For one offence he was fined $50 and $10.55 costs or two months' imprisonment, and for the other $50 and $2.70 costs or two months' in jail. He paid both fines. The cases against George Mutch and Francis Mackenna, were further adjourned for the want of witnesses.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The adjourned meeting of the Institute was held in the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday evening. A very interesting and instructive lesson in drawing was given by Principal McSwain, after which a discussion relating to the study of arithmetic by grades was talked up, and participated in by Messrs. Seaman, Miller, McSwain, Campbell, Duncan and Cullen. It was in general agreed that the present system of teaching arithmetic does not give the scholars that practical knowledge which he or she should have within a reasonable time, and therefore the aim of the Institute should be to make the study of arithmetic as beneficial as possible for the student.

TRAINS DELAYED.—The snowstorm of Saturday night and yesterday was very severe along the line of railway. The snow is piled high and hard in the cuttings and it is only with the greatest difficulty that the trains can get through. The train which left here for Summerside at 9 o'clock this morning was not at the Junction up to 2 o'clock this afternoon. The train which left Summerside for Charlottetown at 10.30 only got as far as Kensington by 1.30. The Georgetown train got to Cardigan about 1.30; and the Souris train which left on time was not at Bear River up to 2 o'clock. The Cape Traverse train got out as far as the tank—about one mile from that place—by 1 o'clock. The Tignish train had not got further than Harper's by 2 o'clock.

NEWSPAPERS OF THE UNITED STATES.—In addition to the 1,835 daily newspapers published in the United States on the 1st January, 1894, there were 31 papers published every other day, 235 published twice a week, 14,017 published every week, 85 every two weeks, 349 twice a month, 3,125 every month, 307 every two months. Altogether there were 20,006 papers in existence on that day in the United States, against about 150 in 1800. Of the daily newspapers, the first of which was printed in this country in the year 1782, not more than four are in existence to-day of those which saw the beginning of the present century, and of these the oldest is The North American, of Philadelphia. The total issue of the publications of the present day in this country is probably not far from 4,000,000,000 copies a year, and of this amount New York city probably furnishes nearly one-fifth.—Chautauquan.

NEWS NOTES.

Five horses and one cow were suffocated in Montreal on Monday night last as a result of a stable fire.

During January there were 69 fire alarms in Montreal as compared with 94 in 1894 and 98 in 1893.

There is to be another Canadian pilgrimage to Notre Dame de Lourdes, France, in July next from Montreal, and arrangements are now being made for the purpose.

The Siberian newspapers announce the discovery of rich and extensive gold fields along the upper beaches of the rivers Beya, Nena and Uibat, in the Province of Yenisvisk, East Siberia.

Abbey Smith, who, without doubt, was the oldest person in Connecticut, is dead at the home of Justice Johnston, of Bozcad, eight miles northwest of Norwich, aged 113. Her death was due to debility.

King Alexander, of Servia, has proposed marriage to Princess Sybille of Hesse. The Princess's parents promised their considerat on of the proposition two years hence, providing Alexander is then a king.

The funeral of Ward McCallister took place on Monday last from Grace Church, New York City. The church was crowded to the doors and hundreds stood outside in the snow. The service was very impressive.

Neil Heath, a teacher in the Victoria, B. C., high school has been suspended by the Superintendent of Education, for teaching in a manner offensive to the Roman Catholics and thereby violating a section of the school law providing for absolutely non-sectarian education in the public schools.

Oaxaca, Mexico, advices say that severe earthquake shocks have been felt in the district of Tuxtepec, in that state, almost daily for the past four weeks, and are becoming more frequent and severe. Almost every house in the town of Tuxtepec is in ruins, and the damage done will amount to many thousand dollars. There is smoke pouring from the crater of an extinct volcano near the town.

According to a late despatch from the city of Mexico a well-planned attempt at a wholesale delivery has been thwarted by Col. Sautaela, warden of Belem prison. Discovery was made of a monster tunnel close by which would have released three thousand prisoners, as it had been planned to pass under all the departments of the prison and could have been reached by digging a few feet beneath the floors of the various wards.

The Princess of Wales returned to London on Monday morning, having been absent in Russia and Denmark since a short time prior to the death of Alexander III. Her Royal Highness was met at the Charing Cross Station by the Prince of Wales, her daughters, the Princesses Victoria and Maude, the Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke and Duchess of Fife and a number of other relatives and friends. The Princess was heartily cheered by the large crowd of people who had assembled at the station.

The appointment, although only temporarily, during the investigation into the charges against Thomas J. Watters, of F. E. Kilvert to the position of Acting Commissioner of Customs at Ottawa, has given rise to the report that it is to be made permanent and that Alexander McKay, M. P., of Hamilton, is to get Mr. Kilvert's present position of Collector of Customs at the port of Hamilton. Mr. D. Creighton, of the Toronto Empire, has also been spoken of in connection with the Collectorship in Hamilton.

The New York Times' London cable says: I hear a report, apparently on perfect authority, that great new gold deposits have been found in New South Wales. There have been paying mines there for some years, but not much more than paying. Stories brought to me now are of veins which make everybody connected with them millionaries. The details are promised me in a few weeks' time. Nothing really definite has yet been heard from Coolgardie, in which a good deal of British money is already invested. But reports of actual workings are expected in a week or two.

A New York Herald special from San Francisco says: The rifles carried by the Hawaiian rebels from America and the bullet which killed Commissioner Carter were shipped from San Francisco. According the statement of the Englishman, Captain Davis, who landed the arms in Hawaii, they were loaded in a sailing vessel here and subsequently transferred to his craft. This statement, made under oath, was received by a resident by the last steamer, but kept secret until yesterday. The arms were landed on the Island by Captain William Davis, master of the ship Waimanallo, which curiously enough, was mortgaged by R. W. Castle, the Hawaiian Commissioner.

Concerning the fighting between Portuguese and Kaffirs at Laurenzo Marquez, a despatch to the London Times from Cape Town says that advices received there from the seat of war are to the effect that the rebellious Kaffirs entered the Portuguese camp at Maraqueen by the treacherous use of a flag of truce and the password which they had by some means obtained. Once in the camp, the Kaffirs fiercely attacked the sleeping Portuguese, who were unable to get at their big guns. Lieutenant Antonio rallied his men and kept fighting after his body had been pierced by an assegai. Independent reports have it that from fifty to seventy of the Portugues were killed and many wounded. British and German men-of-war are in readiness to protect these subjects of their respective countries, should such protection become necessary.

MORE ABOUT CLUBS.—The hotel keepers of Toronto are conducting an agitation for the abolition from the charters of all clubs, social or otherwise, of the clause permitting the sale of liquor. It is declared that the clubs are merely drinking resorts, and the evil of club life is dwelt upon. A memorial is being prepared, and will be submitted to the Government.

VIOLENCE ALWAYS FOLLOWS.—Experience has always shown that every great railway strike always leads to violence. There have been a large number of such strikes during the past ten years, but not one in which the strikers and their sympathizers did not speedily resort to force. It is, therefore, as well settled as anything can be, that a strike of 6,000 railway employees, like that which began in Brooklyn, on Monday of last week, will result in violence. The lesson should be taken to heart in every city of the country. A great strike means an appeal to violence and the forces of law and order should therefore take the field the moment a strike breaks out.—Evening Post.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Gallagher, of Moncton, will celebrate their silver wedding on the 25th inst.

Captain W. H. Barnard, of Summerside, has gone on a business trip to the West Indies.

Mr. Charles Full and daughter crossed in the Stanley on Saturday, en route to their home in North Dakota.

Mr. Van Ham, the eldest son of Mr. Geo. H. Ham, now editor of the Winnipeg Nor' Wester, but until recently connected with the C. P. R. Literary Bureau, died yesterday morning at the General Hospital after an operation for appendicitis. His father is on his way home to look after the body.—Montreal Witness.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell was one of the speakers at the press re-uniou in Toronto recently. He referred facetiously to the allusion made to his having been a printer's devil. He had, indeed, made rollers, and even before that had used 'the ball.' He had carried papers, and he could well remember how in 1835, when he got $5 for carrying his first New Year's address, how rich he felt. He was not ashamed of it. If he had been able to attain a measure of success, having started life as a printer's devil, he was proud of it. He looked back upon these years with affectionate regard.

The people of Linwood village, near Berlin, Ont., are excited over a crime that is believed to have been committed on Saturday afternoon. Two strangers, a man and woman, were seen going into the woods near there with a child. They lighted a fire, and when they departed no child was with them. What is supposed were human bones were found among the ashes afterwards. Acting on this circumstantial evidence, a constable is now looking for the two people.

If a Bedroom Suite

cost to make at the factory in Ontario $10.00, the makers' selling price would be $12.00; add to this the freight to Charlottetown and packing charges, at least $2.50; then add the retailer's profit, say one-third, and you have the selling price, $19.35.

Now this same Suite (only heavier and better) we can produce for (say) $12.00, and if we add a big profit (which we do not) of 50 per cent., we have a selling price of $18.00, from which we could give a good cash discount.

In the first case the Suite costs you more, and your money goes out of the country never to return. In the second case you get better goods for less money and the wealth of the country is increased, for both money and furniture remains in the community. Which do you prefer—to build up Ontario or P. E. Island?
