THE TEMPTERS.

After a Bargain.
 "One dollar a yard!" she exclaimed when the shop assistant had told her the price. "Why, that's exorbitant."
 "We can't afford to sell it for any less," replied the young man.
 "Well, I know where I can get it for less," she replied, "and I am too good a business woman to pay more than a thing is worth."
 And then she marched out of the shop and paid 50 cents for a hanson to go to a place where she could get the same thing for 98 cents.—Metropolitan.

The Leading Attraction.
 The Proprietor—Did you put up the biggest "Friday Bargain Sale" card?
 The Clerk—Yes, sir.
 The Proprietor—And the "Less Than Cost" banner, and the "For Two Hours Only" placard, and the "But One to Each Purchaser" sign?
 The Clerk—Yes, sir, all of them.
 The Proprietor—Then what in Tophet caused all those women to run out of the store?
 The Clerk—A passing soldier, sir.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Agua!no.
 I've no Wagnerian outfit,
 No horns nor big bassoon,
 But just the same, I'm happy
 To sound my little tune.
 I am my own director,
 And when I'd have my way
 No bilious solo player
 Steps forth to say me nay.

They sneered at my ambitions,
 But my music is endured
 By an audience of nations
 Whose attention I've secured.
 My heart is full of rapture,
 My mood is ever bland,
 For when I blow my whistle
 I'm the leader of the band.
 —Washington Star.

Limitations.
 The young man with the military uniform had been telling of his hardships and dwelt with particular emphasis on the rations. He was eloquently indignant, when his mother interrupted.
 "Ronald, people who hear you might think you do not love your country."
 "Yes, I do love my country," he answered, "and I'm willing to overlook faults, but I'm blessed if I can go so far as to praise its cooking."—Washington Star.

Through Thick and Thin.
 They are with us again, the brave laddies in blue,
 And we welcome them all with a will,
 And we'll help them forget all the woes they went through
 Where the battle notes echo and thrill.
 And it's thankful we are there's no greater dismay
 As we gaze on each conquering troop;
 They are with us again from the thick of the fray
 And the thin of the coffee and soup.
 —New York Truth.

Evidence of Ability.
 "Skidley always seems industrious," remarked the gossip. "And yet he never accomplishes much."
 "Yes," replied the eager listener, "he's one of these people who whenever they do anything make you think they'd be first rate hands at something else."—Washington Star.

Fitting Punishment.
 The playwright half his play had stolen. Yet when first nighters mocked it madly
 That author's cheeks with rage were swollen—
 He thought his audience used him badly!
 But, though the "gods" so fiercely roared,
 We can't about us fairness quiz 'em;
 It strikes us that the right reward
 For plagiarism is play-jeer-ism!
 —Ally Sloper.

Appropriate Hymns.
 Some people have peculiar notions of what is "appropriate." Some time ago a resident of a neighboring town was preaching at the Gladstone jail and prefaced his remarks by regretting the small attendance. At a race meeting held at — a band was engaged to play "appropriate music," and it was found that the numbers selected were from Moody and Sankey. "Go Bury Thy Sorrow" was one of them, and the other were all equally "appropriate."
 Christmas religious service was held at the local jail and hymns suitable to the occasion were of course selected. The first one was "Free From the Law, Oh, Happy Condition," and the last, "We'll Never Leave This Safe Abode, a Refuge in the Time of Storm." The funny side of it all appealed to some of the inmates, and the intended good effect of the service was lost.—Adelaide Quiz.

THE POOR MAN'S BURDEN.

(After Kipling)
 Pile on the Poor Man's Burden—
 Drive out the beastly breed;
 Go bind its sons in exile
 To serve your pride and greed;
 To wait, in heavy harness,
 Upon your rich and grand;
 The common working peoples,
 The serfs of every land.

Pile on the Poor Man's Burden—
 His patience will abide;
 He'll veil the threat of terror
 And cheek the show of pride,
 By pious cant and humberg,
 You'll show his pathway plain,
 To work for another's profit
 And suffer on in pain.

Pile on the Poor Man's Burden—
 Your savage wars increase.
 Give him his full of famine,
 Nor bid his sickness cease,
 And when your goal is nearest
 Your glory's dearly bought
 For the poor man in his tury
 May bring your pride to naught.

Pile on the Poor Man's Burden—
 Your monopolistic rings
 Shall crush the serf and sweeper
 Like iron rule of kings.
 Your joys he shall not enter,
 Nor pleasant roads shall tread;
 He'll make them with his living,
 And mar them with his dead.

Pile on the Poor Man's Burden—
 The day of reckoning near—
 He will call aloud on Freedom
 And Freedom's God shall hear.
 He will try you in the balance;
 He'll deal out justice true;
 For the Poor Man with his Burden
 Weighs more with God than you.

Lift off the Poor Man's Burden—
 My Country, grand and great—
 The Orient has no treasures
 To buy a Christian state,
 Our souls brook not oppression;
 Our needs—if read aright—
 Call not for wide possession,
 But Freedom's sacred light.

Geo. E. McNeill

MR. MONTAGUE, DUNVILLE, ONT.,

Has an Interesting Chat About Dr. Chase's Ointment,
HIS SUFFERING FROM ULCERATING PILES CURED.

He says:—I was troubled with itching piles for five years, and was badly ulcerated. They were very painful, so much so that I could not sleep. I tried almost every remedy heard of, and was recommended to use Dr. Chase's Ointment. I purchased a box, and from the first application got such relief that I was satisfied a cure would be made. I used in all two boxes, and am now completely cured.
 Every remedy given by Dr. Chase cost years of study and research, and with an eye single to its adaptation for the ailments for which it was intended. Dr. Chase detested cure-alls, and it has been proven ten thousand times that not one of his formulas leave a bad after-effect. Dr. Chase's Ointment is based on lanoline, and the best physicians prescribe it.

Mr. M. T. Wigle, of Kingsville, Essex Co.

Cured of Itching Piles of 23 Years Standing.
 Physicians Fail to Make a Cure When Dr. Chase's Ointment Gave Immediate Relief.

M. T. Wigle, better known to every one in the vicinity as "Uncle Mike," was troubled for over 23 years with itching piles. At times he was so bad he would have to quit work. The irritation became so intense with constant rubbing that they became ulcerated and would bleed. He had been treated by many physicians, but found nothing that gave him relief. Reading in the paper the cure of a friend who had suffered in a like manner, and being cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment, he procured a box. After the third application he got such relief that he had the first comfortable night's sleep he enjoyed in years. The one box made a complete cure, and he says he would not be without it for $50 a box if it could not be replaced. Mr. Wigle is a wealthy farmer, well known in the community in which he resides. It is over two years since he was afflicted, and he has never been troubled since.
