him.

Schools have all re-opened for another year. Greenmount pupils are fortunate in having Mrs. Jos. Blanchard for the third term. Mrs. Marshall Rayner is teaching at Kildare Capes, and as yet no teacher has been available for the

Cousins - Bryanton Wedding

Wednesday, September 6 was an ideal day for the Alberton Exhibition, people from different parts of the Island were in attendance. The week previous had been very poor harvest weather, this delay kept many farmers at home, either threshing in the fields or storing the grain in barns, for this week has been perfect drying weather. All grain crops are reported good.

Cousins - Bryanton Wedding

On Wednesday, September 6th at four o'clock in the afternoon, at the United Church Manse, Malpeque, the marriage was solemnized of Mr. William Sinclair Cousins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cousins of Baltic, and Miss Marjorie Elaine Bryanton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Bryanton of Malpeque. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James Cross, pastor of the Princetown United Church.

The bride wore a powder blue gabardine suit with navy felt hat and accessories and carried a bouquet of gladioli. Her bridesmaid was her sister, Miss Verna Bryanton, who wore a pastel green gabardine suit with black felt hat and black accessories, and carried sweet peas. Mr. Arthur Cousins, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Hillcrest Lodge, Summerside. Supper was served to about twenty guests, immediate relatives and friends of the couple. The bride's mother and the groom's mother both wore black street length dresses and black hats.

The bride's table was centered with the bride's cake and the groom's cake, and was decorated with pink tapers.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Cross and responded to by the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Cousins will reside at Baltic where the groom is engaged in farming.
