IN MEMORIAM WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MEETINGS

MRS. B. WOOLDRIDGE. In the Realm of "Many Mansions" God has given a beautiful place to a loving and Sainly Mother. And the rapturous vision "face to face." At the Sacred Heart Home in Charlottetown there passed away in her seventy-fifth year Mrs. B. Wooldridge. She was formerly Bridget Ellen, daughter of Grace and James Fitzpatrick of Ten Mile House. She was a woman of kind and quiet disposition, a loving wife and mother and will be greatly missed by her loved ones and her many friends in the Sacred Heart Home, where she had resided for some years. Although not in robust health, due to falling eyesight she was able to be up and going about the home as usual until she suffered a stroke and heart condition. On Wednesday, January fourth, despite medical skill and tender nursing she did not recover and fortified by the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which she was a faithful member: she passed peacefully away in the early hours of Sunday morning, January eighth. She leaves to mourn the loss of a loving mother and sister, one daughter, Mary, Mrs. Leslie Steenson, Dunstaffnage; one step-daughter, Mrs. Helen Smith, Ten Mile House; two sisters who visited her last Summer, Mrs. A. MacHatten and Mrs. Catherine Hughes, both of East Boston. Also nieces and nephews: her brother Charles predeceased her over seven years ago, also her husband Simon Wooldridge passed away about eighteen years ago. The remains rested at the A. A. Henessey's Funeral Home. The funeral was held from St. Bonaventure's Church, Tracadie, on Tuesday, January tenth, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Kenneth MacPherson. The pallbearers were: John Smith, Alfred Smith, Edward Fitzpatrick, Fenton Court, Charles Corrigan, James Hughes. She was laid to rest in the family plot in the Church Cemetery, Rev. Kenneth MacMillan officiated at the grave. There was a beautiful floral tribute: Pillow—Mary and Leslie.
