By EDDIE ST. PIERRE
Canadian Press Correspondent
SPRINGHILL, N.S. (CP)—Yvon Durelle, who bids for the world light heavyweight boxing title Dec. 10, paid a surprise visit Wednesday to several miners recovering from effects of the Oct. 23 mine disaster.

"It's too bad you weren't fighting the night of the bump," joked Pete Cummings, in All Saints' Hospital. "We would all have been home watching you."

Eskie Coach Says Public Underrating Roughriders

By JIM PEACOCK
Canadian Press Staff Writer
EDMONTON (CP)—Sam Lyle says the football public is underrating Saskatchewan Roughriders in making Edmonton Eskimos favorites for the Western Interprovincial Football Union semi-final, opening Saturday afternoon in Regina.

"We've got seven rookies among our 12," Lyle made his observations in an interview while his assistants Ted Youngling and Eagle Keys went over films and play diagrams, plotting strategy for the playoff series—the first semi-final for Eskimos in six years.

"We're not going into the first game at full strength," said Lyle, listing end Steve Bendiak, safety Oscar Kruger, linebacker Mike Lashuk and quarterback - half-back, Jackie Parker among the ailing.

Hartack To Ride At Woodbine

TORONTO (CP)—Bill Hartack, North America's champion jockey the last three years, is due in Toronto on Philadelphia today. He will ride in six races at New Woodbine Friday.

"Those guys have got eight established stars among their 12 imports," says Coach Lyle, whose Eskimos have been made as high as 20-point favorites for the two-game total-point series.

"If we don't have those two boys—well I just don't want to make any comment," said coach George Terlep, adding that Hagler starting is "doubtful but there's a possibility."

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

THERE WAS STILL no hockey league this morning but at least the boys were talking and that's always a good sign.

SPONSORS OR PLAYERS were not forthcoming and Sunday those trying to get something moving could do little but throw up their hands and admit defeat.

Since Sunday there has been much talk but with the talk there has been action. Summerside didn't just admit defeat right away.

THAT JUMP, however, will not be made unless one more team from this area thinks along these lines. That shouldn't be too difficult to bring about.

ALL THAT REMAINS now is to get another team from this area to make the foursome. Hockey players we have chatted with, tell us that they think that can and will be done.

THE JAPANESE ALL-STARS are proving that they are no pushovers for the touring St. Louis Cardinals.

THE HOCKEY public anxiously awaits the verdict.

THE JAPANESE ALL-STARS are proving that they are no pushovers for the touring St. Louis Cardinals.

In the eighth game the All-Stars pounded out a convincing 9-2 triumph.

After all, Solly should be a pretty fair judge.

CASEY STENGEL has many critics, yet on the other hand he has many admirers.

One time he came to me and told me this was six months in advance mind you—that later on he was going to sell a catcher of mine to the Philadelphia A's and that he was going to get a player and some money for him and the player would improve after we got him.

And I liked him keeping Tony Kubek in the lineup when he was having a bad world series because he's a Milwaukee boy and Casey wouldn't embarrass him by taking him out of the lineup.

Embarrassing or not, Stengel soon got Norm Siebern out of there. After all, wasn't there a world championship at stake?

NOT THIS SWEATER

This wasn't the sweater that Ron Murphy used Tuesday night when Chicago Black Hawks downed the faltering New York Rangers 4-2.

ers but he now draws his salary from the Black Hawks management. Murphy didn't figure in any of his team's four goals Tuesday night. The best he could do against his former mates was a minor penalty. The Sloan-Lit-zenberger-Lindsay line took complete charge of the Chicago scoring.

Minor Leagues Wrestle With Realignment Plan

By JOE REICHLER
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Six high-classification minor leagues wrestled Wednesday with a radical realignment plan. If approved it would alter their entire structure.

There was no immediate indication as to what effect the loss of Atlanta would have on the Southern Association, which suffered through one of its worst campaigns in 1958.

Crux of the situation centres around the Texas League and the American Association, which the Texas League agrees to give up its three principal cities to the Triple-A American Association, a wholesale map - changing would be assured.

THE BOSSES GAVE IN

Gene Conley, the six-foot-eight pitcher of Milwaukee Braves signed a contract to play with the Boston Celtics' basketball team despite warning from the Braves' front office that Conley would if he did. Braves finally agreed to let him play. He was with the Celtics in the 1952-53 season. He is seen with Duke Walter Brown, left.

Pro Deal Falls Through; Elliott Still An Amateur

NEW YORK (AP)—Sports Illustrated said Wednesday Australia's record miler runner, Herb Elliott, decided to remain an amateur when American promoter Leo Leavitt failed to back up a $250,000 pro offer with money in the bank.

Nov. 10 issue, the Elliotts, from their home in Perth, telephoned Leavitt, who was in Tokyo.

Herb passed his father a note. "Tell him it will prove him a kum (OK)."

St. Mary's, N.D.G. To Meet Sat. In Semi-Finals

HALIFAX (CP)—St. Mary's University of Halifax, representing the Maritimes for the third straight year, clash with Notre Dame de Grace of Montreal in the sudden-death Eastern Canada junior football semi-final here Saturday.

to the limit, they edged out St. Francis Xavier University for the junior title on a for-and-against points basis. St. F.X. and SMU split their two meetings.

The article added that when Leavitt failed to turn up on schedule and his whereabouts, "Elliott decided Leo wasn't dinkum after all." The runner then called a press conference in Perth and announced that he was remaining an amateur.

It will be the third meeting of the two teams. Notre Dame crushed SMU in 1956 and 1957, but the Saints figure superior coaching and condition will make a difference this year.
