By Order,

J. SPENCER SMITH, Treasurer.

Treasurer's Office, Dec. 31, 1847

TO PRINTERS AND PUBLISHERS.

Prices Reduced.

THE Proprietors of the BOSTON TYPE AND STEREOTYPE FOUNDRY, having made arrangements for extending their business, and with a view to encourage CASH PURCHASERS, have reduced their prices to the following low rates, for founts of type of three hundred pounds and upwards, when purchased for cash only—

AGATE,	60 cents per pound.
NONPAREIL,	50 " "
MINION,	40 " "
BREVIER,	35 " "
BOURGEOIS,	32 " "
LONG PRIMER,	30 " "
SMALL PICA,	27 " "
PICA,	25 " "

The Credit Prices will remain the same as heretofore, unless varied by special agreement.

At the late Exhibition of the MECHANIC ASSOCIATION, a Silver Medal was awarded to this Foundry for the beauty and perfection of its types; and the printing community generally are well acquainted with the superiority of its productions. This has sometimes led to the impression that higher prices are charged here than at other Foundries, which renders it proper to acquaint the craft, that they may at all times buy at this Foundry at lower rates than materials of as good quality can be purchased elsewhere. A series of faces of the Scotch CUT LETTER has been added to the previous variety of styles, in order to meet the wishes of such as are inclined to give a preference to this kind of type; and additions will constantly be made to suit the taste or fancy of the patrons of the establishment.

Every article required in a Printing Office will be promptly supplied; among which will be found

of the manufacture of WELLS & WEBB, of New York, beyond question superior to anything of the kind made in the world;

PRINTING INK,

of the various qualities and colors, from the celebrated manufactory of M. P. PROUT, whose reputation as an Ink maker is unsurpassed;

TUFTS'S HAND PRESS,

the perfection of Printing Presses, without which no Office should be considered complete; together with Cases, Chases, Composing Sticks, Brass Rules, and as large a variety of Job and Ornamental Type, Borders, &c., as can be found in the country.

In addition to the business of the Type Foundry and Furnishing Department, the establishment is extensively engaged in and is always prepared to furnish Plates for works of any magnitude, in the best style of the art. Reference can be made to more than a thousand volumes, in the hands of the most eminent Publishers in the country.

Orders respectfully solicited by

JAMES M. SHUTE, Agent,

Minot's Building, Spring Lane, Boston, Mass.
