

Dodgers Defeat Milwaukee Yankees Stop Kansas City

By ORLO ROBERTSON
(Associated Press Staff Writer)
The majors' two leading pitchers in the earned-run category again turned in top performances Wednesday as the Brooklyn Dodgers defeated the Milwaukee Braves 3-2 in 10 innings, and the New York Yankees stopped the Kansas City Athletics 3-0.

The Dodgers, with Clem Labine shaling up his third victory in a relief role and lowering his earned-run average to 1.69, moved within 7 1/2 games of the Braves. The Yankees, with Tom Sturdivant turning in a five-hitter, jeopardized his ERA to 1.15, jeopardized the Chicago White Sox's hold on first place in the American League.

In the only other day game, the Boston Red Sox unleashed their heaviest barrage of the season for an 11-8 victory over the Detroit Tigers. The Pittsburgh at Chicago game was postponed because of cold weather.

HITS BURDETTE
Night games scheduled were Philadelphia at Cincinnati and New York at St. Louis in the National League, and Chicago at Washington and Cleveland at Baltimore in the American.

Labine, pitching the last three innings after Don Drysdale had been lifted for a pinch hitter, retired nine straight Braves and won the game when Don Zimmer hit relief pitcher Lew Burdette's first pitch for a homer in the 10th. It was Zimmer's fourth homer of the season and marked the fourth extra-inning game won by Brooklyn this year with a home run. Frank Torre's double off Drysdale in the sixth gave the Braves a two-run lead. Gil Hodges got one back in the seventh with a homer and the Dodgers squared accounts in the eighth when Garver, running for Rube Walker who had doubled scored when Charley Neal forced Pee Wee Reese at second.

FIELDING SLOPPY
A couple of walks and some inept fielding in the first inning spoiled a good pitching performance by Don Garver as the Yankees got all their runs in that inning to open their home stay in successful style.

The Yankees made only two of their five hits in their scoring inning. A throwing error by shortstop Jim Demaestri gave them two unearned runs. Demaestri's high toss put Joe Collins on first. Garver walked Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra to fill the bases. Bill Skowron drove in two runs with a hit through short that went for a double because of slow fielding. An intentional walk to Enos Slaughter filled the bases again and Bobby Richardson's infield single brought Berra home with the third run.

Boston belted five Detroit pitchers for 16 hits in a three-hour 10-minute slugfest. Veteran first baseman Mickey Vernon drove in four runs with a double and a single while Jackie Jensen batted in three with a pair of doubles and a single. The Tigers, who had defeated the Red Sox three straight times, blasted 14 hits off starter Dean Stone, Bob Chakales and George Susce but left 11 stranded. Susce picked up the victory, his second without loss. Frank Larry, combed for six runs and eight hits before being replaced in the fifth; was charged with his fourth loss. He has won two.

WASHINGTON (AP)— Jim Wilson pitched his second successive shutout and his third of the season Wednesday night, limiting Washington to four hits as the league-leading Chicago White Sox defeated the Senators, 4-0. Winless Chuck Stobbs was dealt 27 consecutive straight defeat.

Wilson, who notched his fourth win, reduced his earned-run average to 1.04. The Senators didn't advance a runner to second base in the first seven innings. They loaded the bases in the eighth and again in the ninth but Wilson extricated himself from both jams. Wilson walked six and didn't strike out a batter.

CINCINNATI (AP)— Brooks Lawrence allowed only five hits and fanned 11 Wednesday night as Cincinnati Redlegs moved back into a tie with Milwaukee for first place in the National League with a 7-2 victory over Philadelphia Phils. It was Lawrence's fourth victory of the season.

Milwaukee lost to Brooklyn in an afternoon game. It was Lawrence's fourth routing performance and he had few dangerous spots after surviving his usual shaky start.

MILWAUKEE BRVES MIGHT BE HELD
MILWAUKEE (AP)— Civil Judge Robert W. Landry ruled Wednesday Milwaukee Braves could be held liable for injuries a 71-year-old woman suffered when she was knocked down and injured by fans scrambling for a foul ball.

Lawyers for the woman and the Braves asked the judge if the ball club could be held liable. "The treatment which she suffered from the aggressive trophy seekers is not an inherent part of baseball but is purely a dispensable by-product which the proprietor has a duty to control," Judge Landry said.

Mrs. May Lee of Milwaukee was injured May 15, 1955, when the Braves were playing Philadelphia Phils. She has sued the Braves for $9,500.

The suit will go to trial May 28.

Patterson To Defend His Title Sometime In July
NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson's manager said Wednesday the world heavyweight boxing champion will defend his title for the first time for promoter Emil Lence, probably at a New York ball park "sometime in July."

Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, announced he has selected Lence as his "New York area" promoter at a luncheon and news conference during which he gave a running account of his feud, leading to an open break with the International Boxing Club. Lence, who promoted weekly television shows at the Eastern Parkway arena in Brooklyn for several seasons, was not present at Patterson's first defence. He will be present at Patterson's second defence, which is scheduled for July 15 at the Waldorf-Astoria. Patterson's first manager, Lence, who was reported training at Greenwood Lake, N.Y., in the absence of Lence, who gave Patterson his first main events shortly after he turned pro, D'Amato refused to list any possible opponents. "That's up to the promoter," he said. "You can start with the No. 1 contender and work right down the list. We'll fight any of them. If any of them aren't available, they will forfeit their fight."

LOOK FOR OPPONENTS
"Lence has the authority to look for opponents for Floyd Patterson's first defence. He will be the one to decide the terms. When that defence is over, we will go to other independent promoters."
The No. 1 contender in both the National Boxing Association and Ring Magazine ratings, is Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, who lost a split decision to Patterson last June before Floyd won the title. "No offer has been made to me," said Lopei Breidbart, Jackson's manager. "My lawyer and I had a talk with Lence about two weeks ago but nothing came of it. My lawyer will contact Lence in a day or two and we'll sit down again."
"My fellow (Jackson) is the drawing card. Whoever makes the match will have to put the money up with Julius Helfand (commission chairman). In my opinion, the match should do a $1,000,000, plus T.V. At that rate my fellow should get about $200,000."

"I'm not tied to anybody, IBC or anybody else. But we want to get paid."

Robinson - Basilio Bout Might Never Come Off

Robinson, instead, may defend against Ralph (Tiger) Jones or Charles Humes of France.

Robinson's manager, George Gainford, said Thursday that Basilio has withdrawn of grandeur concerning his share in a match with Robinson tentatively planned for September in New York.

Hayden Worked As Hard

The workmen that built the Trans-Canada Highway never worked harder than Jackie Hayden did Friday night at the Sports Arena where he tried to punch holes in Edgar Stover's chocolate colored tummy. It was a unanimous decision that Hayden won but it wasn't an easy one. Referee Harry Poulton only conceded him a one round advantage at the end of some very good boxing rounds.

Hayden had to make the fight because the New York boy fought such a well paced, well organized scrap that he made Hayden do most of the work. Stover fought back to the style which was him the National Amateur Featherweight Title in the United States, having in and counterpunching when his man came at him, he boxed an well that at times Hayden was puzzled how to cope with it. He did by the simple expedient of hanging away in Stover's stomach and shifting to the head when he could trap the shifty negro midget.

Stover's manager Mike Capriano also found time to praise Hayden as a great ring prospect, because of his power and style, "I'd like to show him in New York" he said.

The customers that Hayden would love him. Hayden is more interested in getting a return check on Canadian Lightweight Champion Kid Howard.

It was announced from ringside Friday night that promoter De-

Adenauer Offers Inspection Deal

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)— Chancellor Konrad Adenauer said Wednesday he is quite ready to agree to international inspection of West Germany's military equipment in the 7,500 Russian tanks in East Germany.

"Everybody knows already what we have got and we have nothing to hide," he told a press conference.

"We have no atom bombs, we have 94,000 men and a few hundred tanks."

"They are there for all to see. They can be inspected if there is international agreement that will also let us look at the 7,500 Russian tanks in East Germany."

The Chancellor said the American proposal for inspection in agreed areas could only be regarded as a first step toward disarmament which would not concern the German demand for reunification.

Adenauer repeated his offer to Moscow to demilitarize the East Zone if Germany were reunited.
