FLORENSING.—Four more candidates were initiated into Charlottetown Lodge last night. The representatives to the Grand Lodge, which meets here January 17th, were appointed. They are Mrs. Matthew Stevenson and Mrs. Kennedy.

HE COMPROMISED.—Captain Anderson, undersheriff's agent, has returned from Charlottetown. He compromised with the schooner Harold, which reached there a few days ago, with low-spirited goods, foremost sprung and leaking.—Halifax Herald.

PATRONIZE IT.—The Mission Band of the Baptist Church are holding an exhibition and sale in the basement this afternoon and evening. Refreshments will also be provided. Articles suitable for Christmas presents may be obtained there at reasonable prices.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS.—The Prince of Wales College closed to-day for the Christmas holidays, and will not reopen until the 5th January. The city schools also closed to-day, and will not be reopened until Wednesday, January 2, 1895.

UNDER THE BANY.—According to a despatch from New York, Mr. Satoli has promulgated an edict from the Pope, placing the Oblatians and Knights of Pythias and Sons of Temperance under the ban of the church. The decision applies to Catholics all over the world.

Y. M. C. A.—At the adjourned annual meeting held last evening, the carrying committee reported that about $3,000 had been pledged towards paying off the $4,000 necessary to discharge mortgage interest and all indebtedness. Considerable discussion took place regarding the best method of saving the building, but no definite action was taken. A final meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, January 7th.

ADJOURNED MEETING.—The meeting held at Marshfield on Monday night to consider the establishment of a dress and underwear factory in that locality, was adjourned to meet at Millcoast at two o'clock and nine o'clock on Saturday, 23rd inst. Superintendent Dillon will be present and address both meetings. It is desirable that the meetings be largely attended by the representative farmers of that district.

BETTER THAN EVER.—The Charlottetown Steam Laundry is now located in the premises on Water Street, formerly occupied by Mr. F. T. Newbery. Everything is fitted up in good shape, and the facilities for doing work promptly and in the best style were never better than they are at present. Mr. Sterne reports business good, notwithstanding the foreign currency situation. He guarantees good work and prompt attention every time.

CHASERS OF THE MOVE.—In the month of October last, says the Soreby correspondent of the Guardian, cigars to the value of $25 were stolen from the grocery store of Mr. Eparaim MacKenzie, on Main street. On the night of Saturday last, a number of the cigars were left on the premises by the repent thief or thieves. Mr. MacKenzie expresses himself as willing to leave the door at the entrance to the back part of his store open until all the cigars are returned.

A NEW INDUSTRY.—Grave robbing for the purpose of selling the dead bodies is nothing new, but the business of robbing graves for the purpose of getting the coffins to sell them over again is rather a new industry. A systematic business has been made of robbing the country graves in Michigan, Northern Indiana, and Illinois for some time and this week the fact developed that these coffins were sent to a Chicago firm. Detectives who were working on the case for several weeks found that many new graves had been opened and bodies removed from the coffins back into the ground, the earth replaced and the coffins shipped to Chicago.

MARKET PRICES.—The market today was well stocked and the attendance of purchasers was exceedingly large. So many persons visited the market during the forenoon that it was difficult to move about or transact business, and not a few went home without making a purchase, intending to call again in the afternoon when the crush was not so great. The display of leaf was excellent, and there was a great showing of turkeys, geese, fowl, etc. We quote the prices as follows:—cans, 34c; per lb; pork, 64c to 54c; per lb; potatoes, 20c; 2 1/2 lbs; per lb; 22c; per 100 lbs; geese, 60c; 50 to 80; turkeys, 75c; 4 to 5; best, per quart, 4 to 5; turkey, 75c; 4 to 5; chickens, 45 to 50c; per pair; ducks, 50 to 75c; per pair; straws, 25 to 30c; per 100 lbs; turkeys, 10 to 12c; per lb.

Photography does not receive any of the usual encouragement in this city. It seems there are no photographic societies in that country, nor a Russian contributions usually found in the international exhibitions. To become an amateur photographer in Russia it is necessary to communicate with the police and obtain a license. If the photographer is not discreet in what he "takes," the authorities take him and keep him. It is no wonder that under such circumstances the art does not flourish there.

GENERAL TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

LONDON, December 19.—The Standard's consular correspondent says U. S. Consul Jenett insists upon accompanying the commission of enquiry, despite the unfavorable attitude of the ports.

PARIS, December 19.—Monsieur Mutel, head of the Catholic missions in Corea, writes that the position of the native Christians is most serious. The rebellious Tonguaks, he says, now threaten to invade the northern part of the peninsula.

SEATTLE, Washington, December 19.—A conflagration has enveloped the Newwente coal mine. The whole property, valued at half a million dollars, is threatened with destruction. The water from Coal creek was poured into the mine. 250 men will be idle several months.

St. Petersburg, December 19.—Capt. Wigg's Arctic explorer, and party, lost to the world several weeks last fall, arrived at Archangel on December 13. Five men, severely frost-bitten, are in hospital. All forty men agree that there were hardships during the overland journey of 32 days from Chaslalova to Pet-zersk.

LONDON, Dec. 19.—The Times' correspondent in Hiroshima says foreign correspondents of the Japanese army who have returned there agree that there were regrettable Japanese excesses at Port Arthur, but that the conduct of the Japanese was excusable, being paralleled in the best European armies. He positively denies that reporters left the army in disgust.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—A public indignation meeting to protest against the Armenian atrocities was held in St. Martin's Town Hall to-night. A very large crowd was present. Francis Seymour Stevenson, member of parliament and chairman of the Anglo-Armenian Association, presided. He was supported by Canon McColl and Gwyn, and others.

The following letter was read: Hawarden Castle, Dec. 14. Dear Mr. Stevenson.—The terrible statements concerning the Armenians have riveted the attention of the world. I heartily wish well to your every effort for bringing out the truth. Should the allegations be sustained, it will prompt the civilized world to ask how long these things are to be endured. I will not anticipate the result of the examination, but I feel morally certain that the administration will not rest without a most thorough examination into the matter, in which, under the Cyprus convention, we have a separate, deep and painful interest. It is my hope that the Ottoman government, for its own honor, will cordially concur in this searching examination.

(Signed) G. BLANDSTONE. Mr. Stevenson, Canon McColl, Rev. Newman Hall and others spoke, and resolutions condemning the outrages were passed.

OTTAWA, Dec. 19.—E. B. Edly has quarrelled with Mrs. Barry, his daughter, who opposed the millionaire's marriage to Miss Sherif, of Chatham, N. B. in June last, and has entered suit against her for $16,000, money alleged to have been spent on the house in which Mrs. Barry lives. Mr. Edly had decided to let his first wife without consideration, and on her death he had willed it unconditionally to his daughter. Mr. Edly will put forward the plea of no consideration an attempt to wrest the property from his daughter, with whom he has quarrelled.

TO EDITOR "EXAMINER" DEAR SIR.—I sent you a poem last week and asked you to publish it in your paper. You declined, and returned it to me with the crushing reply that it was no poem and that you could turn better poetry out of a sausage machine. Now I won't be crushed, and I purpose to show up your attempt to throttle budding genius. Publish this card and the following poem in your advertising columns and charge me your full advertising rates.

Yours, J. CARRINGTON RILEY. THE POEM. I stood upon the ocean's sandy beach, And with a reed I wrote upon the sand these words: "Ages—I love them and the waves rolled mountains high, And blotted out the fair impression. Cruel waves! Treacherous sand! Fragile Reed! No longer will I trust to thee. But from the highest mountain peak I'll pluck the tallest pine. It will write Upon the high and burished heavens these tender words: "JONSSON & JOHNSON are holding the biggest and price sale of Perfumes, essences, and toilet articles in this city. They are now offering Perfumes so low their cheapness would almost take your breath away. And I would like to see the dog-gone wave wash that out."
