Annual Meeting Stella Maris CWL

The annual meeting of the Stella Maris Sub-division of the Catholic Women's League was held on May 5th. The reports of the committees showed a highly successful year both financially and spiritually.

The Treasurer's report showed receipts of $641.11 with disbursements of $471.33 leaving a balance on hand of $169.78.

Following is the report of the various committees.

Spiritual—Mrs. John L. Doiron, convener stated that renewal of the mission had been held in September. On June 13th, Rev. Ronald Blaquiere celebrated his first Solemn Mass in his home parish.

The highlight of the year was the Marian Year celebrations held on July 7th, which was very well attended. The closing of the Marian Year took place on the evening of December 8th.

Social Service—Mrs. Urban Doiron convener in her report stated that two rummage sales were held which realized the sum of $87.90. Eleven needy families were treated to Christmas boxes which included gifts to forty-nine children purchased with money received from donations, as well as ten pairs of mittens and one pair of socks knitted by the committee, the yarn being donated by the league. The sick in their homes and hospitals were visited.

Entertainment—Mrs. Ferdinand Blaquiere, convener reported having sponsored plays, concerts, and bingo which netted the sum of $319.39.

Magazine—Miss Martha Gauthier, convener reported having fine subscriptions to the league magazine.

Citizenship—Mrs. Revel Gauthier, convener reported having assisted with the Blood Donors Clinic held in the parish hall.

Membership—Mrs. Jeremiah Peters, convener reported there were sixty-seven paid up members.

The following is the list of the newly elected officers: President, Mrs. Charles E. MacNeill; Vice-President, Mrs. Murray Cassidy; Secretary, Mrs. Leo R. Doiron; Treasurer, Mrs. Joseph L. Gallant.

Conveners, Mrs. Revel Gauthier, Mrs. Alphonse Gallant, Mrs. Ferdinand Blaquiere, Mrs. Charles W. Gallant, Mrs. Stephen Peters, Mrs. Leo Gallant and Mrs. Urban Gallant.

A hearty vote of appreciation was extended to the retiring president, Mrs. Emile Gauthier, for her work and devotion to the league during the past year.

The Society's Spiritual Director, Rev. Father Robin, in his usual genial manner thanked the retiring officers for their support during the past year. It had been trying to everyone due to the rebuilding of school and hall, recently destroyed by fire. He said that the success of the society was measured by spiritual rather than financial endeavor. He felt the parish ranked very highly in spiritual devotion and gave mothers the credit for such spirit in the parish.

Following the installing of the newly elected officers the meeting adjourned by prayer.

Zion Mission Guild

The regular meeting of Zion Mission Guild was held on Monday evening, May 16th, at the home of Etas Ogilvie.

The meeting opened by singing the hymn "Jesus Shall Reign," followed by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Roll call was answered by 21 members. The collection was taken and dedicated by Verna MacDonall.

It was moved and seconded to give $100.00 to the Presbytery.

An invitation was received from the Presbyterian Guild in Montague to meet with them on June 6th. Arrangements were made for transportation to this meeting.

Plans were completed for our annual banquet which will be held on May 30th at the Y. M. C. A.

Following the business part of the meeting, some poetry, composed by one of the members, was read, and a Book of Praise was presented to Mrs. Goodwill MacDougall who is leaving for Quebec, the end of May, with her husband and family. Mr. MacDougall is going to study Theology and will be preaching outside of Montreal.

The devotions opened by Invocation by Ev. Goss. The scripture lesson was read by Mabel Cummings, and prayer was given by Ev. Goss.

A missionary dialogue was presented with a number of the members taking part. The devotions closed by singing the hymn, "Come let us sing of a wonderful Love," and repeating the Mizpah Benediction.

A social hour followed with lunch being served by Etta Currie and Miriam MacDonall.

Audience Enjoys Play At Cornwall Hall

"The Irish Millionaire," a comedy-drama in three acts, was presented last Thursday and Friday, May 12th and 13th at Cornwall Hall, sponsored by the Cornwall Women's Institute.

Both nights the hall was filled to capacity and nothing but high praise can be given each and every member of the cast who turned in most creditable performances portraying their roles with a naturalness and ease that brought enjoyment not only to the audience but also to those taking part in the play.

The story, filled with suspense and warm feeling, is built around Patrick Casey, a retired contractor, who becomes a millionaire but who, like everyone else, has his troubles. His Irish expressions and quick wit brought much laughter, and also his deep concern over his son who becomes involved in some shady business brought a tear.

Others in the drama provided genuine entertainment to all. Cast of characters: Patrick Casey, a retired contractor, Earl Carrier; Mary Anne, his wife, Dorothy MacDonald; Michael, his son, Harold Godfrey; Kathleen, his daughter, Margaret Lowther; Maggie, his daughter, Ethel Drake, Geo. Drake, a friend of the family, Mac MacLean; Eileen, the maid, Therese Donahue; "Humpty" Steele, the janitor, Robert Roberts; Jim Dougherty, of the U. S. Treasury Department, Joseph Donahue; Madam Anna, Balra; a Bolshevik, Beulah Lowther; Armand Francois, Boni Aime De Lovier, a modiste, Elmer Frizzell. Director: Katherine Donahue.

The furniture used on the stage was kindly donated by Simpsons-Sears Ltd.

This play will be repeated in some of the rural halls. Announcements will appear in local papers.
